Dancing for JP II - Picture 6

Rome's Olympic Stadium - April 1984

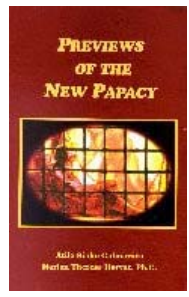

A group of 1200 young women perform synchronized dancing in front of John Paul II during the Vatican-sponsored Sports Jubilee. An estimated 100,000 people were in the stadium to greet the Pope.

The skintight leotards are very immodest, and the ensemble appears more like women in a chorus line than faithful youth before a Pontiff.
