In-depth study of the Occult.

Required reading.

This is one of the most in-depth studies on put it down once I began reading. This book is a real blessing. If you want to understand what is going on in the world which all of a sudden seems so degenerate, so unconscionable, so deliberately vile, read this book and you'll find an answer to every single one of your questions. These things aren't just happening coincidentally -- there is a plan. If you're curious about that plan in any way, you will love this book.

Dave Hunt lacks faith, Jul 27 2003

By Sean Hoade (Tuscaloosa, AL United States) - See all my reviews

I know that the writer puts himself forward as a Christian--more importantly, "the right kind of Christian"--but in fact his attacks on other religions, using falsehoods and lies (the way Satan would) show that he is actually LACKING in Christian faith. This book is sad indeed.

For instance, the Dalai Lama is not considered a "God" by the Tibetan Buddhists. They "worship" him the way a Christian "worships" a great preacher or teacher--he inspires faith in those of his denomination. Dave Hunt's misinformed comments about the Dalai lama is one of MANY, MANY intentional lies in this book. If you're a real Christian--not one of "Hunt's army," but someone who actually follows the Bible--then avoid this like a plague of locusts.

Typical Fundamentalist Fearmongering, Jun 8 2003

By A Customer

I find it hard to believe that this book is selling so well. Oh, I expect "saved and born again" Fundamentalists will love it, but I would be amazed if others would be misled into believing such fearmongering.

Actually, it's hatemongering as well. And it's highly political, as is most of the Christian Right's activities. It's designed to instill hate for the "godless secular humanists" and anyone else who doesn't subscribe to Fundamentalist doctrine and dogma.

As Jesus said, "...the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, is now already in the world." (1 John 4:1) In other words, the Antichrist was already in the world when Jesus spoke those words. Therefore, the Antichrist is not a particular entity or person. In fact, the Antichrist is represented by an egocentric, self-centered person who does the OPPOSITE of what the Christ did.

In other words, whereas Jesus rejected the throne, the Antichrist seeks and fights for the throne. Whereas Jesus told Peter to put down the sword and said that those who live by the sword die by the sword, the Antichrist relishes living by the sword (gun and bomb).

You should not be tempted to believe the false beliefs and false doctrines that this book presents. Remember, Jesus said, "If any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, who shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive and seduce the very elect." (Jesus, Matthew 24:23-24 and Mark 13:21-22)

False prophets abound today, saying Christ is here or there, or will be here or there. They also talk about Satan and the Antichrist and the "end times" and "last days" to scare people into joining them (and buy their books and support their ministries). But only the gullible and foolish swallow their lies and hypocrisy. And while I'm sorry to be so blunt, that is the real fact of the matter.
