Incredible personal testimony and insight, March 21, 2008

By Dave Mullbock "Dave" (Pacific Northwest) - See all my reviews

It's been a couple years since I read this book. However, I'm planning on re-reading it in the near future. The insights in this book are very compelling as they come from a profound personal experience that is both shocking and enlightening. I've recently been reminded of this book as some recent exposure to the Oprah Winfrey show has refreshed in my memory everything described in Will Baron's testimony. For anyone who is an Oprah fan, I urge you to read this book.

A Wake Up Call for Christians and Other Truth Seekers,
September 14, 1998

The New Age from the Inside
Out

Will Baron's autobiographical account of his experiences in the New Age Movement provide a sobering wake-up call -- particularly to Christians -- of the inherent dangers of this invasive movement. Truly, even the "very elect" are in danger of being deceived if they fail to remain alert and in continuous study of scripture. Already, New Age practices are being subtly introduced into "fundamental" and "conservative" Christian churches throughout the world. This book shows that you shouldn't doubt for one moment that it could happen in your church. Learn how deception is slipping through the cracks via seemingly innocuous practices that fail under closer examination to live up to testing required by Scripture. Read this book; read the Bible; be vigilant; be on guard.

Very educational, June 16, 2001

By Raoul Pop "raoulpop" (North Bethesda, MD USA) - See all my reviews

This book ought to be on the reading list of any serious Christian. It's important to know how to keep on the "straight and narrow" path the Bible teaches.
