Please use your common sense. Messianics seek nothing more than to convert content Jews to Christianity. PLEASE, for the sake of your Judaism, do not indulge their evil intents.

I discovered Messianic Jews within weeks of discovering Jesus. I have straddled both the church and (messianic) synagogue ever since. This book helped clear up much of the history I was missing and seemed to lay out the entire discussion in a great way. I highly recommend it for "Christians" to learn about how we ended up in 2002 with the kind of church culture we have.

\(Report this\)Wonderful Discussion of Important Issues., Mar 30 2002By Barry L. Boyer "Barry the Missionary" (Ritzville, WA USA) - See all my reviews

I disagree with those parts of this book that endorse a two track system: one for Jews and another for Gentiles. But David Stern is not negative with regard to Gentiles following a Torah life as long as they do so for the "right reasons." This book covers a lot of ground and can be read for great profit by those interested in the Messianic Jewish movement. This book is essential for those who want a broad understanding of the issues. David Stern is a giant among Messianic Jewish teachers.
