Splendid Reference Work from the Reformer,

August 15, 2000

By Orthodox Lutheran Reader - See all my reviewsThis review is from: What Luther Says: A Practical In-Home Anthology for the Active Christian \(Hardcover\)

This one-volume reference used to be in three, smaller volumes. So yes, the size of this text, at times, can be unwieldy, but what a trove of quotations! Luther was a master of theology and Plass's selections show a broad range of the subjects he wrote about and preached on. This volume is definitely worth the investment for anyone who may need an applicable quotation or desires to delve into Luther's thoughts.

Excellent Reference Tool, May 13, 1997By A CustomerThis review is from: What Luther Says: A Practical In-Home Anthology for the Active Christian \(Hardcover\)

This anthology of Martin Luther's writings, sermons, and teachings is an excellent tool for any Christian to use as a devotional guide or a reference book. It provides easy access to the thoughts, beliefs, and ideas of Luther in a user-friendly format, and is not overly cumbersome. It deserves a prominent spot in every Christian's library

I am very satisfied with the new publication of this book. One volume in most cases is better than three. Read more

A Treasure!, August 25, 2007

By tc robinson "A Christ-follower" (CA) - See all my reviews

What a buy this is! Five stars and counting, I say. This is a great anthology. Buyer, you cannot go wrong. The binding is excellent, so too the paper and the print. This print is 9.5.

If you want a treasure chest of great ideas on God and theology and the Bible is general from one who saturated himself with the Word, this is it.
