

Chapter 1The Jesuits – 1540*Their Purpose and Oath
Secret Instructions of the Jesuits
The Jesuit General and Absolutism

*The Spaniard would be of noble birth,
Who with his Order
enflame the Earth.*

The shout of its General to each man, “Restore the age of Hildebrand!”

*The Pope’s two swords were through this one,
Unsheathed by Satan against God’s Son.*

*What is his name
that we may know,
Who broke our hearts
with wars of woe?*

*Ah, we’ll whisper
in your ear,
That dreaded name
of yesteryear.*

*“Ignatius Loyola”
you’ve heard before?
Ne’er forget!
Evermore!*

The Author

“The nobility and populace must, by all methods, be persuaded into a belief that the Society was instituted by the particular direction of divine providence, according to the prophecies of the abbot Jachim, that by this means the church, though depressed by the attempts of heretics, may be raised again to its primitive luster.”¹

Ignatius Loyola, 1540
Founder and General of the Jesuits
Secret Instructions of the Jesuits

“...for liberal institutions and civil and religious freedom have no greater enemies than that cunning fraternity; while it is equally true, that although the Jesuits are dreaded and detested knaves, there are few who are thoroughly acquainted with their eventful history, and with all those arts by which the fathers have earned for themselves a disgraceful celebrity...Their country is Rome; their sovereign the Pope; their laws the commands of their General...the Jesuits, by their very calling, by the very essence of their institution, are bound to seek, by every means, right or wrong, the destruction of Protestantism. This is the condition of their existence, the duty they must fulfill, or cease to be Jesuits.”²

G. B. Nicolini of Rome, 1854
Protestant Italian Patriot
Exiled to England
History of the Jesuits

“I swear to erect the throne and the altar upon the bones of the infamous Liberals, and to exterminate them one by one, without being moved by the clamors of children, old men and women!”³

Cardinal Albani, 1590
Jesuit Coadjutor

“Martin Luther...was a lost apostate, a thief, a robber, a filthy sow, and a senseless beast, the Devil’s boon companion.”⁴

Jesuit Conrad Better, 1610
German Jesuit

"The term 'Jesuit' has become synonymous with terms like deceit, chicanery, infiltration, intrigue, subversion...many organized Jesuits have been justly described as treacherous, traitorous workers, seducing many in the service of the Roman Pontiff away from national allegiance..."

'The profligate, the cunning, the daring, and all similar members of this motley sect, with their general and the host of his spies crawling like frogs, and flying like the locusts of Egypt all over the land, were fully initiated into the secrets of their 'instructions', and they acted on them every day, hence the horrid works of their footsteps of pollution and blood.'"⁵

J. E. C. Shepherd, 1987
Canadian Historian
The Babington Plot

"The General is the true Pope of the Company of Jesus, and the plan of this institute is to destroy all authority, and all government, having concentrated all in its society.

This ambitious Company is a nation, a power apart germinating in the loins of all others, changing their substance and surmounting their ruins."⁶

Riquet, 1762
Member, French Parliament

"In Roman Catholic circles it is well known that the Black Pope is the term used for the General of the Jesuits. As the Pope is always robed in white, and the General in black, the contrast is obvious. But those Romanists who do not greatly love the Jesuits, and their number is not limited, use the term as indicating that the Black Pope rules the White Pope...even while the former is obligated to make, at least, a show of submission to the latter."⁷

M. F. Cusack, 1896
Converted Nun of Kenmare
The Black Pope

"The power of the General shall be so unlimited that should he deem it necessary for the honour of God, he shall even be able to send back, or in other directions, those who have come direct from the Popes.""⁸

Ignatius Loyola, 1540
Founder & General of the Jesuits
Constitutions

"But not only is all friendly communication forbidden to the Jesuit but he is also placed under constant espionage. He is never permitted to walk about alone, but, whether in the house or out of doors, is always accompanied by two of his brethren — 'Except the General order otherwise for the greater glory of God [the Pope], and the benefit of the Society.'..."

Thus, no one but the General can exercise the right of uttering a single original thought or opinion. It is almost impossible to conceive the power, especially in former times, of a General having at his absolute disposal such an amount of intelligences, wills, and energies."⁹

Further,

"...the merit of framing the Constitution which was to govern it belongs solely to Ignatius himself. He alone among them all was capable of such a conception. He alone could have devised a scheme by which one free rational being is converted into a mere automaton — acting, speaking, even thinking, according to the expressed will of another. There is no record in history, of any man, be he king, emperor, or pope, exercising such absolute and irresponsible power over his fellow-men as does the General of the Jesuits over his disciples..."

Thus, the General knowing the past and present life, the thoughts, the desires of every one belonging to the Society, it is easy to understand how he is enabled always to select the fittest person for every special service."¹⁰

Protestant Italian Patriot
Exiled to England
History of the Jesuits

"The General is at the head of this black and mute militia, which thinks, wills, acts, obeys — the passive instrument of his designs. Their whole life must have but one aim — the advancement of the Order to which they are attached." ¹¹

Jeremiah J. Crowley, 1912
Ex-Irish Priest
Romanism: Menace to the Nation

"See, sir, from this chamber I govern not only to Paris, but to China, not only to China, but to all the world, without any one to know how I do it." ¹²

Michael Angelo Tamburini
Jesuit General, 1706-1730

The purpose of the Society of Jesus, founded by Ignatius Loyola in 1536 and formally established by the Pope in 1540, is to destroy every vestige of the Lord's Grand and Glorious Protestant Reformation begun by Martin Luther in 1517. The Jesuits call this "the Counter-Reformation".

In seeking to destroy the Protestant Reformation, the Professed Jesuits, after a fifteen-year education and thirty-one years in the Order, have obligated themselves with an Oath known as the Fourth Vow. Many Jesuits, however, are not Professed and therefore have never been fully initiated into the evils of "the Company".

"But the Jesuits alone, shroud themselves intentionally in a darkness, which the laity are completely forbidden to penetrate, and the veil is not even uplifted to many of the members. There are among them a large number who have taken merely three vows, but not the fourth, and who are in consequence, not at all, or at any rate, not properly instructed regarding the true principles, institutions and liberties of the order; this secret, on the other hand, is entrusted, as is known to His Holiness, to only a small number, and whatever is especially important is known only to the Superiors and the General." ¹³

Bishop Palafox, 1649
Letter to Pope Innocent X
The Jesuits

But of the Fourth Vow we read:

"The Jesuit is not permitted to take his full and final vows [Extreme Oath of the Fourth Vow] until he has attained the age of forty-five. As a consequence there are few fully professed members of the Order...Thirty-one years shall have been passed in the Order before the final vows are taken, so that a Jesuit who had not entered the novitiate at a very early age, might be far older than the years specified before he could take the final vows. In the meantime he is simply the bond slave of the General, who may dismiss him at will, or retain him at pleasure. He must become a corpse in the hands of his superior..." ¹⁴

Converted Nun of Kenmare
The Black Pope

A portion of the Oath published in 1845 reads:

I, _____, now in the presence of Almighty God...and to you my ghostly father do declare from my heart, without mental reservation, that Pope Gregory is Christ's Vicar General, and is the true and only head of the universal church throughout the earth...he hath power to deplore heretical kings, princes, states, commonwealths, and governments, all being illegal, without his sacred confirmation, and that they may safely be destroyed;

I do renounce and disown any allegiance as due to any heretical king, prince, or state, named Protestant, or obedience to any of their inferior magistrates or officers. I do further declare the doctrine of the Church of England, of the Calvinists, Huguenots, and other Protestants, to be damnable, and those to be damned who will not forsake the same. I do further declare, that I will help, assist, and advise all or any of his Holiness's agents in any place wherever I shall be; and do my utmost to extirpate the heretical protestants' doctrine, and to destroy all their pretended power, legal or otherwise. I do further promise and declare, that notwithstanding I am dispensed with to assume any religion heretical, for the propagation of the mother church's interest, to keep secret and private all her agents' counsels, as they entrust me, and not to divulge, directly or indirectly, by word, writing or circumstance whatsoever, but to execute all which shall be proposed, given in charge, or discovered unto me, by you my ghostly father, or by any one of this convent. All which I, _____, do swear by the blessed Trinity, and blessed sacrament, which I am now to receive, to perform on my part to keep inviolably; and do call all the heavenly and glorious host of heaven, to witness my real intentions to keep this my Oath. In testimony hereof...¹⁵

The complete Oath published in 1883 reads:

CEREMONY OF INDUCTION AND
EXTREME OATH OF THE JESUITS

[When a Jesuit of the minor rank is to be elevated to command, he is conducted into the Chapel of the Convent of the Order, where there are only three others present, the principal or Superior standing in front of the altar. On either side stands a monk, one of whom holds a banner of yellow and white, which are the Papal colors, and the other a black banner with a dagger and red cross above a skull and crossbones, with the word INRI, and below them the words IUSTUM, NECARE, REGES, IMPIOS. The meaning of which is: It is just to exterminate or annihilate impious or heretical Kings, Governments or Rulers. Upon the floor is a red cross upon which the postulant or candidate kneels. The Superior hands him a small black crucifix, which he takes in his left hand and presses to his heart, and the Superior at the same time presents to him a dagger, which he grasps by the blade and holds the point against his heart, the Superior still holding it by the hilt, and thus addresses the postulant.]

SUPERIOR.

My son, heretofore you have been taught to act the dissembler: among Roman Catholics to be a Roman Catholic, and to be a spy even among your own brethren; to believe no man, to trust no man. Among the Reformers, to be a Reformer; among the Huguenots, to be a Huguenot; among the Calvinists, to be a Calvinist; among the Protestants, generally to be a Protestant; and obtaining their confidence to seek even to preach from their pulpits, and to denounce with all the vehemence in your nature our Holy Religion and the Pope; and even to descend so low as to become a Jew among the Jews, that you might be enabled to gather together all information for the benefit of your Order as a faithful soldier of the Pope.

You have been taught to insidiously plant the seeds of jealousy and hatred between communities, provinces and states that were at peace, and incite them to deeds of blood, involving them in war with each other, and to create revolutions and civil wars in countries that were independent and prosperous, cultivating the arts and the sciences and enjoying the blessings of peace. To take sides with the combatants and to act secretly in concert with your brother Jesuit, who might be engaged on the other side, but openly opposed to that with which you might be connected; only that the Church might be the gainer in the end, in the conditions fixed in the treaties for peace and that the end justifies the means.

You have been taught your duty as a spy, to gather all statistics, facts and information in your power from every source; to ingratiate yourself into the confidence of the family circle of Protestants and heretics of every class and character, as well as that of the merchant, the banker, the lawyer, among the schools and universities, in parliaments and legislatures, and in the judiciaries and councils of state, and to "be all things to all men," for the Pope's sake, whose servants we are unto death.

You have received all your instructions heretofore as a novice, a neophyte, and have served as a coadjutor, confessor and priest, but you have not yet been invested with all that is necessary to command in the Army of Loyola in the service of the Pope. You must serve the proper time as the instrument and executioner as directed by your superiors; for none can command here who has not consecrated his labors with the blood of the heretic; for "without the shedding of blood no man can be saved." Therefore, to fit yourself for your work and make your own salvation sure, you will, in addition to your former oath of obedience to your Order and allegiance to the Pope, repeat after me:

THE EXTREME OATH OF THE JESUITS.

I, M____ N____, Now, in the presence of Almighty God, the Blessed Virgin Mary, the blessed Michael the Archangel, the blessed St. John the Baptist, the holy Apostles St. Peter and St. Paul and all the saints and sacred hosts of heaven, and to you, my ghostly father, the Superior General of the Society of Jesus, founded by St. Ignatius Loyola, in the Pontificate of Paul the Third, and continued to the present, do by the womb of the Virgin, the matrix of God, and the rod of Jesus Christ, declare and swear, that his holiness the Pope is Christ's

Veis

Vice-regent and is the true and only Head of the Catholic or Universal Church throughout the earth; and that by virtue of the keys of binding and loosing, given to his Holiness by my Saviour, Jesus Christ, he hath power to depose heretical kings, princes, states, commonwealths and governments, all being illegal without his sacred confirmation and that they may safely be destroyed. Therefore, to the utmost of my power, I shall and will defend this doctrine and His Holiness' right and custom against all usurpers of the heretical or Protestant authority whatever, especially the Lutheran Church of Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway, and the now pretended authority and churches of England and Scotland, and branches of the same now established in Ireland and on the Continent of America and elsewhere; and all adherents in regard that they be usurped and heretical, opposing the sacred Mother Church of Rome. I do now renounce and disown any allegiance as due to any heretical king, prince or state named Protestants or Liberals or obedience to any of their laws, magistrates or officers.

I do further declare that the doctrines of the churches of England and Scotland, of the Calvinists, Huguenots and others of the name Protestants or Liberals to be damnable, and they themselves damned and to be damned who will not forsake the same.

I do further declare, that I will help, assist and advise all or any of his Holiness' agents in any place wherever I shall be, in Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, England, Ireland, or America, or in any other kingdom or territory I shall come to, and do my uttermost to extirpate the heretical Protestants or Liberals' doctrines and to destroy all their pretended powers, regal or otherwise.

I do further promise and declare, that notwithstanding I am dispensed with, to assume any religion heretical, for the propagating of the Mother Church's interest, to keep secret and private all her agents' counsels from time to time, as they may entrust me, and not to divulge, directly or indirectly, by word, writing or circumstance whatever; but to execute all that shall be proposed, given in charge or discovered unto me, by you, my ghostly father, or any of this sacred convent.

I do further promise and declare, that I will have no opinion or will of my own, or any mental reservation whatever, even as a corpse or cadaver, (perinde ac cadaver), but will unhesitatingly obey each and every command that I may receive from my superiors in the Militia of the Pope and of Jesus Christ.

That I will go to any part of the world whithersoever I may be sent, to the frozen regions of the North, the burning sands of the desert of Africa, or the jungles of India, to the centres of civilization of Europe, or to the wild haunts of the barbarous savages of America, without murmuring or repining, and will be submissive in all things whatsoever communicated to me.

I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, burn, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.

In confirmation of which, I hereby dedicate my life, my soul and all my corporeal powers, and with this dagger which I now receive, I will subscribe my name written in my own blood, in testimony thereof; and should I prove false or weaken in my determination, may my brethren and fellow soldiers of the Militia of the Pope cut off my hands and my feet, and my throat from ear to ear, my belly opened and sulphur burned therein, with all the punishment that can be inflicted upon me on earth and my soul be tortured by demons in an eternal hell forever!

All of which I, M____ N____, do swear by the blessed Trinity and blessed Sacrament, which I am now to receive, to perform and on my part to keep inviolably; and do call all the heavenly and glorious host of heaven to witness these my real intentions to keep this my oath.

In testimony hereof I take this most holy and blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist, and witness the same further, with my name written with the point of this dagger dipped in my own blood and sealed in the face of this holy convent.

[He receives the wafer from the Superior and writes his name with the point of his dagger dipped in his own blood taken from over the heart.]

SUPERIOR.

You will now rise to your feet and I will instruct you in the Catechism necessary to make yourself known to any member of the Society of Jesus belonging to this rank.

In the first place, you, as a Brother Jesuit, will with another mutually make the ordinary sign of the cross as any ordinary Roman Catholic would; then one crosses his wrists, the palms of his hands open, the other in answer crosses his feet, one above the other; the first points with the forefinger of the right hand to the center of the palm of the left, the other with the forefinger of the left hand points to the center of the palm of the right; the first then with his right hand makes a circle around his head, touching it; the other then with the forefinger of his left hand touches the left side of his body just below his heart; the first then with his right hand draws it across the throat of the other, and the latter then with his right hand makes the motion of cutting with a dagger down the stomach and abdomen of the first. The first then says Iustum; and the other answers Necare; the first then says Reges. The other answers Impios. (The meaning of which has already been explained.) The first will then present a small piece of paper folded in a peculiar manner, four times, which the other will cut longitudinally and on opening the name JESU will be found written upon the head and arms of a cross three times. You will then give and receive with him the following questions and answers.

Ques. From whither do you come?

Ans. From the bends of the Jordan, from Calvary, from the Holy Sepulchre, and lastly from Rome.

Ques. What do you keep and for what do you fight?

Ans. The Holy faith.

Ques. Whom do you serve?

Ans. The Holy Father at Rome, the Pope, and the Roman Catholic Church Universal throughout the world.

Ques. Who commands you?

Ans. The Successor of St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus or the Soldiers of Jesus Christ.

Ques. Who received you?

Ans. A venerable man in white hair.

Ques. How?

Ans. With a naked dagger, I kneeling upon the cross beneath the banners of the Pope and of our sacred Order.

Ques. Did you take an oath?

Ans. I did, to destroy heretics and their governments and rulers, and to spare neither age, sex nor condition. To be as a corpse without any opinion or will of my own, but to implicitly obey my superiors in all things without hesitation or murmuring.

Ques. Will you do that?

Ans. I will.

Ques. How do you travel?

Ans. In the bark of Peter the fisherman.

Ques. Whither do you travel?

Ans. To the four quarters of the globe.

Ques. For what purpose?

Ans. To obey the orders of my General and Superiors and execute the will of the Pope and faithfully fulfill the conditions of my oath.

Ques. Go ye, then, into all the world and take possession of all lands in the name of the Pope. He who will not accept him as the Vicar of Jesus and his Vice-regent on earth, let him be accursed and exterminated.¹⁶ [Emphasis added]

(This same identical Oath can be found in Subterranean Rome by Carlos Didier, translated from the French and published in New York in 1843. It can also be found in the Library of Congress, Catalog Card Number, 66-43354.)

A portion of the Oath published in 1894 reads:

"I do now renounce and disown my allegiance as due to any heretical King, Prince or State, named Protestant, or liberals, or obedience to any of their laws or magistrates or officers.

I do further declare that the doctrine of the churches of England and Scotland, of the Calvinists, Huguenots and other of the name Protestant or Liberals, to be damnable, and they themselves to be damned who will not forsake the same.

I do further declare that I will help, assist and advise all or any of His Holiness' agents, in any place where I shall be, in Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, England, Ireland or America, or in any other kingdom or territory I shall come to, and do my utmost to extirpate the heretical Protestant or liberal doctrines, and to destroy all their pretended powers, legal or otherwise." ¹⁷

A portion of the Oath entered into the Congressional Record as taken by the Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus, published in Feb. 15, 1913 reads:

...That I will provide myself with arms and ammunition that I may be in readiness when the word is passed, or am commanded to defend the church either as an individual or with the militia of the Pope...

In testimony hereof, I take this holy Eucharist and witness the same further with my name written with the point of this dagger dipped in my own blood [Does this not sound like the oath of the Mafia called 'Omerta'?] and sealed in the face of this holy sacrament...

"I do further declare that I will...do my utmost to extirpate the heretical Protestant or Liberal doctrines and to destroy all their pretended powers, legal or otherwise...I do further promise and declare, that I will, when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants, Liberals and Masons, as I am directed to do to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth, and that I will spare neither age, sex, nor condition...And that I will hang, burn, waste, boil, flay, strangle, bury alive, these infamous heretics, open up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls in order to annihilate their execrable race...

That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poison cup, the strangulation cord, the steel of the poniard, or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity or authority of the person or persons whatsoever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or superior of the brotherhood of the holy faith of the Society of Jesus [Does not this sound like the Jesuit Oath?].

Should I prove false or weaken in my determination, may my brethren and fellow militia of the Pope cut off my hands and feet, cut my throat from ear to ear, may my belly be opened and suffer burning therein with all the punishment that can be inflicted upon me on earth and my soul shall be tormented by demons in eternal hell forever [Does not this sound like a Masonic Oath?]. That I will in voting always vote for a Knight of Columbus in preference to a Protestant, especially a Mason..." ¹⁸

(Dear truth-seeker, the Jesuits not only authored the above Oath of the Knights of Columbus but also, as we shall later see, they wrote the Oaths of Scottish Rite Freemasonry over one hundred years prior to the creation of their new Order. In 1879 Edmond Ronayne, another Bible-believing hero, converted Romanist and Past Master of the Keystone Lodge in Chicago, gives some of the guidelines from his Masonic Handbook evidencing nearly identical Oaths with Freemasonry's supposed enemies and junior Jesuits, "the Knights of Columbus":

"When a brother reveals any of our great secrets; whenever, for instance, he tells anything about Boaz, or Tubalcain, or Jachin, or that awful Mah-hah-bone ('the name of the great Masonic god'), or even, whenever a minister prays in the name of Christ in any of our assemblies, you must always hold yourself in readiness, if called upon, to cut his throat from ear to ear, pull out his tongue by the roots, and bury his body at the bottom of some lake or pond. Of course, all this must be done in secret, as it was in the case of that notorious man Morgan, for both law and civilization are opposed to such barbarous crimes, but then, you know you must live up to your obligation, and so long as you have sworn to do it, by being very strict and obedient in the matter, you'll be free from sin." ¹⁹ [Emphasis added]

A portion of the Oath published in 1981 by one of our heroes Alberto Rivera, a former Professed Jesuit under this Extreme Oath reads:

CEREMONY OF INDUCTION AND
EXTREME OATH OF THE JESUITS

(Given to a Jesuit of minor rank when he is to be elevated to a position of command.)

Superior Speaks:

“My son, heretofore you have been taught to act the dissembler among the Roman Catholics to be a Roman Catholic, and to be a spy even among your own brethren: to believe no man, to trust no man. Among the reformers, to be a reformer; among the Huguenots (French Protestants) to be a Huguenot: among the Calvinists, to be a Calvinist: among the Protestants (those who protest and disagree with the Roman Catholic institution), generally to be a Protestant: and obtaining their confidence to seek even to preach from their pulpits, and to denounce with all the vehemence (violent emotion) in your nature our Holy Religion and the Pope; and even to descend so low as to become a Jew among the Jews, that you might be enabled to gather together all information for the benefit of your order as a faithful soldier of the Pope.

You have been taught to insidiously plant the seeds of jealousy and hatred between states that were at peace, and incite them to deeds of blood, involving them in war with each other, and to create revolutions and civil wars in communities, provinces and countries that were independent and prosperous, cultivating the arts and the sciences and enjoying the blessings of peace;

To take sides with the combatants and to act secretly in concert with your brother Jesuit who might be engaged on the other side, but openly opposed to that with which you might be connected;

Only that the church might be the gainer in the end in the conditions fixed in the treaties for peace, and that the ends justify the means.

You have been taught your duty as a spy, to gather all statistics, facts and information in your power from every source: to ingratiate yourself into the confidence of the family circle of Protestants and heretics of every class and character, as well as that of the merchant, the banker, the lawyer, among the schools and universities, in parliaments and legislatures, and in the judiciaries and councils of State, and to “be all things to all men,” for the Pope’s sake, whose servants we are unto death.

You have received all your instructions heretofore as a novice (one who has no training), a neophyte (a newly ordained priest), and have served as a coadjutor (worked as a helper), confessor and priest, but you have not yet been invested with all that is necessary to command in the army of Loyola and in the service of the Pope.

You must serve the proper time as the instrument and executioner as directed by your superiors; for none can command here who has not consecrated (made secret or holy) his labors with the blood of the heretic; for ‘without the shedding of blood no man can be saved.’

Therefore, to fit yourself for your work and make your own salvation sure, you will in addition to your former Oath of obedience to your order and allegiance to the Pope, repeat after me:

‘I _____, now, in the presence of Almighty God, the blessed Virgin Mary, the blessed Michael the Archangel, the blessed St. John the Baptist, the Holy Apostles, St. Peter and St. Paul and all the saints and sacred hosts of heaven...

I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly and openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do.

That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulation cord, the steel of the poniard (a dagger) or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or superior of the brotherhood of the holy faith, of the Society of Jesus.’ ”²⁰

Notice the Jesuits have taken this Oath to destroy “Protestant or Liberal doctrines” as they wage “relentless war” against “Protestants and Liberals”.

The term “Protestant”, as the Jesuits understand it, includes everyone who believes and teaches the Biblical doctrines proclaimed during the Protestant Reformation, championed by Martin Luther, John Calvin and John Knox (“Calvin with the Sword of Just Defense”) in particular. Protestants are “liberals and heretics” and must be “exterminated from the face of the whole earth.”

The term “Liberal”, as the Jesuits understand it, includes everyone – Protestants and Catholics alike – who believes and teaches that governments are best when they serve the people, and their powers are limited by written Constitutions. “Liberals”, especially the Protestant Calvinists, further believe that if governments become absolute tyrannies, they have the right and duty to formally withdraw their allegiance and resist these tyrannies with armed force, called by John Knox “the Sword of Just Defense”. It is for this reason that fascist-communist dictatorships forbid gun ownership by the peoples they rule. It is for this reason “The Jesuit Conference” within the United States seeks to abolish gun ownership, thereby destroying the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution — that “heretic” document created by condemned “Protestants and Liberals”.

In addition to the Oath, the Jesuits have a guidebook entitled Secreta Monita. It has only been disclosed to the world a few times, beginning in the mid 1600s and extending through the late 1800s:

“...but it has been made to disappear as has the most of all other books against the Jesuits.”²¹

Because of the magnitude of its contents as it relates to our subject, Secreta Monita or *Secret Instructions of the Jesuits*²² has been incorporated in its entirety, in the form of an attached CD within this volume’s cover, as it was republished in 1857. The Secret Instructions are no forgery, as we recall a portion of the famous letter from Bishop Juan de Palafox to Pope Innocent X dated January 8, 1649:

“...what other Religion has a secret constitution, hidden privileges, and concealed laws of its own? And what other order has all those things which relate to its government involved in so much mystery? There is suspicion in mystery. The rules of all other orders are open to all;...BUT THE SUPERIORS OF THE JESUITS DO NOT GOVERN THEM BY THE RULES OF THE CHURCH, WHICH ARE KNOWN TO ALL, BUT BY CERTAIN SECRET RULES WHICH ARE ONLY KNOWN TO THOSE SUPERIORS.”²³

Sherman encourages us:

“Read them all, omitting nothing, and say afterward if these precepts are a dead letter. Having ceased to care for the widow, to capture the inheritances, to rob the children from their families, of intriguing near the great, of influencing in the politics of the nations, of working to the last with but one object, that is... the engrandisement of the ‘Company of Jesus’ and the establishment of its dominion in the earth.”²⁴

[Emphasis added]

Nicolini adds:

“Now, examine well these instructions, and you will find that the true Jesuit must be crafty, insinuating, deceitful, and you will at once perceive the extent of the Jesuit immorality, and the artful way in which, in the name of the most sacred of all things — religion, they accomplish the most heinous offences.”²⁵

Dear truth-seeker, after reviewing your CD containing the Secret Instructions of the Jesuits, notice the last page where the Jesuit is permitted to commit high treason – the greatest of crimes worthy only of public execution – against a non-Roman Catholic government he has sworn to destroy.

The Jesuits, in resisting the Biblical teachings of the Reformers, guided the Council of Trent from 1545 to 1563. The twenty-five sessions of that Council condemned all the “doctrines of grace” held by the Reformers, accusing all peoples who maintained those beliefs. The Fourth Session condemned freedom of conscience, freedom of speech and freedom of the press. We read and marvel:

“The Fourth Session...was one of the most important sessions of the council. In this session, a decree was passed which placed tradition upon an equality with the Scriptures – declared the books of the Apocrypha to be a part of the word of God – elevated the Latin translation of the Scriptures called the Vulgate, to an authority superior to that of the inspired Hebrew and Greek originals, and exacted severe penal laws against the liberty of the press...The right of private judgment in reading the Scriptures was prohibited, its exercise punished and the liberty of the press was authoritatively forbidden.”²⁶

The Fourth Rule of the Congregation of the Index of Prohibited Books enacted by the Fourth Session of the Council of Trent and approved by Pope Pius IV in a Bull, issued on the 24th of March, 1564 regarding the Bible reads:

“Inasmuch as it is manifest from experience, that if the Holy Bible, translated into the vulgar tongue, be indiscriminately allowed to every one, the temerity of men will cause more evil than good to arise from it...But if any one shall have the presumption to read or possess it without such written permission, he shall not receive absolution until he has first delivered up such Bible to the ordinary... But regulars shall neither read nor purchase such Bibles without a special license from their superiors." ²⁷ [Emphasis added]

The Council concluded with the cry,

"Accursed be all heretics! Accursed!! Accursed!!" ²⁸

This evil and wicked Council of Trent – the backbone of the Counter-Reformation – would embody the religious and political maxims the Jesuit Order and its "infallible" Pope would follow for the rest of the millennium. Trent would become the foreign policy of nations under Jesuit control, further extending the Temporal Power of the Pope. The nation whose foreign policy has been the Council of Trent for the last one hundred years is Fourteenth Amendment America; as, she financed the Second Thirty Years' War including the Bolshevik Revolution which introduced the bloodbath of Communism into the Twentieth Century. Under the absolutism of Communism the Bible is a forbidden book — pursuant to the Council of Trent! President William Jefferson Clinton, that Jesuit-trained tool of the Pope, continued the policies of Trent with the mass bombing of Rome's old enemy, Orthodox Serbia.

The Jesuit General is an "absolutist". Today we would call him a "fascist military dictator". His absolute, unlimited power is supreme — even over the Pope! We read:

"The general has usually stood towards the Pope much as a powerful grand feudatory of the Middle Ages did towards a weak titular lord paramount...and the shrewd Roman populace have long shown their recognition of this fact by styling these two great personages severally the 'White Pope' and the 'Black Pope'. In truth the society has never, from the first, obeyed the Pope, whenever its will and his has happened to run counter to each other." ²⁹ [Emphasis added]

The General of the Jesuits is without question the most powerful man in the world. He is the Sovereign over the Society of Jesus and his Provincials are the masters of the Pope's Cardinals, who are in turn the visible or invisible political masters over every government of every nation. The Cardinals always promote or enforce some form of absolutism over the peoples be it Monarchialism, Socialism, Nazism, Communism, Fascism or Zionism. Of the General's power over the Society of Jesus, also called "the Company", we read from the pen of an ex-Jesuit:

"The General possesses the secrets of every member — a terrible fulcrum for the lever of influence. He knows the character, the inclinations of every member; he knows these facts, or may know them, for he has them in writing. He is made acquainted with the consciences of all who must obey him, particularly of the provincials and others, to whom he has entrusted functions of great importance. He must have, like each Superior, a complete knowledge of his subjects; their propensities, their sentiments, the defects, the sins to which they have been or are more inclined or impelled..."

Every year, a list of the houses and members of the Society, the names, talents, virtues, failings of all are there recorded. It was such a list, doubtless, that suggested to a General of the Society that proud exclamation, when, having exultingly alluded to his philosophers, mathematicians, orators, etc., he cried... 'and we have men for martyrdom, if they be required.'

In effect, from this minute list of mental and bodily qualities, he can compute his power and direct his plans, adapt his commands and insure success to his delegated functions...

The simple Jesuit is to possess for himself neither power, nor office, nor credit, nor riches, nor will, nor sentiments: the concentrated authority belongs to the general. His commands, his desires, are the law: his power flows from his hands as from its source, on the heads whom he chooses: it extends as far as he pleases; it stops when he wills...

His qualifications, according to the Constitutions, must be great piety, and the spirit of prayer: he must be exemplary in all the virtues; calm in his demeanor, circumspect in words. Magnanimity and fortitude are most essential attributes. He must have extraordinary intellect and judgment; prudence, rather than learning; vigilance, solicitude in his duties: his health and external appearance must be satisfactory. He must be middle-aged; and a due regard is to be had to recommendations of nobility, or the wealth and honors he may have enjoyed in the world." ³⁰

It is this polished gem of a gentleman, the masterpiece of Satan who, with the advice of his assistants, wields THE POWER in the earth.

Of the General overseeing the Novices we observe:

“The Jesuit novice...may some day have kings and princes kneeling at his feet, and have the power to direct the destinies of nations. He may regulate the policy and frame the laws even for nations which are not of his own faith, through the members of his Church who now take places in the councils of Protestant nations..., he is reminded that he aspires to belong to the only body of men in the world who can boast of almost universal domination, who wield a sword with the hilt in the hand of their general in Rome and the point everywhere...

Obedience is the one end of all this training — unmasking, unthinking, unreasoning obedience.”³¹ [Emphasis added]

Of the General's authority over the Jesuits we read:

“It is true that the Jesuit has his General to whom he gives the obedience of a slave, but the Jesuit believes his General to be as God, so that if the dead voice of God, so to say, in Scripture, seems to conflict with the living voice of God which comes through the General, the authority of the living voice must prevail.”³²

For the Jesuits are

“...a phalanx...bound to their General-in-chief by the chain of entire submission — obedience prompt, enthusiastic, blind — and scattered, without division, on the face of the earth...In this mighty family all subscribed to the same articles of faith, whatever might be the tendency of their particular inculcations. That was their uniformity: — whilst theory is respected, practice will be allowed for: if you leave the former untouched, the latter, to a vast extent, may riot unmolested. The Roman and the Greek, the Portuguese, the Brazilian; the Irishman, the Russian; the Spaniard and the Frenchman; the Belgian and Englishman — all worked as one man, the individual tastes and inclinations were merged in the general object of appetite: they were a multitude in action, but in will a single, naked soul.”³³ [Emphasis added]

Dear truth-seeker, the great French playwright, Alexandre Dumas — the mulatto son of one of Napoleon's greatest generals and the friend of anti-Jesuit Eugene Sue, King Louis Philippe (1830-1848) and Italy's great anti-Jesuit and low-level Freemason, Giuseppe Garibaldi — accurately portrayed the Jesuit General in The Count of Monte Cristo. Of the Count, rich, well-born, cultured and taking vengeance on his enemies via an extensive intelligence network, he writes in 1845:

“ ‘This devil of a fellow...I said at the time he would create a sensation here, and I measure his effect by an infallible thermometer. My mother has noticed him, and he must therefore, perforce, be remarkable.’ ”³⁴

Indeed he is! In command of this family of traitors swearing allegiance to only the Pope of Rome, the General is an absolute Monarch over the Order. And when the Order has conquered a nation, the government installed is always in fact absolutist. That is, the powers of the chief executive have no absolute limitations. In a letter to the king of Naples from a Jesuit Provincial written in 1854 we read:

“SACRED ROYAL MAJESTY —

[We]...have always inculcated respect...for...absolute monarchy. This we have done, not only from conviction, but also because the doctors of the company, who are Francisco Suarez, the Cardinal Bellarmine, and many other theologians and publicists of the same, have publicly taught absolute monarchy to be the best form of government.

This we have done, because the internal economy of the company is monarchial, and therefore we are by maxim and by education devoted to absolute monarchy...

Majesty...absolute monarchy is the best of governments...

In so much, we who sign this are a full guarantee for their devotion by all proof to the absolute monarchy. [Emphasis added]

GIUSEPPE MARIA PALADINI
Provincial of the Company of Jesus
November 21, 1854.”³⁵

Dear truth-seeker, do you value freedom of conscience, freedom to say what you believe and the freedom to print the Bible in your own language? These are liberties championed by the Protestant Reformation, secured by the Bill of Rights to the United States Constitution, condemned by the Jesuits' Council of Trent and destroyed by absolutist forms of government maintained by the power of the Jesuit General.

Miss Cusack, the brilliant and renowned converted Catholic nun of the late Nineteenth Century having warned the English of the Jesuits' plot (already successful by 1800) to take over the British Empire, properly concludes:

"...thus was established an Institution, which as we shall see from undisputable evidence, has done more than any other so called religious order to ruin the peace of families, to check the growth of human progress, and to enslave the souls of men, and yet all this was done in the name of religion."³⁶

Having examined the purpose, oaths and devilish doctrines of the Society of Jesus, we pause to reflect on the dying words of Ignatius Loyola, the Order's founder and thus the father of the Counter-Reformation:

"I have done much good to the Church of Rome — I have seen many provinces of our men, many colleges, houses, residences, and wealth belonging to our Society; but all these things desert me now, and I know not whither to turn!" At length he expired in a fit of trembling, and his face turned black, according to an eye-witness, the Jesuit Turrianus."³⁷

In contrast, the dying words of Martin Luther, the father of the Reformation bringing freedom of conscience, freedom of speech and freedom of the press with the German Bible and his defender, Frederick the Elector, were:

"O my Father, God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of all consolation, I thank Thee for having revealed to me Thy well beloved Son, in whom I believe, whom I have preached and acknowledged, loved and celebrated, and whom the Pope and the impious persecute. I commend to Thee my soul. Jesus Christ my Lord, I am quitting this earthly body, I am leaving this life, but I know that I shall abide eternally with Thee."³⁸

Dear truth-seeker, whose dying words will you repeat in your final moments of ebbing strength as you begin your journey to Heaven or to Hell?

The Council of Trent
1545 - 1563

Being the backbone of the Counter-Reformation, the Council was dominated by the future Jesuit General, Diego Laynez, during which the Biblical Doctrines of the Reformers having spread across Europe were absolutely condemned, including Freedom of Conscience, Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Press. In the centuries to come the Council of Trent would ultimately be the foreign policy of every nation and empire to fall under the domination of the Company of Jesus, better known as the Society of Jesus. Some of those empires would be the Spanish Empire under Philip II, the British Empire under Victoria, the French Empire under Napoleon III, the American Empire under Theodore Roosevelt, the Russian Empire under Stalin and the German Third Reich under Hitler.

Assassination of Coligny

“The Pope can kill by a single word; for having received the right of making pasture for the sheep, has he not received the right of cutting the throats of wolves?”¹

Emmanuel Sa, 1596

“A man who has been excommunicated by the Pope may be killed anywhere, as Escobar and Deaux teach, because the Pope has an indirect jurisdiction over the whole world, even in temporal things... as Suarez proves against the King of England.”²

In France the Protestants, called “Huguenots”, were gaining wealth and political power. Admiral Coligny was their leader. The Jesuits, with that she-wolf, Catherine de Medici, plotted their destruction. On August 24, 1572 the murderous frenzy began. Admiral Coligny bravely resisted his assassins but to no avail. He was murdered and his head was sent as a trophy to the Cardinal of Lorraine. Seventy-five thousand Protestants were butchered in cold blood. Rome celebrated, struck a coin commemorating the “great victory” and sang her “Te Deums”.

Of this horrible genocide we read:

“There is no intelligent reader of French history who is not familiar with the steps taken by this perfidious queen regent, Catherine de Medicis. After the admission of the Jesuits into Paris, to bring about the terrible Massacre of St. Bartholomew – an event so closely allied with others, of which they were the undoubted authors –, that one must close his eyes not to see the evidences which point to their agency in that infamous transaction. They needed such bloody work to give them the mastery over France; although they have since then been more than once expelled in disgrace from French soil, they have returned again and again to torment her people, who still continue to realize, under the Republic, how unceasingly they labor for the entire overthrow of every form of popular government.”⁵

Dear truth-seeker, do you see how a Cardinal working in conjunction with the Jesuits can be involved in the murder of a political leader?

As we shall see, in 1963, a Cardinal working in conjunction with the Jesuits was involved in the murder of an American political leader. The Cardinal was Francis Spellman. The political leader was John Fitzgerald Kennedy (JFK), wounded in the house of his friends.

Saint Bartholomew's Massacre
August 24, 1572

The Jesuit General in control of the Monarchs of France mass-murdered the French Protestant Calvinists including their great leader, Admiral Coligny. This was done in obedience to the evil Council of Trent, which to this day has neither been repudiated nor renounced by either the Jesuit General or the Papal Roman Caesar.

Chapter 3The Jesuits – 1568 - 1648*Invasion of the Netherlands Assassination of William of Orange

“Secular powers of all ranks and degrees are to be warned, induced, and, if necessary, compelled by ecclesiastical censure, to swear that they will exert themselves to the utmost in the defense of the faith, and extirpate all heretics denounced by the church, who shall be found in their territories.”¹

Chapter 3

“The Bible tells us the words put on the cross of Christ at the crucifixion said:

‘JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.’

– John 19:19

But on the Roman Catholic crucifix, it reads:

I. N. R. I.

Webster’s dictionary says I. N. R. I. means

IESUS NAZARENUS REX IUDAEORUM

But in the extreme oath of the Jesuits, it has a special meaning.
I. N. R. I. means:

IUSTUM, NECARE, REGES, IMPIOS

Translated into English I. N. R. I. means...

‘It is just to exterminate or annihilate impious or heretical kings, governments or rulers.’

The crucifixion of Jesus brings forgiveness and life, but the crucifix is a Jesuit symbol for vengeance and death.”⁴ [Emphasis added]

The Netherlands also called "The Low Countries" began to embrace the Biblical doctrines of grace taught by the Reformers, especially John Calvin. Thousands of Dutchmen were receiving Christ as the gospel was being preached in open fields. The result was that Rome began to lose her political power. To stop this movement of the Son of God, the Devil and his Jesuits moved Philip II to re-enact the Edict of 1550, which read in part:

"No one shall print, write, copy, keep, conceal, sell, buy or give in churches, streets, or other places, any book or writing made by Martin Luther, John Calvin, or other heretics reprobated by the Holy Church...nor in his house hold illegal gatherings...Moreover, we forbid all lay persons to converse or dispute concerning the Holy Scriptures, openly or secretly, or to read, teach or expound the Scriptures...or to preach secretly or openly...on pain...to be punished in the following manner. That such...are to be executed, to wit: the men with the sword and the women to be buried alive, if they do not persist in their errors; if they do persist in them, then they are to be executed with fire; all their property in both cases being confiscated to the crown." ⁵

To enforce this "mischief framed by a law" Philip dispatched ten thousand Spanish troops led by the Duke of Alva. The Duke established an evil tribunal called "the Blood Council". Thousands perished to the delight of Cardinal Granvelle and Titelman the Inquisitor. Of this horrible time we read:

"In the second half of the sixteenth century the Spanish armies occupied Holland and Flanders and the glare of the Inquisition's autos-da-fé lit up the market squares of the cities great and small. After a long vigil in prayer, the silent man with the cruel eyes in the Escorial [Philip II of Madrid, Spain] had decreed the extermination of the new religion in the Netherlands. In less than a decade there perished by his will in the torture chambers, on the gallows and on the pyres two hundred and fifty thousand men and women of the Dutch race. Nobles and burglars, old and young, rich and poor, all were dragged from their homes, frequently on secret denunciation, to face the Grand Inquisitor – the monk Titelman – and his helpers, who knew no mercy." ⁶

But the Dutch Protestants would not be conquered. They had a great leader. His name was William of Orange, surnamed "the Silent". He had been raised in the court of Charles V, the "Holy Roman Emperor", and was fit to lead a people to political liberty. He waged war from the sea commanding the bravest soldiers of the age. Motley, the greatest historian on The Dutch Republic and The United Netherlands, writes:

"Scarred, hacked, and even maimed, in the unceasing conflicts in which their lives had passed; wearing crescents in their caps, with the inscription, 'Rather Turkish than Popish', renowned far and wide, as much for their ferocity as for their nautical skill; the appearance of these wildest of the 'Sea-beggars' was both eccentric and terrific. They were known never to give nor to take quarter, for they went to mortal combat only, and had sworn to spare neither noble nor simple, neither king, kaiser, nor pope, should they fall into their power." ⁷
[Emphasis added]

The Beggars always engaged their Spanish enemy and if they perceived the battle to be lost they would gather together, eat the Lord's Supper and fire the magazine, blowing themselves and the enemy into eternity.

This William of Orange became the Father of religious liberty and greatly beloved of his people. He did not force the Anabaptists to go to war, as they were non-resistant. He further gave the European Jews religious liberty, so much so that they migrated to Amsterdam, calling it "the New Jerusalem". (Rembrandt painted some of his greatest portraits using the Jews of Amsterdam to illustrate Biblical characters.) William ultimately produced in his son, Prince Maurice, the greatest soldier of the age. Maurice contributed to the final victory in 1648 after eighty years of war with the Spanish Empire under the command of the Jesuits and their tool, Philip II.

Obviously, the Jesuits hated William of Orange. They kidnapped his eldest son who was then raised a Roman Catholic, the heart-broken father never to see him again. After several attempts to assassinate William, they finally succeeded one sad day in 1584. Their tool was Balthazar Gerard fulfilling the Jesuit Oath once again. Shooting the Father of the Dutch Republic three times with a pistol, William's last words, as the poison from the rounds was coursing through his veins, were:

"O my God, have mercy on this poor people." ⁸

Like Coligny, William of Orange, the father of religious liberty and political freedom, died at the hand of a Jesuit assassin fulfilling the Company's bloody oath once again:

"I will...make and wage relentless war...against all heretics...to exterminate them from the face of the whole earth...That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use...the leaden bullet..." ⁹
[Emphasis added]

Could it be that American presidents have been murdered by Jesuit assassins also?

This Protestant, Bible-believing, man of God is the Father of Religious and Political Liberty. He broke the Pope's Temporal Power over Holland, protected the Anabaptists and Mennonites who refused to take up the Sword of Just Defense against the Spanish armies of Philip II, and gave refuge to the persecuted Jews of Europe. He was murdered by an assassin having been sent by the Jesuits, Balthazar Gerard, in obedience to the bloody Jesuit Oath.

“Whereas the progress of the papal policy, long actuated by the steady counsels of successive pontiffs, took deeper root, and was at length in some places with difficulty, in others never yet, extirpated. For this we might call to witness the black intrigues of the Jesuits...This plan of pontifical power was so deeply laid, and so indefatigably pursued by the unwearied politics of the court of Rome through a long succession of ages...it was polished and improved by the united endeavors of a body of men who engrossed all the learning of Europe for centuries together; it was firmly and resolutely executed by persons the best calculated for establishing tyranny and despotism, being fixed with a bigoted enthusiasm,...unconnected with their fellow-subjects and totally indifferent to what might befall that posterity to which they bore no

They could enter unheard the closet of the Monarch, or the Cabinet of the Statesman. They could sit unseen in convocation or General Assembly, and mingle unsuspected in deliberations and debates.

There was no tongue they could not speak, and no creed they could not profess, and thus there was no people among whom they might not sojourn, and no church whose membership they might not enter and whose functions they might not discharge. They could execrate the Pope with the Lutheran, and swear the Solemn League with the Covenanters." ⁶

History of Protestantism

The Reformation was prospering in England. Queen Elizabeth I, "every inch a queen" speaking six languages, permitted the reformed doctrines of the Bible to be openly preached. From her kingdom, she banished the Order in 1570. Of course the Jesuits hated her, called her a bastard, denied her right to the throne and attempted to murder her several times. The Ridolfi Plot (1571), the Throgmarton Plot (1583) and the Babington Plot (1586), although failures, were instigated by the soldiers of the Jesuit General in attempting to reduce England to the earthly, political rule of the Pope — the Temporal Power of "the Vicar of Christ".

Meanwhile, the Jesuits were in control of Spain. Philip II was the king through which they sought to destroy the Reformation in the Netherlands as well as in England. (Philip II enjoyed the execution of his cousin Dona Isabella who, before a mock Inquisitional Court, professed Christ as her Lord and Saviour.) Therefore, with the military might of Philip, the Jesuits plotted the "extirpation" of England's Protestants and Queen with one great stroke. They would invade with thousands of Spanish soldiers carried by a huge array of ships — the invincible Spanish Armada.

Setting out in 1588, assured of naval supremacy and ultimate victory, the Jesuits urged their Spanish sailors on. But the Son of God chose to intervene. After eighteen days of naval battle we read:

"A mighty storm — a storm, which, to use the emphatic expression of Strada, 'shook heaven and earth' — finally decided the contest, and delivered England from the slightest apprehension of a rally, and fresh attack, from the scattered ships of the Armada...But winds and waves fought mightily for England, and while not so much as a single boat of ours was lost, many of the stateliest ships of Spain were dashed upon the shores of Ireland and Scotland, while their crews perished miserably." ⁷

Indeed, the English noble and true author of Othello joyfully wrote:

*"News lads! our wars are done.
The desperate tempest hath so bang'd the Turks
That their designment halts: a noble ship of Venice
Hath seen a grievous wrack and sufferance
On most part of their fleet."* ⁸

Edward de Vere, 1590
17th Earl of Oxford
alias "William Shakespeare"
Othello, Act II, Scene I

With England's victory by the hand of the One "that even the winds and the sea obey" the plans of the Jesuits to destroy the "heretics" of England were foiled. Elizabeth and the English people thanked God for giving so mighty a deliverance in answer to their prayers.

(Dear truth-seeker, would the Jesuits attempt to invade the U.S. with a foreign fleet? Is it simply a coincidence that Russia has the largest merchant marine fleet in the world? Could it be possible that Russia would provide the fleet for millions of Chinese to invade America? Why has President Clinton given the American Naval Base in Long Beach, California, to Red China?)

The Attempted Assassination of Queen Elizabeth I

*"Why, that's the lady; all the world desires her;
From the four corners of the earth they come,
To kiss this shrine, this mortal-breathing saint:...

"It is impossible to read Elizabethan history except in the context of an army of Jesuits, masters of deceit, treachery, treason, infiltration, subversion, assassination, insurrection, civil war and coercion, plotting for the good of the papacy, and the defeat of all the Pope's foes anywhere in the world."¹⁰

The Babington Plot

The Jesuits at every turn sought to discredit Queen Elizabeth in the eyes of her English subjects. They claimed "that guilty woman of England" had neither right nor title to the throne because she was the daughter of Henry VIII's second wife, Anne Boleyn. Claiming that Henry's second marriage was adultery, Elizabeth was called "the bastard Queen" by the Jesuits. To add insult to injury, the Jesuits then moved Pope Pius V to excommunicate her. Formally condemned by the "Vicar of Christ", certain Roman Catholic English lords could be convinced that killing Elizabeth would not be murder but a virtuous act.

Therefore, the Jesuits plotted Elizabeth's overthrow — many times. They attempted to make Mary, Queen of Scots, the Queen of England. But the conspiracy failed and the treacherous Mary lost her life. The conspiracy to put a Jesuit-controlled, Roman Catholic Monarch on England's throne was thwarted — this time. She was tried and beheaded on the 8th of February 1587, by order of the Parliament.

Others would attempt the life of the Queen. William Parry, Anthony Babington, Ridlofi, as well as Jesuits Campion and Parsons were a few of the many would-be assassins. They too all failed and paid with their lives. The Son of God was protecting Elizabeth not because of her personal purity but because of the prayers of her subjects and her benevolent policy towards the English Reformers.

History would prove that the reign of Elizabeth was the birth of religious liberty, the Middle Class, and thus the mighty Protestant British Empire. Of her kingdom's great prosperity an ex-Jesuit writes:

"The results of Protestantism were gloriously promoted and expanded by Elizabeth — in the vast improvement of agriculture — internal trade — and foreign commerce. Philip's tyranny ruined the Netherlands: Elizabeth received and tolerated the fugitives. New manufacturers, of various kinds, energetically advanced the nation's onward march to supremacy amongst the most industrious, the wealthiest of earth. The Royal Exchange of London — built by one of her subjects — became the center of commerce extending over Europe, and to Barbary, Morocco, Guinea, and Turkey. Her sailor, Willoughby, actually discovered Archangel — and a Russian trading company was established. Frobisher, Davis, Raleigh, Drake, and Cavendish, are names of high renown: — these men were Elizabeth's discoverers of the world, which they circumnavigated at no expense to the nation, because they had to fight their way on the papal seas of the Spanish despot — and brought home solid equivalents as well as contributions to 'the diffusion of knowledge.' Some call them pirates — but, if they were, they robbed from a thief — the King of Spain — that wholesale pirate among the Indians."¹¹

Elizabeth's successor, the son of Scotland's beheaded queen, having also banished the Jesuits, would authorize the translation of the Protestant English Bible destined to be taken to the ends of the earth, furthering The Great Commission given by Jesus the Messiah,

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

— Matthew 28:18-20

One of the most important plots in attempting to assassinate the Queen miserably failed, having been exposed by England's Lord Great Chamberlain, Edward de Vere, the Seventeenth Earl of Oxford. Of this we read:

"During the latter 1570's, the whole-souled Oxford had remained unsuspecting as his intimacy with his Catholic cousins and their circle of intellectual friends increased. Finally...they recklessly confided to him, in December, 1580, their plans to overthrow Elizabeth and place Mary Queen of Scots on the throne of England. To their horror, Oxford went at once to the Queen — the sovereign to whom, as a feudal knight, he had sworn undying fealty."¹²

Therefore,

"From this time forward Jesuits who ventured into England were remorselessly hunted down, persecuted, and executed; and the law imposing fines on Catholics for non-attendance at Protestant services, which had remained a dead-letter since it received the royal assent at the beginning of Elizabeth's reign, was resuscitated and put into rigorous execution... This change of policy is frequently attributed to the well-known mission to England of the Jesuits, Campion and Parsons. But they landed in England as far back as April 1580; and it was not until after Lord Oxford's disclosure in December and the proclamation in January that Campion was apprehended and sentenced to death. These dates make it clear that it must have been Lord Oxford's dramatic interview that induced the Queen to take her first step against her Catholic subjects..."¹³

Who was this Edward de Vere, the Queen's greatest courtier and the Jesuits' greatest enemy, having foiled the Pope's plots to overthrow England's greatest Monarch? He was none other than the one we know today as "William Shakespeare". For,

"...it has become impossible to hesitate any longer in proclaiming Edward de Vere, Seventeenth Earl of Oxford, as the real author of 'Shakespeare's' works."¹⁴

And why would the true authorship of the works of "Shakespeare" be suppressed to this day? Because this Protestant, Bible-reading, honourable English knight, the enemy of the Jesuit Provincial Henry Garnett and greatest swordsman of the realm used his pen – mightier than his sword – to thwart the designs of the Jesuits as they attempted to destroy the Reformation, wrought by the Spirit of God, and restore the Temporal Power of the Pope over Britain. With their tool, William Cecil – who was a Catholic advisor during the reign of Bloody Mary, who always attempted to please the Jesuits' Philip II, who advised Elizabeth to marry the Catholic Archduke Charles rather than Protestant Leicester and who hired the Jesuit Garnett to spread a nasty rumor about Edward de Vere – the Sons of Loyola robbed "the Red Knight" of his eighty-six estates. They also robbed him of his right to the throne and destroyed the memory of his great name, continuing to perpetuate the lie that some illiterate, money-hungry, grain dealer of Straford-on-Avon wrote the masterpieces of the man whom the British Empire has voted "the most important personality of the last millennium."

History would prove the reign of Elizabeth was the birth of the mighty Protestant British Empire. England's first century as a Protestant nation produced the world's greatest Greek scholar and father of the English Bible, William Tyndale; its greatest poet and abstract historian, Edward de Vere, (alias "Shakespeare"); its greatest scientist and mathematician, Isaac Newton; and its greatest sailor and naval commander at the defeat of the Spanish Armada, Francis Drake. Her successor, the son of Scotland's beheaded queen, would also expel the Jesuits from his kingdom and authorize the translation of the English Bible destined to be taken to the ends of the earth.

More importantly for us Americans, the Son of God would use The Authorized King James Version of 1611 as the foundation for the Calvinistic, Federal Republic of the United States. George Washington's republic would last from the ratification of the Constitution in 1789 to the coerced ratification of the Fourteenth Amendment in 1868. Meanwhile, America would be the refuge and haven for Europe's Protestants, Baptists and Jews having been so mercilessly persecuted by Rome's Jesuits for over two hundred years.

All these blessings can be traced to England's "bastard queen" whom the Son of God protected while she encouraged the Reformation and furiously refused to be conquered by the Jesuits. May we never forget her in all her greatness and the immense Jesuit power she opposed with all her might.

Dear truth-seeker, Nicolini, in making our lesson relevant for today, rightly concludes:

"If [the Jesuits] hated England and Queen Elizabeth in the 16th century, they bear no less hate to England and Queen Victoria in the 19th. Let an opportunity present itself, and you shall see them again heading the rebellion, and preaching murder as the most meritorious of all actions. Nor do they remain inactive while waiting for the opportunity. Their evil genius is constantly present and active."¹⁵ [Emphasis added]

This chart depicts the Jesuits and their mighty Satanic Power directed against the “bastard” Queen Elizabeth as they sought to destroy her, along with, Jehovah’s Protestant Reformation in the vain attempt to restore the Papal Caesar’s Temporal Power over England, called by the Puritan Calvinists “Anti-Christian tyranny”.

Elizabeth I, 1533 – 1603
Queen of England
 1558 - 1603

Speaking six languages and encouraging the Protestant Reformation, Elizabeth boldly expelled the Society of Jesus from England. Aware of the Order’s plots and agitations among Catholics, the Queen ordered the immediate execution of any Jesuit found within her borders. Decreed a “heretic” and excommunicated by Pope Pius V, the Jesuits sought to assassinate her many times. But the risen Son of God spared her life using her faithful courtiers, the greatest being Edward de Vere, her Lord Great Chamberlain. Miraculously, Elizabeth ruled for over forty years and laid the foundation for the Lord’s Protestant English Bible and British Empire.

Edward de Vere, 1540? – 1604
“William Shakespeare”

Seventeenth Earl of Oxford
Lord Great Chamberlain to Queen Elizabeth

A member of “the fighting Veres” since the Battle of Hastings in 1066, and named after the young Protestant King Edward VI having been murdered by the Jesuits, our hero, “born into great riches, honour and power”, was known as “the Red Knight”. As the finest horseman and swordsman of the realm, this great and loyal man of honor exposed one of the Order’s plots to assassinate his Queen. In vengeance, the Jesuits used William Cecil to steal his landed estates and “wounded” his name, henceforth to be known as “William Shakespeare”. This true author of the plays and of the sonnets was voted by the British Empire in 2000 as “the most important personality of the last millennium.” Having coined 5000 words for the English language, de Vere’s prose was the basis for The King James Bible.

The Ashbourne Portrait of “Shakespeare”, 1580s

This portrait of Edward de Vere at the age of 47 was hung in the school of Ashbourne, a seat of the Trenthams, Oxford’s second wife. It was ultimately acquired by the Folger Library of Washington and hangs there today. Alterations were revealed by x-ray and infrared photography executed by Barrell who published his findings in Scientific American. Some of them were: the courtier’s lace ruff had been painted over to resemble a commoner’s plain collar; the boar-crest of the seal ring on the thumb had been obscured; the Trentham coat-of-arms in the upper left hand corner had been painted over and the date changed; the initials “C.K.” for Cornelius Ketel, the famous artist, had been painted out; the hairline was moved back to make him to appear bald. Like the Christ of Jesuitism, the Ashbourne Portrait of Shakespeare is just another fraud.

Chapter 5The Jesuits – 1605*The Gunpowder Plot Attempted Assassination of King James I

“Treason was the Jesuits’ proprietary thing...since they set foot in this land there never passed four years without a most pestilent and pernicious treason tending to the subversion of the whole State.”¹

Sir Edward Coke, 1605
English Jurist

“With the continual attempt of these pertinacious wretches [Jesuits] against the liberties of England, and the lives of Elizabeth and James I, every English reader is familiar: the names of Crichton, Garnett, Parry, Cullen, Gerard, and Tesmond, successively engaged in the design of assassinating the protestant queen, or in the attempt to blow up our English Solomon and all his parliament, will for ever perpetuate their abhorrence in England...”²

“The Catholic Church has the right and duty to kill heretics because it is by fire and sword that heresy can be extirpated...for the highest good of the Church is the unity of the faith, and this cannot be preserved unless heretics are put to death.”⁴

In 1603, Queen Elizabeth died having banished the Jesuits from her kingdom “forever.” James I became king; he too banished the Jesuits and commanded a hangman to publicly burn the evil doctrines of the Jesuit Francisco Suarez — Defensio Catholica Fidei! So England posed a problem for the Jesuit General. The king was a Protestant, the House of Commons was full of Protestants and the people no longer gave heed to the Pope’s decrees. So the Jesuits determined to “...annihilate the king, with his whole family, together with the entire heads of Protestantism in England in one blow.”⁵

How? By blowing up the King and assembled Parliament with thirty-six barrels of gunpowder. The plot nearly succeeded but a letter alerted the king to the plan. When the sheriff entered the large cellar beneath the Parliament he discovered the conspirator, Guy Fawkes, with “...a piece of tinder, three matches, a dagger and a pistol...booted and spurred, like a man who was prepared to take a journey on horseback.”⁶

Indeed he was. Violently resisting arrest, Fawkes was tried and executed having been the fanatical tool of England’s Jesuit Provincial, Henry Garnett. Convicted of high treason having obeyed the Jesuit Oath, Garnett was also publicly executed in 1606.

To this day, every November 5th, the English celebrate “Guy Fawkes Day” as a national holiday while the Jesuit Provincial at Stonyhurst controls the Archbishop of Westminster who in turn rules the country through the Royal Institute for International Affairs (RIIA), the British version of the American Council on Foreign Relations (CFR).

King James I, 1556 – 1625
King of England
1603 - 1625

One of England's greatest Kings in spite of being the son of Jesuit-controlled Mary Queen of Scots, James I, like his predecessor Queen Elizabeth I, expelled the Order from England. He sided with the Protestant Reformers and authorized the translation of the Bible for all English-speaking people, it bearing his most excellent name. For this the Sons of Loyola sought to blow him up with the Gunpowder Plot.

Henry Garnett
Jesuit Provincial for the English Province

This infamous English traitor and murderer plotted many times to assassinate Queen Elizabeth in obedience to his Jesuit Oath. One of the attempts was exposed by Edward de Vere for which he lost his eighty-six landed estates to the Jesuits' William Cecil. Justice Lord Coke presiding, Garnett was executed in 1606 for his part in the Gunpowder Plot.

Chapter 6The Jesuits – 1610*The Edict of Nantes
Assassination of Henry IV, King of France

“Thus profane men, seeking, under the pretext of the Church, to introduce unbridled tyranny, care not in what absurdities they entangle themselves and others, provided they extort from the simple this one acknowledgement — viz. that there is nothing which the Church cannot do.”¹

John Calvin, 1536

“Neither Henry III nor Henry IV, nor the Elector of Saxony, nor the Queen Elizabeth, are true kings. That Clement has done a heroic action in killing Henry III...it is a meritorious action with God to kill a heretic king.”²

Jean Guignard, 1589
French Jesuit

“Can we not find one that will take up arms against the ferocious beast [Henry IV]?...Have we not a Pope that will employ an axe in the salvation of France? Calm yourself, young Jesuit, if we fail of the papal axe, we have the dagger of Ravallac.”³

Carlos Scribanus, 1610
Spanish Jesuit

Chapter 6

“Between 1555 and 1931 the Society of Jesus was expelled from at least 83 countries, city states and cities, for engaging in political intrigue and subversive plots against the welfare of the state, according to the records of a Jesuit priest of repute [Jesuit Thomas J. Campbell, The Jesuits, 1931]...practically every instance of expulsion was for political intrigue, political infiltration, political subversion, and inciting to political insurrection.”⁴ [Emphasis added]

J. E. C. Shepherd, 1987
Canadian Historian
The Babington Plot

In 1589, King Henry III of France was stabbed to death by a Jesuit assassin named Jacques Clement. For glorifying this treasonous murder, the Jesuit Guignard was publicly executed. This ended the dynasty of the House of Valois. The throne passed to a Protestant, Henry of Navarre also known as King Henry IV. Henry's ascent began the Bourbon dynasty that would span nearly three centuries ending in 1830. Henry was not fully accepted as king until he renounced Protestantism, as the Jesuits had plotted to give the crown to a Spanish Roman Catholic, Clara Isabella. This he did in 1593.

Henry IV proved to be the greatest French king since Charlemagne. He sought to better the plight of the peasants created by Rome's Dark Ages. He encouraged the arts and industries while manufacturers arose throughout the kingdom. France began to flourish while its treasury increased.

Henry IV's greatest act, however, was the issuing of the Edict of Nantes in 1598. This edict guaranteed freedom of worship and equality of rights to the Protestant Huguenots. The Jesuits were furious! If religious freedom was permitted, France might become a Protestant nation. O horrors! Although a Roman Catholic, the king's good will toward the Protestants brought upon him the curses of the Jesuits' Council of Trent. Clearly Henry IV must die!

The Jesuits must now fulfill their bloody Oath as they did with Admiral Coligny and Henry III. The king clearly understood his peril. Chiniquy writes in quoting Sully's Memoirs:

“Henry IV, King of France, after being wounded by an assassin sent by the Jesuits, said: ‘I am compelled to do one of these two things: Either recall the Jesuits, free them from the infamy and disgrace with which they are covered, or to expel them in a more absolute manner, and prevent them from approaching either my person or my kingdom.

But then, we will drive them to despair and to the resolution of attempting my life again, which would render it so miserable to me, being always under the apprehension of being murdered or poisoned. For these people have correspondence everywhere, and are so very skillful in disposing the minds of men to whatever they wish, that I think it would be better that I should be already dead.' ”⁵

One sad day in 1610, the Jesuits, those masters of murder, slew France's great King. While returning from a visit with Sully (who later described this entire tragedy in his Memoirs) the king's carriage was stopped in the middle of the street. Instantly Ravaillac, the Jesuits' assassin, jumped upon the wheel and stabbed his shocked victim through the heart. When arrested, he was still clutching his bloody knife.

“With that good nature which characterized him, he at length consented to allow them [the Jesuits] to return. It was in vain that Sully, his minister, represented to him that no kindness could soften such foes; he recalled them, and fell a victim to their instigations, being stabbed by Ravaillac, on May 14th, 1610.”⁶

The Edict of Nantes would maintain religious liberty in France for eighty-seven years. In 1685, the Jesuits would cause it to be revoked through their most obedient servant, King Louis XIV and Protestantism, including the Bible, would be outlawed for over one hundred years. (Doesn't this sound like Communist Russia, China and Cuba?)

Dear truth-seeker, do you understand how the Jesuits will murder even Roman Catholic rulers if they dare resist Rome's policies? Did President Kennedy resist the Jesuits by seeking to break the CIA “into a thousand pieces” and end the Vietnam War? Was this a threat to the “infallible” Pope's Temporal Power?

Indeed, the Jesuits, in seeking to introduce unbridled tyranny, believe there is nothing their Church cannot do.

Assassination of Henry IV, 1553 – 1610
King of France
1589 - 1610

Known as Henry of Navarre being the first of the Bourbon Kings, he brought Religious liberty to France with his Edict of Nantes thus outraging the Jesuit Order. As the leader of the French Protestant Calvinists called “Huguenots” he sought alliances with other Protestant princes against the political conspiracies of Rome. After several attempts, the Jesuits finally assassinated him at point blank range with one of their fanatical, remorseless tools, Ravaillac, in fulfilling their bloody Oath and murderous Council of Trent.

Chapter 7The Jesuits – 1618 - 1648*The Thirty Years' War

“For what object have we given to us money, soldiers, sabers, and cannon, but to use them against the enemy? Why do we hesitate, then, in commencing to eradicate and root out heresy, root and branch, and especially this Calvinistic abomination? Kill them, then, the hounds, strike them down, and hurl them to the ground, give them their finishing stroke, burn their houses over their heads, and overwhelm them with everything of the worst description that can be invented, so that the hateful brood may finally disappear from off the face of the earth.”¹ [Emphasis added]

The Thirty Years' War

“It is certain that the Jesuits, through the favour of the emperor, which cannot be overestimated, have attained to overwhelming power...They have the upper hand in everything, even over the most prominent minister of state, and domineer over them, if they do not carry out their will...Their influence has always been considerable, but it has reached its zenith since Father Lamormaini has been confessor to the emperor.”²

German Papal Nuncio to
Cardinal Barberini, 1626

“...a desolating war of thirty years, which, from the interior of Bohemia to the mouth of Scheldt, and from the banks of the Po to the coasts of the Baltic, devastated whole countries, destroying harvests, and reduced towns and villages to ashes; which opened a grave for many thousand combatants, and for half a century smothered the glimmering sparks of civilization in Germany, and threw back the improving manners of the country into their pristine barbarity and wildness.”³

Frederick Schiller, 1790
German Dramatist and Poet
History of the Thirty Years' War

“All throughout Germany the Jesuits spread desolation and misery whenever the cause of truth and freedom was overcome by the superior material force of despotism and bigotry. ‘They were the most able auxiliaries of Ferdinand in destroying the Protestants; they were in the imperial cabinet, in his armies, among the defeated sectarians, and they even dared to penetrate into the camp of the Lutherans’ (as spies, no doubt). The Jesuits had formed Tilly, Wallenstein, and Piccolomini, the three champions of the Catholic cause in the Thirty Years’ War...they preached the extermination of the Protestants, and gave out that no work was so meritorious in the eyes of God as to kill those accursed heretics.”⁴

G. B. Nicolini of Rome, 1854
Protestant Italian Patriot
Exiled to England
History of the Jesuits

"[The Jesuits]...aim and object was that the war...should in truth, become a war of annihilation. Besides, was it possible for them to allow peace to be concluded with countries whose rebellious Governments had issued a law ruling that no Jesuit should ever again dare to show his face, under pain of death, within their boundaries? This, indeed, had Bohemia done, as also Hungary, Moravia, Silesia, with Upper and Lower Austria; and not only had they acted thus; but, at the same time, had publicly disclosed to the world, all the nefarious peculiarities and deeds of the Order of Jesus, in such a manner as to embitter the feelings of the Jesuits in the highest degree...the whole frightful responsibility for this terrible thirty years' war must rest upon the Emperor Ferdinand II., and his teachers, rulers, and bosom friends, the Sons of Loyola." ⁵

Theodor Griesinger, 1873
German Historian
The Jesuits

This most horrible chapter in history was started by the Protestants using their Swords of Just Defense as a result of years of Jesuit persecution through the Holy Roman Emperor, Ferdinand II. Of this persecution Ridpath writes:

"The reformed churches were closed or demolished, the hymn books and Bibles of the people seized and burned, and a decree of banishment promulgated against all who would not return to the Holy Church." ⁶

Therefore in May 1618, the Thirty Years' War began. By a special decree Bohemia expelled the Jesuits declaring:

"We lords, knights, deputies of Prague, Kuttentberg and other estates, together recognize in what great danger this kingdom of Bohemia has stood ever since the introduction of the hypocritical sect of Jesuits. We have, moreover, found in truth that the originators of all this mischief are the above-mentioned Jesuits, who occupy themselves in contriving how they may strengthen the Roman See, and bring all kingdoms and lands under their power and might, who to this end employ the most illicit means, inflame rulers against one another, cause rebellion and unrest among the estates of countries, especially such as are of different religions, set superiors against subordinates, subordinates against superiors...Now therefore, as they are in these ways the cause of the evil state which has befallen the kingdom, they have justly merited to be no longer tolerated in the said kingdom..." ⁷ [Emphasis added]

Silesia, Moravia and Hungary joined in the revolt. But the Jesuits became masters of Germany through their agent and tool, Ferdinand II, who was as clay in the hands of his confessor-advisor, Jesuit Becan and later, Jesuit William Lamormaini.

"...there now began a regular system of Protestant persecution – more mean, cruel, and horrible bloody things happened, indeed than can well be conceived – and according to the evidence furnished by the Jesuits themselves, the originator of all this was their distinguished brother, William Lamormain..." ⁸

One of the greatest military atrocities

"...consisted in this, that the Croats [like the Ustashi two centuries later during World War II] ...were employed, with drawn swords, in hunting down the people, forcing them to the Mass with dogs and whips, and throwing the refractory ones into the cages in which they could neither sit, lie down, nor even stand, while they were compelled to witness, at the same time, the most horrible violence [forcible rape] applied to their poor wives and daughters, until the husbands and fathers swore upon their knees to renounce heresy." ⁹

The Sons of Loyola, ever true to their bloody Oath, used Ferdinand to kill over ten million people. Ridpath tells us:

"It has been estimated that this benign [Catholic] sovereign went into the world of spirits with the blood of ten millions of people on his soul...In the whole history of the German race no other sovereign ever contributed so largely to the woes of the people." ¹⁰ [Emphasis added]

Gustavus Adolphus the Great, the "Lion of the North", the "Snow-King" of Sweden and hero of the Thirty Years' War raged:

"There are three Ls I should like to see hanged: the Jesuit Lamormaine, the Jesuit Laymann and the Jesuit Laurentius Forer." ¹¹
 [Emphasis added]

As this "holy war" came to a close Ridpath continues:

"It was evident that the end was at hand – that the insane and bloody project, conceived in the bosom of Jesuitism, and transplanted to the brain of Ferdinand II, to crush into the earth the cause for which Huss had died and Luther had lived, was now doomed to a complete and everlasting disappointment."¹²

Indeed the end was a great disappointment for the Jesuits, but hardly everlasting. The Treaty of Westphalia, concluded in 1648, secured religious liberty and furthered the Reformation. At the same time the Protestant Dutch Republic achieved its liberty from Jesuit-controlled Spain. The Jesuits had failed to destroy Jehovah's Reformation in attempting to return Europe to the Dark Ages. They failed to enslave Europe's greatest nations to the Temporal Power of the Pope. For in 1648 the world entered into what historians call "the Modern Era".

Dear reader, do you understand why the Bible-believing Protestants through the arm of government were forced to use guns to resist tyrannical, political power under the control of the Jesuits?

Could it be that the Jesuits, using Senator Kennedy, Senator Specter and President Clinton to deprive us Americans of our right to bear arms, have also penetrated the National Rifle Association with one of their tools, John M. Snyder, a former Jesuit seminarian who is a member of the Pope's Order of St. Michael the Archangel and presently leading the effort to make "St. Gabriel of the Sorrowful Mother" the patron saint of gun owners? In the light of the Jesuit Conference seeking to ban all privately owned firearms, HOW RIDICULOUS CAN HE BE!!!!

Could it be that the Jesuits are using their Georgetown graduate, Bill Clinton, to deprive Americans of their right to own and bear arms secured by the Second Amendment?

Could it be that Adolf Hitler was the second Ferdinand II, waging the Second Thirty Years' War against the Jews and Protestants of Europe, he too having deprived the German people of their right to own and bear arms? Remember, our own Gun Control Act of 1968 is based upon Hitler's gun control legislation of 1935, as brought back from Germany by Thomas Dodd, a Nuremberg prosecutor and later, a Senator from Connecticut. Were brothers Tom and Chris Dodd, connected to the Jesuits through the Council on Foreign Relations, controlled by the Archbishop of New York, Francis Cardinal Spellman?

Death of Gustavus Adolphus at Lutzen, 1594 – 1632
Protestant King of Sweden
 1611 - 1632

Known as "the Snow King" and "the Lion of the North", this greatest of Lutherans was the hero of the Thirty Years' War brought upon Europe by the Sons of Loyola. Here, he is dying, giving his last full measure for Protestant liberty, furthering the Reformation that brought about "The Modern Era" with the Treaty of Westphalia in 1648.

Ridpath's Universal History, John Clark Ridpath, (New York: Merrill & Baker, 1901) Vol. XIII, p. 335.

PAUSE IThe Jesuits – 1540 - 1773*Jesuit Ascendancy and Power

Dear truth-seeker, in light of the previous seven chapters we must pause and reflect on the power of the Jesuit Order. Ridpath writes:

“The Society of Jesus was thenceforth recognized as the chief opposing force of Protestantism. The Order became dominant in determining the plans and policy of the Romish Church. The brotherhood grew and flourished. It planted its chapters first in France, Italy and Spain, and then in all civilized lands. The success of the Order was phenomenal. It became a power in the world. It sent out its representatives to every quarter of the globe. Its solitary apostles were seen shadowing the thrones of Europe. They sought, by every means known to human ingenuity, to establish and confirm the tottering fabric of Rome, and to undermine the rising fabric of Protestantism. They penetrated to the Indus and the Ganges. They traversed the deserts of Thibet, and said, “Here am I,” in the streets of Peking. They looked down into the silver mines of Peru, and knelt in prayer on the shore of Lake Superior. To know all secrets, fathom all designs, penetrate all intrigues, prevail in all counsels, rise above all diplomacy, and master the human race, – such was their purpose and ambition. They wound about human society in every part of the habitable earth, the noiseless creepers of their ever-growing plot to retake the world for the Church, and to subdue and conquer and extinguish the last remnant of opposition to her dominion from shore to shore, from the rivers to the ends of the earth.”¹
[Emphasis added]

Having gained control of a nation’s political leaders, the Order then enforced its power over the people with its “Holy” Office of the Inquisition. We read:

“The Jesuits reckon it among the glories of their order, that Loyola supported, by a special memorial to the Pope, a petition for...reviving the infamous tribunal of the Inquisition...”

This terrible tribunal, in the hands of the relentless and unforgiving Caraffa, spread desolation and dismay throughout Italy, from its very commencement...death assumed a new and more terrible aspect. And he who should invent new instruments of torture to dislocate the limbs of the victims with the most exquisite and excruciating pains possible would be rewarded!!!

Throughout Italy, and in various parts of Europe, you might have seen, whilst the infernal flames of the pile were ascending, the sinister and diabolical smile of the Jesuits, who were aiming at the increase of their order, under the shade of this all-mastering power!”²

Dear truth-seeker, the Order’s “Holy” Office of the Inquisition – in maintaining its all-mastering power over the people – was brought into Stalin’s Russia and Hitler’s Germany under the guise of political ideologies — Communism and Nazism! Under the guise of drug-based, allopathic, medical ideology, the Order extended its Inquisition into Theodore Roosevelt’s Fourteenth Amendment American Empire with the Food & Drug Administration (FDA) controlling its agent, the American Medical (Murderer’s) Association (AMA).

As we shall see, the power of the Jesuits is universal. They kill political leaders if they oppose their policies even if those leaders are Roman Catholic — like President John F. Kennedy. They foment wars to suit their purposes in fulfilling the Council of Trent — like the Vietnam War!

Chapter 8

The Jesuits – 1639

Expelled from Japan

“Rome is now egging on Japan to annex Mexico, seize on the Philippines, on Hawaii and Alaska, to wipe off the United States of America from the map of the world’s great powers. While our Presidents are attending mass the Jap and other foreign emissaries in America are busy stealing plans from the Navy Department and studying every weak spot in our National armor, to report thereon promptly and fully to hostile governments...Will America’s army, papalized and foreignised, be so weakened and emasculated by Romanistic control as to make it easy prey for the perfidious Jap!”¹

“The next step in the Vatican’s Great Scheme is to make war between this country and Japan after the latter country has been placed under full dominance of the Jesuits...the Roman Catholic politician, James Phelan...sent to the United States Senate in 1913...has been a prime mover in the anti-Jap agitation...”²

Assassination of Abraham

Remembering the purpose of the Jesuit Order, it set out to conquer the Far East, particularly Japan. First came the priests, and then came the foreign soldiers.

In attempting to capture Japan with Francis Xavier arriving in 1549, the Jesuits converted many of the Japanese lords called “daimyo”. The Jesuits then incited them to destroy hundreds of Buddhist temples and slaughter the priests.

But it came to pass that the Son of God would send a Protestant sea captain to the court of the Emperor’s shogun. Having saved William Adams from being crucified by the Jesuits, the shogun Iyeyasu held many interviews with the mariner. There he learned of the Order’s bloody history including the extermination of the West Indian races and of the Inquisition in Spain. As a result, the Englishman rose to extraordinary favor and was created a Samurai.

The shogun then purposed to resist the Pope’s political agenda of the Roman Catholic Hierarchy guided by the Jesuits and their evil Council of Trent. We read:

“From the beginning of his reign Iyeyasu had been organizing and unifying his empire and establishing his power to cope with the foreign conspirators. In 1606 he issued an edict forbidding further mission work and proclaiming that those who had adopted Christianity must abandon it. By Christianity he meant what Voltaire meant by “the Infamous,” the intriguing system of Rome which aimed at the overthrow of the native government and the sectarian domination of the country.”³

With this understanding the Tokugawa shoguns, Iyeyasu, Hidetada and Iyemitsu, successfully expelled the Jesuits with their minions, the Spanish and the Portuguese, allowing only the Protestant Dutch to trade with the Empire until 1854! In 1614 Iyeyasu issued an edict in the name of his son, Hidetada, outlawing “Christianity” thus expelling the Order. In 1622 many Jesuits were justly put to death (“martyred”) for high treason, and in 1624 the Roman Catholic Spanish were banished by one of Iyemitsu’s edicts. And why?

“The Christians [Jesuits], so the decree alleged, were striving ‘to spread abroad a pernicious code, to exterminate the true religion [Buddhism], to overthrow the government, and to make themselves masters of the whole empire.’ ”⁴ [Emphasis added]

And to what end?

“These [Jesuits] had for their object nothing less than the conquest of China, and the Jesuit fathers cherished the hope of gaining before long entry into Peking in the train of the Japanese ruler.”⁵ [Emphasis added]

(Dear truth-seeker, this is precisely what happened from 1868 to 1990. The Jesuits, in control of the Japanese Army through Emperor Meiji and his grandson Hirohito, ended the Manchu dynasty in 1911 and, during World War II, gang-raped and mass-murdered the Chinese people, as described in The Rape of Nanking, until 1945. Then in 1949 the Order, using their British, American and Russian Empires, installed its Chinese Grand Inquisitor, Mao Tse-tung. He in turn, in the name of "communism", murdered fifty million of his own people. The Jesuit General, having won the Cold War, became the absolute master of the Far East and emerged with a powerful new "sword of the Church" in his hands—the enormous Chinese Army! This army will one day absorb Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, and a disarmed Australia, having been given technology and high finance by the Papal Caesar's "Holy Roman" Fourteenth Amendment American Empire.)

But the Company of Jesus never cedes any portion of its power without a fight. In 1637 it resisted the shogun's edicts by force through raising an army and inciting a rebellion. This army of thirty thousand Roman Catholic Japanese declared a religious war and openly revolted against the Emperor. It seized an abandoned castle on the coast of Shimabara and waited for the Spanish fleet. The fleet would have reinforced the Jesuits and their army. But the shogun's forces, along with the Protestant Dutch fleet, foiled the aim of the Order by destroying the fortress along with the rebels.

"With the crushing of this rebellion fell the hopes of the Jesuits of establishing themselves in Japan. Their religion, says Lafcadio Hearn, had brought to Japan nothing but evil: disorders, persecutions, revolts, political troubles, and war. Even those virtues of the people which had been evolved at unutterable cost for the protection and conservation of society – their self-denial, their faith, their loyalty, their constancy and courage – were by this black creed diverted, distorted, and transformed into forces for the destruction of that society. Could that destruction have been accomplished, and a new Roman Catholic empire have been founded upon the ruins, the forces of that empire would have been used for the further extension of priestly tyranny, the spread of the Inquisition, the perpetual Jesuit warfare against freedom of conscience and human progress...Viewed from any other standpoint than that of religious bias, and simply judged by its results, the Jesuit effort to Christianize Japan must be regarded as a crime against humanity, a labor of devastation, a calamity comparable only – by reason of the misery and destruction which it wrought – to an earthquake, a tidal-wave, a volcanic eruption."⁶ [Emphasis added]

(Dear truth-seeker, as we shall later see, this is exactly what the Jesuits did to our Federal Republic established by our great George Washington. They founded a new "Holy Roman" American Empire on the ruins of our nation devastated by the War Between the States (1861-1865). The Jesuits then used their new American Empire to subdue all nations to the Temporal Power of their "infallible" Pope. In so doing the Jesuit General used his International Intelligence Community – the Holy Office of the Inquisition – and thereby conducted his warfare against freedom of conscience, freedom of speech and human progress pursuant to the evil Council of Trent.)

The result of this upheaval was that in 1639 the shogun, having previously expelled the Jesuits and the Spanish, now banished the Roman Catholic Portuguese and all foreigners from Japan forever. The Expulsion Edict reads:

"For the future, let none, so long as the sun illuminates the world, presume to sail to Japan, not even in the quality of ambassadors, and this declaration is never to be revoked, on pain of death."⁷

As a result of these edicts, the Jesuits would be barred from Japan for over two hundred and fifty years, allowing art, prosperity and peace to come to the nation. Little did the Emperor and shogun know that both of their dynasties and nation would pay dearly for this! Always plotting and forever returning, in 1854 the Order used the American gunboats of Commodore Perry to open up trade with Japan. In taking vengeance on its old enemy, the Company, using foreigners, incited a revolution in 1868. The shogun was branded a "usurper" (for refusing to submit to the Temporal Power of the Pope, pursuant to the evil doctrines of the Jesuit Francisco Suarez) and was forced to resign, ending the fifteen-generation Togugawa shogunate.

With the shogun out of the way, the Society of Jesus restored Emperor worship and centralized power (Jesuit style) in Tokyo. In 1868, using the agents of Ambassador Thomas Glover, the Order assassinated Emperor Komei at the young age of only thirty-six. And why? Emperor Komei absolutely refused to open up Japan to the treasonous, Jesuit-controlled, White "Christian" foreigners who were at the time in the process of causing a revolution! (Thank you Toichi for these facts!)

True to form, having assassinated another enemy in obedience to its wicked laws, the Sons of Loyola put the young Emperor Meiji on the throne. Inexperienced and intimidated through the murder of his father, he became a most willing tool of the Order's advisors for over forty years, from 1868 to 1912. In 1873 the "Christianity (Jesuit) ban" was lifted, giving the Order formal reentry into Japan! In 1874 Buddhism, the Company's old enemy, was legally disenfranchised, the Emperor no longer protecting or providing for the former state religion.

(Years later during the Pope's Cold War, the Order would launch a massive Inquisition against the peaceable Buddhists and its Dalai Lama (exiled in 1959 and presently a bosom friend of the Jesuits at Georgetown University in Washington) for daring to challenge THE POWER of "the Black Pope". Using Jesuit trained, bloodthirsty dictators like Chairman Mao of China, President Diem of Vietnam and Pol Pot of Cambodia, the Brotherhood would murder millions of Buddhists in obedience to its bloody Jesuit Oath and the tyrannical Council of Trent, which is presently the foreign policy of the United States, Russia and China dictated by the Order's Council on Foreign Relations and Trilateral Commission in New York.)

With this new absolute power in place, the Order would use its "Japanese Sword of the Church" until 1945. It used the Emperor's army to make war on two of its old enemies, China (1895) and Russia (1905). For the Manchu Emperor in Peking had expelled the Jesuits in 1716 and again in 1783 while the Romanoff Tzar in Moscow had done the same in 1820.

By 1941 payback time had arrived for the Japanese people. Under the supervision of "the Black Pope" (Jesuit General Ledochowski in Rome), the Sons of Loyola in Tokyo (working in conjunction with their brother Jesuits in Washington, D.C.) would create a war between the United States and Japan. With the full knowledge of President Roosevelt, the Shriner Freemason, Pearl Harbor would be bombed by Tojo's Japanese fleet creating a fury across America. Congress would be tricked into declaring war — for the last time. This deception resulted in many Japanese Americans being shamefully shipped to mid-west concentration camps — the brainchild of Earl Warren of the Warren Commission. Emperor Hirohito lost his absolute monarchy, Japan with its ancient culture was destroyed and the Japanese people suffered the shame and humiliation of a national defeat. The Jesuits then incorporated Japan, like Hawaii, into their "Holy Roman" Fourteenth Amendment American Empire and created a socialist-commercial colony, utterly dependent on Washington, D.C. for its protection and prosperity.

Dear truth-seeker, I am and will always be an American. My heart breaks for my father's generation of American soldiers who suffered the cruelty of Japanese torture and death marches. The bloodbaths of Iwo Jima, Guadalcanal, Tarawa and the re-taking of the Philippines gave the United States Marines a fame they will never lose and a suffering they will never forget. If they only knew they were fighting not for American freedom under the Protestant Constitution but for the vengeance of the Jesuit General and his wicked Council of Trent, "for the greater glory of God", the god who sits in St. Peter's Chair!
