“The good counsellors of great statesmen, that parliaments of both kingdoms would take from the king’s majesty, are a faction of perjured Papists, Prelates, Jesuits, Irish cut-throats, Stratford’s, and Apostates; subverters of all laws, divine, human, of God, of church, of state.”<sup>1</sup>

The Jesuits

While the Jesuits were busy with the Thirty Years’ War and suppressing the Protestant quest for liberty in the Dutch Republic, they planned the annihilation of the Protestants in Ireland. We read:

“The great design was, that a general insurrection should take place at the same time throughout the kingdom, and that all the Protestants, without exception, should be murdered. The day fixed for this horrid massacre was the 23rd of October, 1641, the feast of Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Jesuits; and the chief conspirators in the principal parts of the kingdom made the necessary preparations for the intended conflict.”<sup>4</sup>

Chapter 9

Having devised the plan to murder all the Protestants of Ireland on Ignatius Loyola’s feast day, the Jesuits moved the deceived Irish Catholic people to carry out the plan.

“The Irish were more strongly instigated to execute the infernal business by the Jesuits, priests, and friars, who when the day for the execution of the plot was agreed upon, recommended to their hearers diligence in the great design, which, they said, would greatly tend to the prosperity of the kingdom and to the advancement of the Catholic cause. They everywhere declared to the common people that the Protestants were heretics, and ought not to be suffered to live any longer among them, adding that it was no more sin to kill an Englishman than to kill a dog, and that the relieving or protecting them was a crime of the most unpardonable nature.”<sup>5</sup>
 [Emphasis added]

When the extirpation began, the Jesuits, true to form, carried out their bloody Oath once again. Remember, they always use other people or organizations to do their dirty work in enforcing the Council of Trent. We read again:

“It is impossible to conceive the pleasure these monsters took in exercising such cruelty; and to increase the misery of those who fell into their hands, when they butchered them they would say, “Your soul to the devil!” One of these miscreants would come into a house with his hands imbrued in blood, and boast that it was English blood, and that his sword had pricked the white skins of the Protestants even to the hilt.

Upwards of thirty Protestants, men, women and children, in the county of Tipperary, fell into the hands of the papists, who, after stripping them naked, murdered them with stones, poleaxes, swords, and other instruments...

Others were hung on windmills, and before they were half dead the barbarians cut them in pieces with their swords. Some, both men, women and children, they cut and hacked in various parts of their bodies [sexual] and left them wallowing in their blood to perish where they fell...

Similar barbarities were practiced on the wretched Protestants in almost all parts of the kingdom; and when an estimate was afterwards made of the number who were sacrificed to gratify the diabolical cruelty of the papists, it amounted to 150,000.”<sup>6</sup>

Continuing:

“Ever since the dreadful massacre of 1641, a perpetual war had been carried on between the Protestants and Catholics. This, Charles, while alive, had fostered by throwing the weight of his influence on the side of the Catholics. [For six years Charles I and Louis XIV of France had the same Jesuit confessor, Pere La Chaise]...

‘The Catholics burnt the houses of Protestants, turned them out naked in the midst of winter, and drove them like herds of swine before them. If ashamed of their nudity, and desirous of seeking shelter from the rigor of a remarkable severe season, these unhappy wretches took refuge in a barn, and concealed themselves under the straw, the rebels instantly set fire to it, and burned them alive. At other times, they were bound without clothing, to be drowned in rivers; and if, on the road they did not move quick enough they were urged forward at the point of the pike. When they reached the river, or the sea, they were precipitated into it in bands of several hundreds...If these poor wretches rose to the surface of the water, men were stationed along the brink, to plunge them in again with the butts of their muskets, or to fire at, and kill them. Husbands were cut to pieces in the presence of their wives; wives and virgins were abused in the sight of their nearest relations; and infants of seven or eight years were hung before the eyes of their parents. Nay, the Irish even went so far, as to teach their own children to strip and kill the children of the English, and dash out their brains against the stones. Numbers of Protestants were buried alive – as many as seventy in one trench. An Irish priest...captured forty or fifty Protestants, and persuaded them to abjure their religion, on a promise of quarter. After their abjuration he asked them if they believed that Jesus Christ was bodily present in the host, and that the pope was the head of the church? And, on their replying in the affirmative, he said, ‘Now, then, you are in a very good faith; and for fear they should relapse into heresy, cut all their throats.’ ”<sup>7</sup> [Emphasis added]

And why all this needless bloodshed? Because it was boldly preached by the Jesuits. We read the words of Jesuit O’Mahony, professor of Moral Theology in 1645:

“My dear Irish, – Go on and perfect the work of your liberty and defence, which is so happily begun by you; and kill all the heretics, and all that do assist and defend them. You have in the space of four or five years, that is, between the years 1641 and 1645, wherein I write this, killed 150,000 heretics, as your enemies acknowledge. Neither do I deny it. And for my own part, as I verily believe you have killed more of them, so I would to God you had killed them all — which you must either do, or drive them all out of Ireland, that our Holy Land may be plagued no longer with such a...barbarous, ignorant and lawless generation of people.”<sup>8</sup>

From 1641 to 1649 – eight long years – the Jesuits continued this murder in Ireland. It was for this reason Oliver Cromwell, the Defender of the Protestant faith, landed in Ireland and demanded the country to surrender. Upon refusing, Cromwell made an example out of the Jesuits’ Catholic Drogheda by breaching its wall and destroying nearly every living thing — men, women and children. This never would have happened had not the Jesuits instigated the mass-murder of the Protestants beginning with the Irish Massacre of 1641, having brainwashed the Irish Catholics to hate and kill English and Irish Protestants — men, women and children! Headley writes:

“Cromwell himself attempts no disguise, and in writing to the government on account of it, he says, after speaking of carrying the entrenchments: ‘Being thus entered, we refused them quarter, having the day before summoned the town. I believe we put to the sword the whole number of the defendants [over 2000]. I do not think thirty of the whole number escaped with their lives. Those that did are in safe custody for the Barbadoes...I wish that all honest men may give the glory of this to God alone, to whom, indeed, the praise of this mercy [to the Irish Protestants] belongs.’...His Chaplin, Hugh Peters, took the same view of it, and went to the chief church, where he solemnly offered up thanks to God for the slaughter of his enemies. Parliament also decreed that a day of thanksgiving should be kept in honor of this great mercy.

The fate of Drogheda struck the Irish people with dread. The day of vengeance had arrived; and the atrocities they had practiced on the helpless Protestants were now to be visited upon their own heads. Cromwell — resolved to bring the Irish war to a speedy termination...”<sup>9</sup> [Emphasis added]

Why is it that today, the Irish Protestants of Northern Ireland do not want to lose the protection of the British Army and be given over to the Jesuits' Sein Fein and the Irish Republican Army (IRA)? Is it not shocking to know that both the Sein Fein and the IRA work with the Russian Civilian Intelligence (KGB) as revealed by KGB agent Vasili Mitrokhin in The Sword and the Shield? Could it be that the Jesuits also control the KGB?

Knowing that the Society of Jesus will never change, could it be that the Jesuits have planned to destroy the Protestants and Baptists of the American Empire? If so, how?

Irish Massacre, 1642

The Irish Massacre was incited by the Jesuits and lasted until Oliver Cromwell landed in Drogheda to put an end to it. This scene depicts forty thousand Protestants being sacrificed by the savage and bloodthirsty Papists or Romanists, deceptively called "Christians" by their priests, whose loyalty was to the Pope, the Papal Caesar, of Rome.

The Disciplines of Life

We are about to acquaint ourselves with one of the greatest chapters of human history. Its hero was the Puritan freeman and Independent Baptist-Calvinist,

Oliver Cromwell.

The Jesuits, however, have slandered our greatest of heroes branding him “the Usurper” and have done all they could to destroy his memory from English history.

In 1625 King James I died and his son Charles I came to the throne. But Charles unlike his father became a tool of the Jesuits. He violated the Magna Charta and sought to govern as an absolute Monarch. Most of all, he suppressed the right of freedom of conscience by persecuting the Puritans who preached the Bible plan of salvation. Thousands left for America and Cromwell nearly departed England as well. But the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ had decreed that Cromwell should remain and deliver the persecuted Protestants from the designs of the Jesuits.

With the division between Charles and the Puritan Parliament, both prepared for war. Cromwell, after being defeated by Rupert's horsemen, declared that he would raise a cavalry of,

“ ‘...men who will bring some conscience to what they do, and I promise you they shall not be beaten.’...He thus got around him a body of men who scorned idleness and pleasure; and submitting cheerfully to his rigid discipline, bore privations and toils without a murmur, nay, with enthusiastic pride, for often their gallant leader slept beside them on the cold earth, and shared all their hardships. Fighting under the special protection of heaven, and for God and religion, they would rush to battle as to a banquet and embrace death with rapture...and this body of a thousand horse was never beaten.” <sup>2</sup> [Emphasis added]

For he said,

“A few honest men are better than numbers.” <sup>3</sup>

Cromwell's Puritan cavalry came to be known as the “Ironsides”. They utterly routed Rupert's finest horsemen at Marston Moor. From that time forward, Cromwell was regarded as invincible and enjoyed the confidence and love of his soldiers.

Cromwell went on to triumph over the Jesuits with their tools, Charles I and the Royalists. The battles of Nasby, Marston Moor, Dunbar, Worcester and charging the breach of Drogheda were all crowned with success; as, Cromwell was fighting for freedom of conscience – so hated by the Jesuits and their Council of Trent – while Charles I was fighting for absolute monarchy and Papal supremacy. With the Parliament executing the king for high treason, Cromwell went on to be “the Lord Protector of the British Commonwealth and Defender of the Protestant Faith”. He dissolved the self-serving Parliament and banished the Jesuits from the kingdom resulting in many conspiracies against his life. In 1654 a plot was discovered and the Jesuits’ would be assassins, Gerard and Vowel, were promptly executed.

Therefore:

“A hundred and sixty brave fellows selected from his different regiments of cavalry, divided into eight companies, became his bodyguard; ten of whom were always on duty about his person. On these he could rely; and unflinching and bold must be the man, and quick the assassin’s knife, that could reach him then.”<sup>4</sup>

Clearly, Cromwell would not be another Admiral Coligny, William of Orange or Henry IV.

Although the Jesuits failed in their many attempts to assassinate Cromwell, they managed to cruelly poison his daughter. We read of Elizabeth’s painful suffering and her father’s despairing heart:

“...the Lady Claypole, his favorite daughter, was taken sick with a fatal and most painful disease. The Protector was forgotten in the father; and hurrying to Hampton Court, he took his place by her bed-side, overwhelmed with sorrow. Her convulsions, and cries of distress, tore his heart-strings asunder, and shook that strong and affectionate nature to its foundations. His kingdom, his power, the Commonwealth, were all forgotten; and for fourteen days he bent over his beloved child...”<sup>5</sup>
[Emphasis added]

The Protector went on to lay the foundation of the British possessions in the West Indies and caused the flourishing of the preaching of the gospel while defending freedom of conscience condemned by the Jesuits’ Council of Trent.

“So far did his thoughts reach beyond his age, that he desired and earnestly attempted to extend the rights of citizenship to the outcast and persecuted Jews.”<sup>6</sup>

Further, he gave the American Colonies a taste of real freedom and protected the Protestants of France. Of Cromwell’s protection of the Vaudois we read:

“In June of this year came the news of the persecutions in the valley of Piedmont. Six Catholic regiments, three of which were Irish, were appointed to drive the Vaudois from their homes in mid-winter. The cruelties, the inhuman barbarity, that marked the proceedings against the poor Protestants, are well known. ‘Villages were burned to the ground; men were hewn in pieces: children’s brains dashed out against the rocks, and women impaled naked — a hundred and fifty females were beheaded, and their heads used in a game of bowls.’ When the news of the atrocities reached Cromwell, he burst into tears — they were the saints of God who thus suffered, and all his compassion was roused within him. On that day (January 3, 1655) he was to sign the treaty with France, which had for a long time been under contemplation; but he immediately refused, declaring that negotiations should proceed no further until the king (Louis XIV, whose Jesuit confessor would later cause him to revoke the Edict of Nantes) and Cardinal Mazarin, the prime minister, would pledge themselves to assist him in saving the Vaudois Protestants...

A day of fasting and humiliation was appointed, and a collection ordered to be taken in all the churches. The contribution amounted to over 37,000 pounds, showing how deeply Protestant England was stirred by the persecution of the Piedmontese Christians. It is said that Cromwell, in a burst of passion, replied to some obstacles that were mentioned as interfering with his plans, that ‘he would sail his ships over the Alps, but that he would put a stop to the persecution.’...War with France, nay, with the whole world, if necessary, he would wage, but this persecution of the children of God should cease.

The king of France at length yielded, and word was sent that the Duke of Savoy had granted an amnesty to the Vaudois, and restored their ancient rights. Mazarin, who, in fact, ruled France, had brought this about, for he stood in deadly fear of Cromwell. It is said that he always turned pale when he heard his name mentioned.

Oliver was the champion of Protestantism the world over, and he wished it so understood: he would defend it wherever his arm could reach...He also took pains to let the Pope understand, that he knew him to be at the bottom of the unnatural persecution, and if he did not beware, he would see his ships in the harbor of Civita Vecchia, and hear the thunder of his cannon around the Vatican.

In all his treaties, he made the rights of Protestants an indispensable article. He insisted that English merchants in Portugal should be allowed to worship God in their own way, and compelled France to respect the lives of the Huguenots. The latter called him 'their only hope next to God.'...

Thus the terror of his name became everywhere a shield for the persecuted Christians, and he was always remembered by them in their morning and evening devotions." <sup>7</sup>

Lastly, the Defender would not tolerate an attack of the Jesuits' Spanish Inquisition against any Englishman.

"To such gigantic stature of power did this dismal institution attain, that no one was safe from its fangs...Llorente gives several cases of English merchants, who were pounced upon by it in defiance to the law of nations. On one occasion Oliver Cromwell had to intercede for an English consul, whom they had got into their dens. The king replied, he had no power over the inquisition. 'Then,' added Cromwell, in a second message, 'if you have no power over the inquisition, I will declare war against it.'...Cromwell...menaced war on the inquisition — and the menace was heard to the lowest depths of its infernal dens." <sup>8</sup> [Emphasis added]

The rise of Cromwell, the Defender of the Protestant Faith was no coincidence. It was the answer to the prayers of Queen Elizabeth. We read her petition to the Lord before her battle with the Spanish Armada:

"O let Thine enemies know that Thou hast received England, which they most of all for Thy gospel's sake do malign, into Thine own protection. Set a wall about it, O Lord, and evermore mightily defend it. Let it be a comfort to the afflicted, a help to the oppressed, and a defense to Thy church and people, persecuted abroad." <sup>9</sup>
[Emphasis added]

Yes, the Queen's request was mightily answered in the person of an unlettered farmer:

"With no knowledge of the art of war, but much of himself, of men and of the Bible, this stout English squire had made up his mind in no hasty or factious spirit to draw the sword against his king, and venture his life for what he believed with his whole heart and soul to be the cause of 'freedom and the truth in Christ.'" <sup>10</sup>

This honest man of God,

"...through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises...escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness was made strong, waxed valiant in fight, and turned to flight the armies of the aliens."

— Hebrews 11:33, 34

For he,

"...had risked his life in open war with the sovereign power of England, and his life a thousand times on the battle-field; who had placed his foot on the neck of a king; broken up parliament at the pike's point, and dissolved it by his imperial word; boldly assumed all the power the title of king could confer; laid his hand on the very chieftains who surrounded him at Naseby, Marston Moor, Dunbar, and Worcester, and quartered his troops in almost every town in England; — this man...had performed the boldest acts ever planned by the human intellect or exerted by a human arm..." <sup>11</sup>

And how so?

"On one occasion, while looking at some statues of famous men, he turned to a friend and said,

'Make mine kneeling, for thus I came to glory.'" <sup>12</sup>

Further, as the Lord seems to do His greatest works in responding to the persistent prayers of righteous women having trusted Him, pitifully and helplessly laying bare their hearts before the One “who gathers the wind in His fists”, Israel has known her greatest deliverers. Joseph, Samson, Samuel and the returning Messiah Jesus are but a few. True to form, the greatest Gentile Deliverer of the Lord's Bible-reading Church during this “dispensation of grace”, we find Oliver Cromwell deeply moved by his prayerful mother. As she lay dying, he at her side, we see England's greatest Chieftain, the Reformation's greatest Champion and the Father of the British Empire broken to shivers as she utters her last words:

“The Lord cause His face to shine upon you,” she said; “and comfort you in all your adversities; and enable you to do great things for the Glory of the Most High God, and to be a relief to His people. My dear son, I leave my heart with thee. Good Night!” and closing her eyes, she breathed forth her spirit to the God who gave it. Cromwell gazed a moment on her pallid features, and then burst into a flood of tears. What a picture does he, the Lord-Protector of England – the hero of so many battle-fields – the resolute, iron-willed man, present, weeping beside his aged mother.”<sup>13</sup> [Emphasis added]

This good and great man, the most maligned actor on the stage of modern history, crowned his success with the Reformation's greatest victory over the gates of hell. The Protector boldly expelled the Jesuits from his kingdom and those who dared to remain he hunted them down like the traitors they were! Praise God!

“But while the enemies of peace and order at home were made to feel the invincible power of his government, it was in his relations with foreign states that the commanding genius of Oliver was most conspicuously displayed. No Monarch ever so sustained in the eyes of Europe the majesty of British power. The grand object of his foreign policy was to unite the Protestant states, with Britain at their head, in a defensive league against Popery [and the Jesuits], then as now [1903] the enemy of civil and religious liberty.”<sup>14</sup> [Emphasis added]

(Two hundred years later Luther's Germany would be blessed with a similar champion of Protestantism and the hero responsible for the expulsion of the Jesuits from the Second German Empire. He would be the “Iron Chancellor”, Otto von Bismarck, known for his struggle with Rome called “the Kulturkampf!”)

The Jesuits had been taken in their own snare. In attempting to make Charles the First an absolute Roman Catholic Monarch, the Puritan Revolution erupted producing the greatest archenemy of Jesuitism to date. They could not assassinate the Lord Protector nor thwart his foreign policy, which flew in the face of the Council of Trent. Imagine the rage of the Jesuit General!

But the Order “never forsakes nor forgets”; therefore, it patiently awaited Cromwell's death, restored the Stuarts in 1660 and made Protestant Scotland “to howl” for twenty-eight years. Charles II turned his court into a house of prostitution – like the Papal Caesar's Vatican Palace and Bill Clinton's White House – and sunk England in vice and corruption. Although the Jesuits dug up Cromwell's body, dragged it through the streets of London, cut off its head and set it on a spire of Westminster Abbey, they could never undo his defense of Protestantism which led to the establishment of Rome's greatest antagonist, her most fearless and resolute of spiritual and political enemies — the Protestant British Empire.

Chapter 11

Revocation of the Edict of Nantes Protestants Expelled from France

“No man has a right to choose his religion. Catholicism is the most intolerant of creeds. It is intolerance itself. We might as rationally maintain that two and two does not make four as the theory of Religious Liberty. Its impiety is only equaled by its absurdity.”<sup>1</sup>

John Hughes, 1864
Archbishop of New York
Vigorous Defender of the Pope’s
Temporal Power

In 1598 King Henry IV issued the Edict of Nantes granting religious liberty to the Protestants of France. This act infuriated the Jesuits as it opposed their Council of Trent. As we have discovered in a previous chapter, the king paid for this with his life; he was stabbed in the chest by a Jesuit assassin.

Determined to implement their foreign policy – the evil Council of Trent – the Jesuits sought to abolish the Edict of Nantes. The result would be the purging of France of its “heretic” Protestants. Their tool for this heart-breaking injustice was the immoral “Sun King”, Louis XIV.

In understanding the cause of the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes we must review the famous letter written by the king’s Jesuit confessor, Pere La Chaise.

“It cost me many threats and promises, before I could bring it thus far, our King being a long time very unwilling. But at last I got him on the hip, for he had lain with his daughter-in-law, for which I would by no means give him absolution, till he had given me an instrument under his own hand and seal, to sacrifice all the heretics in one day. Now, as soon as I had my desired commission, I appointed the day when this should be done; and in the meantime made ready some thousands of letters to be sent into all parts of France in one post night...And many a time since, when I have had him at confession, I have shook hell about his ears, and made him sigh, fear, and tremble, before I would give him absolution. Nay, more than that, I have made him beg for it on his knees before I would consent to absolve him.”<sup>2</sup> [Emphasis added]

Hislop, in describing the psychology of control used by the Jesuit, continues:

“In the confessional, when they have an object to gain, they make the sins and transgressions good weight; and then, when they have a man of influence, or power, or wealth to deal with, they will not give him the slightest hope till round sums of money, or the founding of an abbey, or some other object on which they have set their heart, be cast into the other scale. In the famous letter of Pere La Chaise, the confessor of Louis XIV of France, giving an account of the method which he adopted to gain the consent of that licentious Monarch to the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, by which such cruelties were inflicted on his innocent Huguenot subjects, we see how the fear of the scales of St. Michael operated in bringing about the desired result: – ‘many a time since,’ says the accomplished Jesuit, referring to an atrocious sin of which the king had been guilty, ‘many a time since, when I have had him at confession, I have shook hell about his ears, and made him sigh, fear and tremble, before I would give him absolution. By this I saw that he had still an inclination to me, and was willing to be under my government; so I set the baseness of the action before him by telling the whole story, and how wicked it was, and that it could not be forgiven till he had done some good action to BALANCE that, and expiate the crime. Whereupon he at last asked me what he must do. I told him that he must root out all heretics from his kingdom.’ This was the ‘good action’ to be cast into the scale of St. Michael the Archangel, to ‘BALANCE’ his crime. The king, wicked as he was – sore against his will – consented; the ‘good action’ was cast in, the ‘heretics’ were extirpated; and the king was absolved.”<sup>3</sup> [Emphasis added]

So the Edict was revoked, the Huguenots lost their religious liberty and the protection of French law.

“Let us see what the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes involved. The demolition of all the remaining Protestant Temples throughout France, and the entire proscription of the Protestant religion; the prohibition of even private worship under penalty of confiscation of body and property; the banishment of all Protestant pastors from France within fifteen days; the closing of all Protestant schools; the prohibition of parents to instruct their children in the Protestant faith; the injunction upon them, under a penalty of five hundred livres in each case, to have their children baptized by the parish priest, and brought up in the Roman Catholic religion, the confiscation of the property and goods of all Protestant refugees who failed to return to France within four months; the penalty of the galleys for life to all men, and of imprisonment for life to all women, detected in the act of attempting to escape from France.”<sup>4</sup>

Then the fanatical Jesuits with their French soldiers, called “the Dragonade”, fulfilled the bloody Jesuit Oath and Council of Trent once again, shedding innocent blood throughout France. Of the bloodthirsty Dragonade we read:

“The dragons entered the houses with drawn swords, shouting ‘kill, kill or become Catholics.’ The scenes of brutal outrage, which occurred during these dragonnades, can not be described. These soldiers were among the roughest, loosest, cruelest of men. They suspended their victims with ropes, blowing tobacco-smoke into their nostrils and mouths, and practicing upon them a hundred other nameless cruelties... These infamous wreckers took a pleasure in maltreating women. They beat them with whips; they struck them on the face with canes in order to disfigure them; they dragged them by their hair in the mud and over the stones... Great was the rejoicing of the Jesuits on the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes.”<sup>5</sup>

Chiniquy, a French Canadian and one of our heroes, concludes:

“It was to obey those bloody laws that Louis XIV revoked the Edict of Nantes, caused the death of half a million of men, women and children, who perished in all the highways of France, and caused twice that number to die in the land of exile, where they had found a refuge.”<sup>6</sup>
[Emphasis added]

Ridpath agrees:

“The regions where the Huguenot population predominated were reduced to a desolation, and it is estimated that France by her frightful barbarity to her own people lost fully half a million of her most industrious inhabitants...[Does this not sound like the Purges under Jesuit-trained Joseph Stalin and Mao Tse-tung?]”<sup>7</sup> [Emphasis added]

The result of the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes was over one hundred years of Jesuit suppression of the Protestant faith in France! (Many Huguenots would come to America and settle in English Carolina — North and South Carolina. One of our Founding Fathers was a descendant of these persecuted French Calvinists. A contributor to The Federalist Papers and our first Chief Justice, he was the learned and great John Jay!) But, like in the Jesuits’ Communist Russia and Communist China, the Bible-believing Protestant and Baptist Churches continued underground until the Jesuit General used his French Revolution to punish the disobedient Pope and Roman Catholic Monarchs of Europe for abolishing his Society of Jesus.

“Although Protestantism seemed to be utterly stamped out in France during the century which followed the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes — although its ministers were banished, its churches and schools suppressed; and it was placed entirely beyond the pale of the law — it nevertheless continued to have an acted existence...for the Protestants, after the Revocation, constituted a sort of underground church, regularly organized, though its meetings were held by night in forests, in caves among the hills, or in unsuspected places even in the heart of large towns and cities, in all parts of France.”<sup>8</sup>

Dear truth-seeker, what is the difference between France under the Revocation and Russia and China under Communism in their treatment of Protestant and Baptist Bible-believers? Nothing! For as we shall see, their masters are the same — those vile, heartless and murderous Sons of Loyola!

Dear truth-seeker, do you see why America’s founding fathers, the Baptist James Madison in particular, insisted upon a Bill of Rights to secure Protestant liberties?

If a French King could revoke Protestant liberty with an “edict” could not an American President, operating under the Emergency War Powers Act of 1950 as the Commander-in-Chief, do the same with an “executive order”?

Would the Jesuits attempt to do the same thing in the United States if all the guns were registered then confiscated just as they did in Nazi Germany?

Pere La Chaise, 1624 – 1709
Jesuit Confessor to Louis XIV, King of France
 1643 - 1715

Words cannot describe the diabolical infamy of this evil and sinister man. Living in wealth and splendor, he forced “the Sun King” to revoke Henry IV’s Edict of Nantes that destroyed the most productive and cultivated people of France, the Huguenots. The atheism and immorality of the French today is largely the result of this perfidious Jesuit and his devilish master, the Black Pope.

It was for this reason that the White Baptist Calvinists of the sovereign States of Rhode Island and Virginia insisted upon the addition of the Bill of Rights to the Constitution prior to their entering into our Confederate Republic of these United (Protestant) States of America. Both the First and Second Amendments were deemed necessary in order to prevent these scenes from occurring in our great land. And for this reason the Sons of Loyola hate our Bill of Rights, as they presently prevent our Jesuit-controlled government in Washington, D.C., from openly murdering us "heretics and liberals" in accordance with the Order's Council of Trent.

Chapter 12

Communist Reductions in Paraguay

"The Society may also advantageously traffic under the borrowed names of some rich merchants [Shriner Freemasons and Knights of Malta], our friends; but never without a prospect of certain and abundant gain; and this may be done even to the Indies, which hitherto, by the bountiful favor of God, have furnished us not only with souls, but also plenteously supplied our coffers with wealth." <sup>1</sup>

Ignatius Loyola, 1540
Founder and General of the Jesuits
Secret Instructions of the Jesuits

"I find almost the whole wealth of Central America in the hands of the Jesuits, and the property they hold in heads of cattle and sheep is something truly enormous...and they have succeeded in a word to bring to such a height their power and riches that the secular clergy will soon be compelled to beg their bread from the Jesuits." <sup>2</sup>

Juan de Palafox, 1650
Archbishop of Mexico
Report to Pope Innocent X

"They dare before us, to enslave the Indians of Paraguay, to sell them, or buy them...separating mothers from their children, and to despoil them of their goods and property." <sup>3</sup>

Pope Benedict XIV
Bull of December, 1741

"When once the Jesuits had raised up a generation so devoted and obedient, they then brought into operation their system of government, and made a successful attempt to realize that republic preconceived of old by Plato, and which, with perhaps more interested views, is held out to us by the Socialists of our own day. In fact, their form of a republic was nothing else than Communism which the famous [French] Cabet is now trying to establish in nearly the same regions; the only difference being, that the Jesuits substituted themselves for the state or community." <sup>4</sup> [Emphasis added]

G. B. Nicolini of Rome, 1854

History of the Jesuits

"As for the multitude, their only duty is to let themselves be led and to follow their shepherd as a docile herd." <sup>5</sup>

Pope Pius X, 1906
Vatican City

This chapter is most important as it will be proven that the Jesuits are the true authors of socialist-communism. The economic system of the Dark Ages was feudalism consisting of the few rich landowners and the many poor peasants. It was "a sin" to make a profit by anyone other than the feudal lords. Thus, if the world is to be returned to the Dark Ages, the White Protestant Middle Class must be destroyed. Socialist-Communism accomplishes this, having yielded its bitter fruit in both Great Britain and the United States.

The great deception is that the Jews are the authors of communism. (After all, is not Zionism Jewish communism?) The facts are that the Jesuits used their Masonic Jews to introduce it in 1848 with the Second French Revolution (Marx), and again in 1917 with the Bolshevik Revolution (Lenin). Several years later, in 1933, the Jesuits then moved their Shriner Freemason, Franklin Delano Roosevelt (FDR), to recognize Russia's bloody government. The Order then financed Russian communism with its Knights of Malta on Wall Street. This enabled Joseph Stalin, "the Grand Inquisitor", to carry out the purges of the Thirties. Having deceived the world into believing communism was of Jewish origin, the Jesuits then used Hitler to implement "the Final Solution to the Jewish Question" pursuant to the evil Council of Trent. The result was the mass-murder of European and Russian Jewry at the hands of the Jesuit-controlled, Nazi "Schutzstaffel" (SS).

At the close of the Second Thirty Years' War (1945) the Jesuits, with their Vatican Ratline, helped top Nazis to escape to South America. And where in South America? To the old dominion where socialist-communism had been perfected by the Jesuit fathers — to the nation of Paraguay.

The Jesuits entered Paraguay in the early 1600s, sent by the kings of Spain and Portugal. They established their supremacy over the natives called "Guarani Indians" and did not allow them to mix with the Spanish or Portuguese. It was among this people that the Jesuits established their communes called "Reductions". Thompson writes:

"The unsuspecting Indians were easily seduced by acts of kindness, and the result was that, in the course of a brief period, they succeeded in establishing a number of what were called Reductions — or, more properly speaking, villages — with multitudes of Indians assembled about them; the whole aggregating, in the end, several hundred thousand. These constituted the Jesuit State, and were all, by the mere ceremony of baptism, brought under Jesuit dominion." <sup>6</sup>

The "Commune" or "Reduction" was kept in order by a system of spying.

"...each Reduction was governed by a Jesuit father, supported by a vicar and a curate as assistants, but whose chief duty was espionage." <sup>7</sup>

(This is important as the communist Reduction of the United States is also kept in order by a system of spying, carried out by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and National Security Agency (NSA).)

The Commune, called by the Jesuits a "republic", gave the appearance that it was self-governing. It was a republic in form but a monarchy in power controlled by the Jesuit General in Rome.

"At each Reduction the natives were allowed to select a secular magistracy, with limited and unimportant powers over such temporal affairs as could be intrusted to them without impairing the theocratic feature of the Government.

It was in everything pertaining to the management of public affairs an absolute monarchy, with all its powers centered in the general at Rome, whose authority was accepted as equal to that of God, and to whose command obedience was exacted from all." <sup>8</sup>

(This also is important as the Protestant republic of George Washington, with express and limited powers delegated to the Federal government, was an abomination to the Jesuit Order:

"For the Vatican condemned the Declaration of Independence as 'wickedness'...and called the Constitution of the United States 'a Satanic document'." <sup>9</sup>

So the Order with its "Radical Red Republican party" forced the ratification of the Fourteenth Amendment in 1868. This converted Washington's republic into a Jesuit republic — a republic in form but a monarchy in power.)

The status of the natives was one of equality and the economic system was socialist-communism. And of course, each Reduction had a common treasury or central bank. We read:

"...universal equality prevailed. The principles of socialism or communism — very much as now understood [1894] — governed all the Reductions. Everything necessary to the material comfort and prosperity of the Indians was in common. Each family had a portion of land set apart for cultivation. They also learned trades, and many of them, both men and women, became experts. But the earnings of the whole were deposited in common storehouses at each Reduction, and distributed by the Jesuits in such portions to each individual as necessity required...Suffrage was universal, but 'the sanction of the Jesuits was necessary to the validity of the election.'" <sup>10</sup>

(Dear truth-seeker, is this not how the people of the United States are governed today? Marx's ten planks of the Communist Manifesto are in full force. We have a privately owned central bank called the "Federal Reserve Bank". An annual income tax is collected from "each according to his ability" and redistributed to "each according to his need", thereby destroying the White Protestant Middle Class. The sanction of the Jesuits, in control of the Council on Foreign Relations, is necessary to the validity of our "elections". Politically, women are equal with men and we are oppressed with "one man, one vote". We have no "lawful money" which is real wealth, as President Roosevelt and President Johnson took our gold and silver coins out of circulation and created the supremacy of monopoly money — the bogus notes of the Federal Reserve Bank.)

One last trait of the Jesuit republic must be noted. Through its police state the Jesuits destroyed true manhood.

“In order to teach the confiding Indians that obedience to authority was intercourse which were enforced with the strictest severity. They were their chiefest duty, they were subjected to rules of conduct and watched in everything, the searching eyes of the Jesuits being continually upon them. They constituted, in fact, a state of society reaching the Jesuit ideal completely; that is, docile, tractable, submissive, obedient, without the least real semblance of manhood. Having thus completed their subjugation, energetic measures were adopted to render any change in their condition impossible.”<sup>11</sup>

(Dear truth-seeker, I must comment! Is this not the America of 2001? As a nation, we no longer read the Bible of the Protestant Reformation — The Authorized King James Version of 1611, the edition of 1769. As a result, there are no longer any Calvinists who would use “the Sword of Just Defense” against a Jesuit-controlled tyranny. Therefore, we Americans live in a police state and are watched and tracked in everything we do through the use of the “date of birth” and “social security number”. The eyes of the FBI and CIA are continually upon us — like the KGB in Russia. And like the Guarani Indians, the vast majority of American men are submissive and obedient, docile and effeminate, “without the least real semblance of manhood” thanks to the use of fluoride and amalgam fillings by the American Dental Association (ADA) along with synthetic estrogens, toxic chemicals and vaccinations by the American Medical Association (AMA) and cartel corporate farmers.)

“The Jesuit Republic”, composed of over thirty Paraguayan Reductions, was in fact a vast commercial empire on which were laboring over two hundred thousand slaves. Boyd Barrett, an Irish ex-Jesuit, tells us:

“The Jesuits, as it is well known, held very large regions of Paraguay under missionary control from 1650 to 1750. More than a quarter million natives worked under their direction, and no payment was made directly to them...They were educated, trained, housed, clothed, fed and, to some extent, amused, but what became of the surplus profits of their labours, and of the extensive trading that was carried on? Over two thousand boats are said to have been engaged in carrying merchandise and goods on the Parana River; and the economic value of the Reductions was beyond doubt very great: so great indeed as to have awakened the envy of Spanish and Portuguese traders. Robertson estimated that the reductions represented at least $25,000,000 capital for the Society.”<sup>12</sup>

Further, the Order’s commercial empire extended north through Central America to include all of Mexico. Again our ex-Jesuit writes:

“The most dramatic testimony to Jesuit ‘avidity and eagerness for earthly goods’ is contained in a letter from the Venerable Bishop Palafox of Los Angeles to [Pope] Innocent X dated May 25, 1647. It treats the wealth of the Mexican Jesuits of that time.

‘Most Holy Father:

I found almost all the wealth, all immovables, and all the treasures of this Province of America in the hands of the Jesuits, who still possess them. Two of their colleges have 300,000 sheep, without counting the small flocks; and whilst almost all the Cathedral Churches and all the Orders together have hardly three sugar refineries, the Society has six of the largest. One of these refineries is valued at more than half a million thalers; and this single province of the Jesuits, which however only consists of ten colleges, possesses, as I have just said, six of these refineries, each of which brings in one hundred thousand thalers yearly. Besides this they have cornfields of enormous size. Also they have silver mines, and if they continue to increase their power and wealth as they have done up to now, the secular clergy will become their sacristans and the laymen their stewards, while the other Orders will be forced to collect alms at their doors. All this property and all these considerable revenues which might make a sovereign powerful, serve no other purpose than to maintain ten colleges [military fortresses]...To this may be added the extraordinary skill with which they make use of and increase their super-abundant wealth. They maintain public warehouses, cattlefairs, butchers-stalls, and shops. They send part of their goods by way of the Philippine Islands to China. They lend out their money for usury, and thus cause the greatest loss and injury to others.’”<sup>13</sup> [Emphasis added]

Dear truth-seeker, “the Jesuit Republic” of South America became the model for “the Jesuit Republic” of North America. The thirty Reductions in Paraguay from 1600 to 1750 have become the model for the fifty States of Fourteenth Amendment America from 1868 to (the present) 2000. Both “republics” were established by super cartel-capitalists — the Jesuits — who then implemented the economic system of the Dark Ages — feudal socialist-communism. As always, cartel-capitalists and socialist-communists work together! Like Paraguay, Fourteenth Amendment America functions as a vast commercial empire, the Jesuits controlling all the wealth and reaping all the profits from their multinational corporations. Like the Guarani Indians, we American people are slaves; for, after being “educated, trained, housed, clothed, fed and amused,” we Americans have nothing! Like Paraguay, the commercial power of Fourteenth Amendment America has been harnessed by the Jesuit Order and has been used to finance Great Wars furthering Loyola's Counter-Reformation while destroying Luther's Protestant Reformation!

Should those of us who believe the Bible to be the final rule of faith and practice continue to be used to such evil ends? Should our preachers continue to remain mute in the face of such grand theft and Anti-Christian tyranny?

Where are the Dauids who would say:

"Is there not a cause?"

– I Samuel 17:29

Where are the Nehemiahs who would say:

"Should such a man as I flee?"

– Nehemiah 6:11

Finally, the Jesuits, in keeping the natives ignorant and enslaved, taught them to hate and kill White men and so keep the existence of the Reductions a secret from the sovereigns of Europe. Portugal issued the following statement of grievances:

"That [the Jesuits] had under them thirty-one great populations, producing immense riches to the society, while the people themselves were kept in the most miserable slavery; that no Spaniard or Portuguese, were he even governor or bishop, was ever admitted into the Reductions; that 'with strange deceit,' the Spanish language was absolutely forbidden; that the Indians were trained to an unlimited, blind obedience, kept in the most 'extraordinary ignorance,' and the most insufferable slavery ever known, and under a complete despotism as to body and soul; that they did not know there was any other sovereign in the world than the fathers, and knew nothing of the king, or any other law than the will of the 'holy fathers,' that the Indians were taught that white laymen adored gold, had a devil in their bodies, were the enemies of the Indians, and of the images which they adored; that they were consequently taught to kill white men wherever they could find them, and to be careful to cut off their heads, lest they should come to life again."<sup>14</sup> [Emphasis added]

(As an aside, did not the cult of the Black Muslims originate in the Jesuit-controlled city of Chicago? Are not the Black Muslims taught hatred for the White man? Is not the Black Muslim, Khallid Abdul Muhammad, America's Black Hitler, hating both the White and Jewish races? Are not the Black Muslims taught that all White men are "white blue-eyed devils"? Do not the Black Muslims have a private army called "the Fruit of Islam" for the purpose of conducting an American race war pursuant to the wishes of its mulatto leader, Louis Farrakhan? Would not a race war, similar to the Mau Mau butchery in Africa led by the Jesuits' Jomo Kenyatta during the 1950s, result in the suspension of the Constitution, the declaration of a national emergency, and with it, absolutist martial law under the control of military commanders subject to the Jesuit General? Could it be that Malcolm X, after his trip to Mecca, became wise to this scenario realizing the Blacks of the Northern Roman Catholic cities were being used and would ultimately be interned in concentration camps? Could it be this is one of the reasons why he left the cult and founded his own movement resulting in his assassination? Could it be that the wife of Malcolm X told the truth, that her husband was murdered by the leaders of the Nation of Islam in conjunction with the high command of the FBI, the Bureau in 1965 under the control of a White, apostate Presbyterian and homosexual, thirty-third degree Freemason, J. Edgar Hoover? Was not Hoover the bosom friend of the homosexual American Pope, Cardinal Spellman, educated by and having been the great patron of the Society of Jesus? As we can see, the Black Muslim cult bears all the marks of Jesuit control including rabid, anti-Jewish fury; its Masonic leader, Louis Farrakhan notoriously distributes the Jesuits' Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion.)

In casting further light on the assassination of Malcolm X in 1965, a private letter was received by the author from a brilliant and former associate of the Black Muslims, he having realized Rome's control of the movement through Black Freemasonry of the Prince Hall Rite. In moving me to tears as he applied a healing balsam to some of my old wounds, he bravely declared after forty years of study and involvement:

"Elijah Muhammad was a Mason. (Many members of the Nation of Islam were/are Masons belonging to the Prince Hall Rite.) His son Wallace (Warith) as well as Farrakhan and Jesse Jackson are Masons. Farrakhan was involved in Malcolm's assassination. He betrayed him knowing that he was going to be killed. His role was that of a supervisor. He made sure the job was carried out. Wallace (Elijah Mohammed's son) also knew about his father's plans. His jealousy of Malcolm prevented him from warning him. He really wanted Malcolm out of the way. Based on declassified FBI, State Department, and Military Intelligence records which I have obtained a number of years ago, Wallace was/is the hand picked stooge of the FBI/Vatican. He was a government informant for the FBI as early as 1963-4.

As for the thugs who were convicted of killing Malcolm, Thomas Johnson, Norman Butler and Hayer are now free men. Hayer said the other two were not involved. This is a lie. I have personally spoken to an eyewitness who was present in Auburn Correctional Facility in 1972-1973 when Talmidge Hayer and Thomas Johnson planned their fabricated story. From 1966-1972 not one of the three ever had any contact with each other. It was not until 1971 after the riot at Auburn that a large portion of the inmate population was transferred to other prisons. Then in 1972 the Attica riots took place and it was then that Hayer was moved to Auburn.

They were indeed the killers. However, there were others also involved who were on the scene as well as other conspirators, and the main culprit who gave the orders, Pope Paul VI (G. Batista Montini) was the first Pope to ever visit the U.S....

I hope I did not bore you with all this. In any event I am honored to be of service in this cause. Let me say I have been at this for more than 40 years. I don't take this lightly and seriousness of all this can never be overstated." [Emphasis added and source withheld]

As the Jesuits taught the native peoples of color hatred for the White race on their Reductions in Paraguay, even so they teach it now to the Blacks in their American Empire through the Press, the Jesuit Theatre (Hollywood) and the Nation of Islam. Any honorable Black man resisting and exposing this scenario will be threatened or silenced – permanently – unless he is protected by the risen Son of God who is the King of the Jews, the Lord Jesus Christ! Such was the Jesuit state of Paraguay from 1600 to 1750. Such is the Jesuit state of the Fourteenth Amendment "Holy Roman" American Empire from 1868 to the present.

God the Father had decreed, however, that the Guarani Indians should be delivered from their invincible Jesuit masters. Therefore, the risen Son of God sent a man and the Jesuits

"...encountered an adversary of whose courage and capacity they had not the least conception, and whom they found, in a brief period, capable of inflicting a death-blow upon the society. This was Sebastian Cavalho, Marquis of Pombal, who was the chief counselor of the Portuguese king." <sup>15</sup> [Emphasis added]

In 1963, God the Father decreed that an American President would resist our Jesuit masters. He was a Catholic, John F. Kennedy, but he was mortally wounded in the house of his friends, while the nation's Protestant and Baptist preachers – including the Shriner Freemason Billy Graham, the bosom friend of the Jesuits and servant of the "infallible" Papal Caesar in Rome – stood by and said nothing!

Protestant Traitor, Billy Graham, 1967

Here, this Southern Baptist Freemason is receiving the yoke of Rome from the Jesuits at Belmont Abbey College. Openly admiring the Jesuit Order, Graham has called Pope John Paul II "the world's greatest moral leader." Remember, according to the ex-Jesuit Alberto Rivera, John Paul II is a known pedophile and during World War II worked for I. G. Farben in a plant near the Nazis' Auschwitz Death Camp in Poland, making the Zyklon B gas pellets used to mass-murder "heretics and Jews" pursuant to the Pope's Canon Law.

The Guarani Reductions
1600 - 1750

These secret socialist-communist Reductions, known today as “Communes” or “Kibbutzim”, produced untold wealth for the Order using hundreds of thousands of slaves, given “each according to his ability and each according to his need.” The lessons learned on these Platonic Republics provided the groundwork for Marx’s The Communist Manifesto by which every nation on earth would be reduced to a Guarani Reduction, thereby destroying the White Protestant Middle Classes while restoring the communal Feudalism of the Papal Caesar’s Dark Ages.

The Layout of a Reduction, 1600 – 1750

The Order’s utopian Reductions upon which socialist-communism was perfected included central banks called “storehouses”, universal equality and universal male and female labor. The goods produced by this slave labor were put into international trade with the Order’s huge fleet of “Blackships”. Benefiting the Jesuit cartel capitalists in financing their wars of annihilation against Protestant cultures, the Reductions bear a striking resemblance to the Concentration and Death Camps of the Black Pope’s Nazi Third Reich in fulfilling the Council of Trent. Presently, the profits generated from the slave labor of the Order’s many Communist Reductions in the Far East are financing the building of Red China’s huge navy intending to invade “heretic and liberal” North America, filled with refugees, Jews and apostate Protestants and Baptists.

– Matthew 12:26

Dear truth-seeker, the relationship between the Jesuits and Freemasonry is important to understand. The Jesuits, in control of the Vatican since 1814, portray Freemasonry as their enemy. This is simply not true. (In Baltimore, Maryland, there is a Jesuit Seminary directly across the street from a Shriner Temple!) As we shall see, Shriner Freemasonry and Jesuitism are friends and work together, as both secret societies desire to rebuild Solomon’s Temple in Jerusalem.

The Freemasons were revived in 1717 in Protestant England, having become the present day Knights Templars of the Popes’ Crusades. The Scottish Rites were written by the Jesuits at one of their colleges in France. Why? To restore the Jesuit-controlled House of Stuart to the throne of England. Our Masonic author writes:

“Chevalier de Bonneville [like the Bonneville automobile manufactured by Chevrolet/General Motors] formed a chapter of twenty-five Degrees of the so-called High-Degrees in the College of Jesuits of Clermont, in Paris in 1754. The adherents of the House of Stuart had made the college of Clermont their asylum, they being mostly Scotchmen. One of these Degrees being the “Scottish Master”, the new body organized in Charleston, S.C., in 1801, gave the name of Scottish Rite to these Degrees, which name ever since that time has characterized the Rite all over the world.”<sup>7</sup> [Emphasis added]

Again we read:

“In the matter of the Stuarts we are, however, on firm ground with regard to Freemasonry. That the lodges at the end of the seventeenth century were Royalist is certain, and there seems good reason to believe that, when the revolution of 1688 divided the Royalist cause, the Jacobites who fled to France with James II took Freemasonry with them. With the help of the French they established lodges in which, it is said, Masonic rites and symbols were used to promote the cause of the Stuarts. Thus the land of promise signified Great Britain, Jerusalem stood for London and the murder of Hiram represented the execution of Charles I.”<sup>8</sup>

(Dear truth-seeker, as we shall see, Freemasonry has become a great tool of the Jesuits. It was used to punish the Pope and Monarchs of Europe for suppressing the Jesuit Order. Their tools were Robespierre and Napoleon. When the Jesuits were suppressed, the most powerful Freemason in Europe protected them. He was Frederick the Great of Prussia. When the Jesuits caused the American War Between the States (1861-1865), they used Freemasonry to ignite it. When the Jesuits overthrew the German Kaiser and protector of the Lutheran Church after World War I, they used Freemasonry to betray him. When the Jesuits destroyed key evidence pointing to more than one gunman in the Kennedy Assassination, they used Shriner Freemasons as their agents — J. Edgar Hoover, Lyndon Johnson, Earl Warren and Gerald Ford in particular.)

Let us now reflect, as our hearts must understand this era of time. The Lord Jesus Christ – to Whom has been given all governing authority in earth – had granted Britain religious and political liberty for the third time. Indeed, the Revolution of 1688 was glorious; for it drove that Jesuit-controlled savage, James II, out of the country. This historic victory of good over evil marked the one hundredth anniversary of the Son of God intervening for His English Protestants and Baptists in miraculously sinking the Jesuit General’s Spanish Armada in response to their prayers.

The following year of 1689 was a time of great rejoicing for:

“When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice:”

– Proverbs 29:2

Protestants William III and Mary of the United Netherlands – the model for George Washington’s United (Protestant) States of America (USA) – were given England’s throne by an act of Parliament. As the Dutch Fleet arrived in England carrying its precious Protestant King, the cheers of the crowds ascended to heaven as the eyes of English freemen beheld the words emblazoned on those mighty sails:

Further, a law was passed forbidding any Roman Catholic from ever governing England again. After shedding rivers of blood for over one hundred years, the English people finally put an end to the Jesuit-controlled House of Stuart and its Anti-Christian tyranny. This freedom would last for over one hundred years when, in 1773, the wicked King George III would secretly receive, protect and be advised by the Society of Jesus having been abolished by the Pope.

In response to the Lord's establishment of English liberty in 1689, Satan attempted to secretly undermine it. In 1717 his Jesuit Order revived the Order of the Knights Templars – those bloodthirsty Crusaders – calling it “Freemasonry”. Its purpose was to reestablish English tyranny, restoring the Roman Catholic Stuarts as “divine right Monarchs” subject to the Temporal Power of the Pope. Later in 1754, the Jesuits created Scottish Rite Freemasonry and in 1786 with their Protector, Frederick the Great, centralized all Masonic power with the creation of Shriner Freemasonry. From 1789 to 1815 the Jesuits used this “warhorse” to punish the Roman Catholic Monarchs of Europe, including the Pope, for suppressing the Jesuit Order in 1773.

Since the Congress of Vienna in 1815, Satan's Jesuit General has used Shriner Freemasonry for three purposes. Being keys of understanding, they are:

1. To maintain the Order's death grip over the Pope, the College of Cardinals and thus the Papacy;
2. To destroy the Protestant Reformation while restoring and maintaining the Temporal Power of the Order's “infallible” Pope over every nation;
3. To gain possession of Jerusalem in order to rebuild Solomon's Temple, for the Pope, after which every Masonic Lodge is patterned.

Years later the Jesuits, using Shriner Freemasonry, would begin a powerful cult in George Washington's Calvinistic Republic of the United States. The new brotherhood would be called “The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints” — Mormonism! Being another salvation-by-works religion (like Roman Catholicism), its founder, Joseph Smith, was a high-level Freemason. His successor, Brigham Young, was also another high Freemason. According to the book Blackrobe, Brigham Young was an intimate friend of Peter De Smet, one of the most powerful American Jesuits of the Nineteenth Century. Being the foremost Jesuit influence among the Indian Nations, De Smet, using Confederate General and Shriner Freemason Albert Pike, incited his Sioux Indians to mass murder seven hundred White Lutherans of Minnesota (Northerners) while having procured the exemption of Jesuits from the draft during America's bloodbath, erroneously called “the Civil War”. De Smet personally visited Young on his settlement in the West, furthering “the Mormon agitation”. For the Mormon leaders sought to create their own nation, and thus were considered so dangerous to our Union by President Abraham Lincoln.

Knowing that whatever enterprise the Jesuit Order is involved in, it was either secretly controlled by the Brotherhood from the beginning or its leadership was later subverted, we must ask the question,

“What service does the multi-million dollar, Masonically controlled, Mormon headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah provide for the Jesuit General and his high command?”

Dear truth-seeker, that service is the genealogical record keeping so accurately maintained by the Mormon hierarchy. And for what purpose? The practical, non-religious answer can only be to keep track of the world's Jews enabling the Jesuit General, using his fascist military dictators, to locate, arrest, imprison and murder the physical descendants of the sons of Jacob having yet to inherit the promises given to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and David. The coming international Jewish persecution will be especially bloody inside the world's greatest haven for the wandering Jews — Fourteenth Amendment America. And the Mormon Prophet will aid the Jesuit General in this annihilation! The survivors will flee to Zionist Israel to ultimately face the horrifying and ghastly

– Daniel 7:20

A quote from the past is most appropriate for today:

"It is very greatly to be feared that forgetting their petty differences for the time being, both Romanism and Freemasonry would make common cause and stand shoulder to shoulder, the very embodiment of the works of darkness...as two such terrible systems united would be well-nigh irresistible." <sup>9</sup>

Dear truth-seeker, these united systems are resistible. If you have turned from your sin upon believing the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, you have been saved and indwelt by the Holy Spirit. He is THE POWER "which worketh in you mightily"! If you "yield yourself" and do not "quench" Him, "grieve" Him or "insult" Him through acts of personal sin and disobedience, His POWER will flow through you and He will do "what seemeth good to him." "Be of good courage", sincerely calling upon God your Father "out of a pure heart" in Jesus' name, as you now have access to His "throne of grace" through "the blood of Christ" in this great time of need for our families, country and community of nations. He will joyously answer your prayers without regard to your race or nationality; as, "it is God who hath made us" and "is no respecter of persons". With all of your might and in all your ways "acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths" as you resist Satan's "Society of Jesus" (Oh, what blasphemy!) and its greatest tool, Shriner Freemasonry (Oh, what deception!), lest we consumed by an American, Anti-Christ, White Roman Catholic, homosexual-led, Neo-Nazi fascist tyranny (having been purposed against us by the Jesuit General and his Archbishop of New York), before the Lord comes for His Bible-believing Church! May you have confidence in the day of His appearing when, in that memorial moment having been "valiant for the truth in the earth", your eyes meet His and you hear similar inspiring words,

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

The purpose of the Society of Jesus was to use France, then under the complete control of King Louis XIV's confessor, Pere La Chaise, to conquer North America for its Papal Caesar in Rome. Native American Indians were to be enslaved on reservations modeled after the Order's commercial, South American Reductions.

A Radical Red Republican and friend of both General Sherman, whose son became a Jesuit, and Roman Catholic General Sheridan, De Smet was the foremost peace negotiator for the Order's new government in Washington. Sadly in 1868, Chief Sitting Bull of the Sioux, the "Generalissimo" of the hostile chiefs, trusted this evil White man who "kept no faith with heretics, liberals or pagans." The treaties were violated; the natives were betrayed, massacred and consigned to reservations to make jewelry. For the Black Pope's new "Holy Roman" American Empire had no place for the conquered White Protestants of the South or the American Indians.

Suppressed by Europe's Roman Catholic Kings and the Pope

“When you are compelled by force to yield in laying aside the clothing which our holy Father Ignatius required to be worn, you can still inwardly, in your hearts, remain steadfastly united to his institution, and await a more propitious time when you can again adopt it openly; only take care to draw the bonds uniting you to one another more closely together, and recollect that no human power [including the Pope] can release you from your vows.”<sup>1</sup> [Emphasis added]

for reform

“...the Jesuits are the only religious order in the Church of Rome...which has lain under the ban of the Pope, or which has been expelled from any country because of its interference in politics. Hence we may expect to find that to obtain political power forms a main feature in the plans of the Society.”<sup>3</sup>

The Black Pope

“...the Jesuit Order at last reached the pinnacle of its power and prestige in the early eighteenth century. It had become more influential and more wealthy than any other organization in the world. It held a position in world affairs that no oath-bound group of men has ever held before or since...‘nearly all the Kings and Sovereigns of Europe had only Jesuits as directors of their consciences, so that the whole of Europe appeared to be governed by Jesuits only.’”<sup>4</sup>

“Alas! I knew they would poison me; but I did not expect to die in so slow and cruel a manner.”<sup>5</sup>

Pope Clement XIV, 1774
Abolished the Society of Jesus with a Papal Bull

By 1750, the Society of Jesus was composed of the most powerful group of men in the world. They were the confessors of nearly every king in Europe including the Pope. The Jesuit General knew the affairs of every nation and his soldiers were making millions of dollars for the Order. The Reductions produced herbs, hides, tallow, clocks and other goods, which the Jesuits traded in Europe with their huge fleet of ships. The profits were used to finance wars against the Protestant nations they had sworn to destroy. But all this wealth and power was acquired in secret, as the kings of Portugal and Spain knew nothing about the Reductions.

Therefore, upon the discovery of the Reductions, the most powerful Roman Catholic kings of Europe expelled the Jesuits from their dominions. First was King Joseph I of Portugal in 1759 with the help of his great Prime Minister, Cavalho.

The king's banishment of the Jesuits reads:

“...in order to protect my royal honour, which is equally the life and soul of the whole monarchy; in order to maintain uninjured my independence as sovereign and ruler; in order to remove from the midst of my dominions such extraordinary and great vexation, and to shield my subjects from similar frightful occurrences with their sad results, I declare the so-called ecclesiastics – the Jesuits, namely – to be thoroughly corrupt, and to have receded from the rules of their Holy Order, and from deeply-rooted depravity to have become completely incapable of ever again learning to observe them; I declare them to be notorious rebels, traitors, enemies, and disturbers of the peace, who have opposed, and will again oppose, my royal person and Government, the public peace of my kingdom, and the general welfare of my subjects, and, therefore order that each and every one of them may be looked upon as rebels and traitors, and treated as such. On the strength of this I declare them to be denaturalized, exiled, outlawed, and banished, and decree that they shall be expelled from all my kingdoms and lordships, without ever again, at any time, being allowed to return.”<sup>6</sup> [Emphasis added]

Thompson concludes:

“In Portugal the culminating point was reached by an attempt to assassinate the king...the deed had been incited by the Jesuits, who had impressed ignorant and fanatical minds with the idea that no wrong was committed by killing a heretical king; that is one who did not submit to their dictation...Hence, as a measure absolutely essential to the life of the nation, the king issued a decree of banishment against the Jesuits as traitors, rebels, enemies to, and aggressors on, his person, his States, and the public peace and the general good of the people. The Jesuits were then seized, transported to the States of the Church [Italy] under the jurisdiction of Clement XIII, and the three accused fathers were placed in prison to await his action...The chief one of these was turned over to the Dominicans – ‘the natural enemies of the Jesuits’ – by whom he was burned alive...”<sup>7</sup> [Emphasis added]

Little did the King and the Dominicans know they would pay dearly for this as Napoleon the Freemason would drive the Portuguese King from his throne while making war on the Dominicans and their Holy Office of the Inquisition.

The second expulsion was by the Bourbon King of France in 1762. Of Louis XV and the Parliament’s decree we read:

“Whereupon, the investigation into the constitution and statutes of the society (of Jesuits)...resulted in the enactment of a Parliamentary decree which shows the odium then attached to the society in France. It denounced their doctrines and practices ‘as perverse, destructive of every principle of religion, and even of probity; as injurious to morality, pernicious to civil society, seditious, dangerous to rights of the persons of sovereigns; as fit to excite the greatest troubles in States, to form and maintain the most profound corruption in the hearts of men.’

[And finally,]

‘...that the institutions of the Jesuits should forever cease to exist throughout the whole extent of the kingdom.’”<sup>8</sup>

Little did the King know his dynasty would also pay dearly for this, as his grandson, Louis XVI along with his Hapsburg queen and little son called “the Dauphin”, would be cruelly murdered by the fanatical Jacobins under Jesuit control.

The third sovereign to expel the Jesuits was Charles III, the King of Spain, in 1767. He had read the Jesuit handbook, Secret Instructions of the Jesuits known as Secreta Monita (scanned onto a CD and enclosed herein). His confessor was a Franciscan – a confirmed enemy of the Jesuits – and none of the Company were advisors in his Court. Of his renown we read:

“His greatest work, the expulsion of the Jesuits, would never have been carried out if he had not been persuaded of its political necessity. The order had already been driven out by Pombal from Portugal and by Choiseul from France, when Charles III was convinced that a riot in Madrid...had been promoted by the Jesuits [Lopez, Benavente and Gonzalez]...”<sup>9</sup>

And why did the Jesuits incite a riot against the king?

“...this revolt...this Jesuitical high treason...was got up...for...the deposition of the king himself...the Monarch, who had been from the first opposed to the Order.”<sup>10</sup>

Having purposed to expel the Company, the king and his counselor, Count Aranda, moved secretly and decisively. What a movie this would make!

“All the superior Spanish officials in the whole Spanish monarchy, as well as all the military commandants in the towns in which there existed Jesuitical colleges, residencies, or houses of other description, at once received packets, the contents of which were precisely the same, and provided with the King’s seal; the contents thereof were extremely mysterious, as, upon the packet being opened, another was found provided with three seals, together with an open note, in which the following words were to be read:

‘On pain of death you shall not open the document provided with three seals, previous to the 2nd of April, at the hour of sunset, and the same punishment will await you, if anyone, be he whom he may, discloses his having received a secret writing.’

Precisely similar instructions were forwarded to all the prefects, governors, and commandants, in different colonies of Asia and America... One may well imagine the anxiety that existed among those officials and commandants on their receiving this remarkable document, and not the less may it be supposed, how difficult it was for them to restrain their anxiety; but they all did so, without a single exception, and the secret remained inviolate up till the 2nd of April. As soon, however, as the sun went down on that day, all these secret packets were opened at the same time, and what was now their astonishment when the matter in question became known to them! Among things, the document ran as follows:

‘I convey to you herewith all my authority and Royal power; as soon as you have opened this document you will at once summon all the troops, and, accompanied by them, you will immediately betake yourself to the house or college of the Jesuits. Having arrived there, you shall place a sentinel at the door; you shall awaken all the members of the Society, one with another, out of their sleep, and arrest them. Thereupon you shall seal, with the Royal seal, the archives and magazines, take the whole books and papers which may be found there into safe keeping, and intimate to the Jesuits that they must follow you without daring to take anything away with them except their prayer-books, mantels, and hats, and whatever linen may be required for a long journey. As soon as you have requisitioned a sufficient number of carriages, you shall place the Jesuits therein and convey them to the seaport I here point out to you. There, ships shall be already in waiting to transport the Fathers to their destination, as soon as you have delivered over your prisoners to the captains, your responsibility shall be at an end. But this, however, I must tell you, that after the embarkation of the Fathers, if a single one of the Society – the sick not even exempted – be found in your department or province, you shall atone for this by death. Yo el Rey, that is, I, the King.’

Thus ran the order which the governors and superior officials received from the Government, and that they strictly carried out the same may be well understood. In this manner were the whole of the sons of Loyola, throughout all Spain, numbering about six thousand, arrested at the same hour, that is, about midnight on the 2nd April 1767, and a few days afterward they all found themselves, without exception, on the ships already prepared for them. It was a master-stroke, the like of which had never been seen, and the whole of Christendom were so astonished thereat that it could not for a long time recover itself.”<sup>11</sup>

The fourth sovereign to expel the Jesuits from his dominion was the Roman Catholic Crusader for the Pope, the Grand Master of the Knights of Malta, Fra Manuel Pinto de Fonseca. Driven from the island of Malta in 1768 we discover:

“In 1768 the Jesuits, having given much trouble, were expelled and their property confiscated.”<sup>12</sup>

Little did the Knights know that they would pay dearly for this; as, the Jesuits would use Napoleon to confiscate all their landed property in France, invade Malta, plunder their weapons and treasures, and drive the Knights to an alien existence at the Court of Tzar Paul I of Russia.

(Dear truth-seeker, our lesson is we must never be blinded by the terms “Protestant”, “Roman Catholic”, “Moslem” or “Orthodox” when seeking to understand conflicts between nations for the last five hundred years – between patriotic, non-aggressive, nationalists opposing treasonous, imperialistic internationalists – between the Son of God with His Biblical Protestant-Baptist-Calvinist Reformation opposing Satan with his Tridentine (Council of Trent) Jesuitical Counter-Reformation. Knowing that the solution to any problem always lies in asking the right question, we must unceasingly ask, “Where are the Jesuits and their Shriner Freemasons in this picture?” And in answering the questions, “Who benefits?” and “Who suffers?”, the smoke will clear and all will become naked before our eyes.)

With the return of the Jesuits to Italy, Thompson quotes the Roman Catholic Cormenin in his History of the Popes of Rome,

“...the soil of Italy was polluted by this unclean slime which the nations had rejected, and which they had sent back to Rome, the fountain of all corruption.”<sup>13</sup>

With the Jesuits expelled from all of South America and from the mightiest Roman Catholic nations on the continent, Europe's kings demanded that the Pope abolish the Company. When Pope Clement XIII was about to do it he was poisoned the night before:

"During the night preceding the day appointed for the public ceremony of announcing the abolition of the Jesuits, Clement XIII was suddenly seized with convulsions [like Cromwell's daughter], and died, leaving the act unperformed, and the Jesuits victorious. Cermenin...records this event in the terse and expressive words: 'The Jesuits had poisoned him.'" <sup>14</sup>

However, after a four-year investigation, his successor, Pope Clement XIV did sign a Bull of Suppression in 1773 "under the seal of the fisherman", part of which reads:

"...that the name of the company shall be, and is forever extinguished and suppressed; that 'no one of them do carry their audacity so far as to impugn, combat, or even write or speak about the said suppression, or the reasons and motives of it;' and that the said bull of suppression and abolition shall 'forever and to all eternity be valid, permanent, and efficacious.'" <sup>15</sup>

One of our heroes, Emmett McLoughlin, sheds further light on the power of "the Company" and the Pope's suppression of so dastardly an Order. He writes:

"The Jesuits have always been known to all other priests as the most treacherous, single-minded and supranational of all Roman Catholic orders. This is the basic reason why in country after country, their treachery, ambition and systematic consuming greed have resulted in their suppression and expulsion from every country in Europe, and all the Catholic-dominated countries of America. From the days of Henry VIII and Elizabeth I, the English ferreted them out and hanged them. The Jesuits, Fr. Garnett, Fr. Gerard and Fr. Greenway, were involved even in the Gunpowder Plot of 1605 which was planned to blow up Parliament and destroy British royalty.

[If the Jesuits sought to blow up the English Parliament for expelling them from England, would not the Jesuits, with their Nazi SS, burn the German Parliament for expelling them from Germany in 1872?]

Even their own Catholic countries finally became surfeited with Jesuit political intrigue and financial avarice and, in self-preservation, were forced to expel them. Portugal, Angola, Goa and Brazil took the lead in 1759. France followed in 1764. Several Italian states as Parma, Sicily and Naples followed suit. By sealed imperial orders sent to her colonies around the world, Spain threw out all Jesuits in 1767. This decree suppressed them in the Philippines, Argentina, New Granada (Columbia), Peru, Chili, Ecuador, Guatemala, Cuba, Puerto Rico, Mexico, New Mexico and Arizona. Austria did the same in 1773.

Finally, Pope Clement XIV in 1773 issued the document 'Dominus ac Redemptor' abolishing the Jesuit Order altogether, listed eleven Popes as having tried to curb their excesses. Among them were Benedict XIV, Innocent XI, Innocent XIII and Clement XIII. He cited the Jesuits for opposition to 'other religious orders,' for 'revolts and intestine troubles in some of the Catholic states' and 'persecutions against the church in Europe and Asia.' 'There remained no other remedy to so great evils...and this step was necessary in order to prevent the Christians from rising one against the other and from massacring each other in the very bosom of our common mother, the holy church.'

[Therefore, the Papal Caesar concluded,]

'...after a mature deliberation, we do out of our certain knowledge and the fullness of our apostolic power, suppress and abolish the said Company.'" <sup>16</sup>

Upon signing the Bull of Suppression in the early hours of the morning (half past one), the Pope was reported to have said,

"The suppression is accomplished, I do not repent of it, having only resolved on it after examining and weighing everything, and because I thought it necessary for the church. If it were not done, I would do it now. But THIS SUPPRESSION WILL BE MY DEATH." <sup>17</sup>

Further:

"We can well believe with what a terrible sense of responsibility the Pope signed this document..."

And he had but too good reasons for personal fear. He had done and dared what none of his predecessors would have attempted; he knew the penalty and paid for it...

The signature was made on July 23rd, 1773. On September 27th, 1774, he died.”<sup>18</sup>

Indeed, the Pope knew the Jesuits well. Eight months later he was slow poisoned with the dreaded “aquetta” as it does not at once prove fatal, but, according to the dose, it may be predicted beforehand at what time the victim must die.

And how was the Pope poisoned?

“...a peasant woman was persuaded, by means of a disguise, to procure entrance into the Vatican, and offer to the Pope a fig in which poison was concealed. Clement XIV was exceedingly fond of this fruit, and ate it without hesitation. The same day the first symptoms of severe illness were observed, and to these, rapidly succeeded violent inflammation of the bowels. He soon became convinced that he was poisoned, and remarked: ‘Alas! I knew they would poison me; but I did not expect to die in so slow and cruel a manner.’ His terrible sufferings continued for several months, when he died, ‘the poor victim,’ said Cormenin, ‘of the execrable Jesuits.’ ”<sup>19</sup> [Emphasis added]

There is no doubt Pope Clement XIV, after lingering six long months, had been poisoned, evidenced by his autopsy. Of this ghastly scene we see:

“...on the day following the death, the 23rd of September, the process of embalming the body was commenced. The face then presented a leaden colour, while the lips and nails had become quite black. Ash coloured strips showed themselves too, under the skin, on the arms, sides, thighs, and feet, and on other parts of the body blue spots appeared, as if from coagulation of the blood. The body was opened in order to remove the intestines, which was effected with considerable difficulty, while the whole presented the appearance as if eaten up with something resembling cancer. They were immediately placed in an especially well-closed vessel as the odour was most offensive, while the examination was proceeded with. Not an hour, however, had elapsed before the vessel burst with a loud explosion, and the gases issuing from the intestines produced so frightful a stench that it was impossible any longer to remain in the chamber, and the embalming process had to be discontinued for that day.

On the following day, the 24th, when they came again, it was found that decomposition had made rapid process, such as never occurs in ordinary cases, but alone in those of poisoning, the face and hands having become quite black, while on the skin appeared thick blisters filled with a noisome lymph, and when these were cut or pressed an odour was emitted entirely similar to that coming from the intestines, and it was, indeed, necessary to avoid coming near the body as much as possible. But this was still not the least difficulty in carrying out the embalment, as the skin had become detached from almost the whole body of the deceased, as in the case of a putrid carcass. Indeed, the nails came off, and the hair remained on the pillows on which the head rested. Under such circumstances embalment was, of course, quite out of the question, and it became necessary to hasten to place the body quickly into a coffin before the limbs became entirely separated; and the Roman people had, for this time, to forego the spectacle of the exhibition of a Papal corpse in full Pontifical robes...

[The] question was who had poisoned him? The people of Rome quickly gave an answer, and exclaimed as from one throat, ‘This the Jesuits have done.’...the Order of Jesus had perpetrated an act of revenge; and that it was not contrary to their morals that such an act might be accomplished by poison or dagger...”<sup>20</sup>

With this Thompson agrees:

“...that it was not criminal but rather the proper service of God, to assassinate their enemies.”<sup>21</sup>

Over two hundred years later, the Jesuits, using their Shriner Freemasons, would poison another Pope who had become their enemy. After only thirty-three days in office Pope John Paul I lay dead in his bedroom.

“The Pope’s lips, were pulled backwards and upwards, his gums exposed, giving him a most horrific grimace. But then, what horrified her [the nun] even more, was, that both his eyes, seemed about to be shooting out of their sockets...”

Cardinal Villot...announced with the utmost detachment, that, yes, the Pope was truly dead.”<sup>22</sup>

And why?

"...John Paul, had said that, the following morning he was going to read personally to Father Arrupe, the Jesuit General, a document which he had written himself. Although he did not reveal its nature, his companions guessed, it had something to do with Liberation Theology...the Jesuits, behind the whole movement of Liberation Theology, were supporting ever more openly, Communist guerrillas. Some of these movements, indeed, were even led by the Jesuit padres...Father Arrupe, their General, who had been in contact with Moscow [under Jesuit control since 1917], had become a ruling Pope himself, with a private army of his own...

Pope John Paul became perturbed about the whole problem...The new Pope, decided to start dealing with Father Arrupe. Perhaps with Father Arrupe's dismissal."<sup>23</sup> [Emphasis added]

And two key players in the assassination of Pope John Paul I were Cardinal Villot, the Papal Secretary of State and Bishop Marcinkus of the Vatican Bank. Both of these men were Freemasons. We read:

"Now, along with top politicians, journalists, pundits, and others with a need to know first, the pope read about what L'Osservatore Politics OP called 'The Great Vatican Lodge.' The article gave names of 121 people who were alleged to be members of Masonic lodges...If the information was authentic, then it meant Luciano [Pope John Paul I] was virtually surrounded by Masons...The Secretary of State, Cardinal Villot, Masonic name Jeanni...Bishop Paul Marcinkus...of the Vatican Bank. The disconcerted pope read a list that seemed like a Who's Who of Vatican City."<sup>24</sup> [Emphasis added]

By virtue of their high positions of power in Vatican City and being members of the P2 Masonic Lodge, priests Villot and Marcinkus were obedient tools of Pedro Arrupe, the Jesuit General.

Dear truth-seeker, in addition to Popes, the Jesuit General using his many soldiers has imprisoned or killed scores of liberal-minded priests within the Roman hierarchy and priesthood who dared to resist his absolutism. This policy further entrenched the power of his "infallible" Papal Roman Caesar and of his fascist dictators. We read:

"...the Hitler regime in the beginning interned Catholic priests in concentration camps because they refused to obey his dictates...Persecution of the Catholic Church in Germany has been directed only against those elements which did not entirely submit to the ever-increasing centralization of authority in Church and State. To this end the Vatican helped crush out the Catholic popular parties both in Italy and Germany and centralized all political matters in Rome. This insured to the dictators freedom from popular interference on the part of Catholics; it established a more complete dictatorial regime within the Catholic Church itself; it enabled the Vatican to enter into secret concordats with fascist countries already existing, and with democratic countries, like Spain, France, Belgium, and Portugal, after the destruction of their democratic governments by revolution and blitzkrieg. Finally it left the way clear for complete harmony and unity between Nazi-Fascism and Jesuit Catholicism...

With the extinction of liberal Catholicism and the imprisonment of liberal Protestant leaders, Vatican absolutism was triumphant. Of supreme satisfaction to the Jesuit Catholic faction was the dissolution of Protestantism [with the help of Jesuit General Ledochowski's Grand Inquisitor, the Jesuit-trained Joseph Stalin, and his Red Army] in Germany."<sup>25</sup> [Emphasis added]

If the Jesuits, in assassinating their enemies, would kill Popes, Cardinals, Bishops and Priests, would they not kill a Roman Catholic American President if they thought it essential to the fulfillment of their imperial plans, while imposing their evil Council of Trent on us trusting and naive Americans?

Pope Clement XIV, 1769 – 1774

After a four-year investigation and pressured by the Roman Catholic Monarchs of Europe, this brave Pope suppressed the Society of Jesus with a Papal Bull on July 21, 1773. He knew the signing of the Bull would be his death warrant. Fourteen months later he lay dead having been poisoned by those masters of murder; as, the Italians declared the Pope's death to be a work of the Jesuits in obedience to their god, the Black Pope.

The Jesuit Enigma, Boyd Barrett, (New York: Boni and Liveright, 1927).

Pope John Paul I, 1978

After only thirty-three days in occupying St. Peter's Chair, this brave Papal Caesar was poisoned by the Masonic agents of the Jesuits within Caesar's Palace, the Vatican. Found dead one morning by a nun, no autopsy was ever performed and no official death certificate has ever been issued. His fatal error was in attempting to formally relieve Pedro Arrupe of his command as the Superior General of the Society of Jesus. He should have learned his lesson from Pope Clement XIV.

History of the Jesuits

We shall pause for a moment of reflection, dear truth-seeker. You have finished your First Block of Jesuit history as it relates to the Kennedy Assassination. There are three more to go.

Having an understanding of the Order's first two hundred and thirty-three years of existence, you now know the true course of European history. It was the Reformation versus the Counter-Reformation; the teachings of the Bible as preached by Luther and Calvin versus the teachings of the evil Council of Trent as championed by the Sons of Ignatius Loyola.

Our low-level, ex-Irish Catholic Priest, Leo Lehmann, adds:

“Space permits only a very brief summary of the counter-Reformation activities of Jesuit Catholicism which led to the rise and present successes of Nazi-Fascism against the liberalizing effects of the Protestant Reformation. The Thirty Years’ War, the murderous reign of the Duke of Alva in the Netherlands, the massacre of St. Bartholomew and the bloody attempts at Catholic restoration in England, are visible, and terrifying examples of the anti-Protestant activities of the Jesuit Order in the past.”<sup>3</sup> [Emphasis added]

In addition to the Council of Trent, Den’s Theologia, as taught to the Irish priests in 1826 at a Roman Catholic Seminary in Maynooth, Ireland, declared:

- “Prop. 1. Protestants are heretics, and as such are worse than Jews, and pagans.”
- Prop. 2. That they are by baptism, and by blood, under the power of the Roman Catholic church.
- Prop. 3. That heretics (Protestants) are subject to the Roman Catholic church.
- Prop. 4. So far from granting toleration to Protestants, it is the duty of the church, to exterminate the rites of their religion.”
- Prop. 5. That it is the duty of the Roman Catholic church to compel heretics, by corporal punishment, to submit to her faith.
- Prop. 6. That the punishments decreed by the Roman Catholic church, are confiscation of goods, exile, imprisonment, and death.”<sup>4</sup> [Emphasis added]

And to what end did these unbiblical, tyrannical and heretical doctrines so insanely serve? In 1550 Pope Julius III declared his claim to universal Temporal (political) Power evidenced by a new coin he issued, its motto having read:

“The nation and kingdom that will not serve me shall perish!”<sup>5</sup>

This claim of the Papal Caesar was and is a perversion of a passage of Holy Writ referring to the Nation of Israel under the rule of her Messiah during His future universal reign, having established the kingdom promised to King David. We read:

“And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee [Israel]: for in my wrath I smote thee [Israel], but in my favour have I had mercy on thee [Israel]... For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee [Israel] shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.”

– Isaiah 60:10, 12

Dear truth-seeker, since you now understand our First Block of Jesuit history, you are now able to understand our Second Block of Jesuit history. It begins with the Order’s formal suppression by Pope Clement XIV in 1773 and ends with its formal reestablishment by Pope Pius VII in 1814 — a total of forty-one years. These forty-one years were absolutely golden for the Society of Jesus. For the Sons of Loyola punished all their enemies including the Dominican priests, perfected the inner workings between themselves and Freemasonry, created an alliance between the House of Rothschild in establishing the Illuminati, punished and then absorbed the Knights of Malta just like the “Borg” of Star Trek. They used the Orthodox Catherine of Russia and the Lutheran Frederick of Prussia to conquer and divide Poland, rendering the Pope’s Bull of Suppression of no effect in that Roman Catholic land. They caused the French Revolution, beheading a Bourbon King and a Hapsburg Queen as punishment for being expelled from France and Austria. With Napoleon the Freemason they drove the Bourbons from their throne in Spain and the Braganzas from their throne in Portugal. They even attempted to take Palestine from the Moslems like the Crusaders of old.

The Company’s most important victories were both religious and political. They deeply penetrated the Russian Orthodox Church and Germany’s Lutheran Church, its Tubingen University specifically. Politically, they took control of the Crown and Bank of England. For this reason England, with Viscount Palmerston, would never go to war with France again, it would conduct the Pope’s Opium Wars against the people of China (just like the Company, with its CIA and Mafia Commission, is presently conducting a massive Drug Trade against the “heretic and liberal” people of the American Empire) governed by the Order’s enemy — the Manchu Dynasty — and would refuse to help the Italian patriots in their warring with the armies of the Pope during the Italian Revolution of 1848. The Jesuits also captured the Papacy with the Vatican; along with its landed Church properties the world over, and for this reason the Papal Caesar, occupying Satan’s sacred Office of the Papacy, would never suppress the Society of Jesus, ever again!

Lorenzo Ricci

Eighteenth Superior General of the Society of Jesus

During the Order's Suppression from 1773 to 1814 by Pope Clement XIV, General Ricci created the Illuminati with his soldier, Adam Weishaupt, the Father of modern Communism, who, with his Jacobins, conducted the French Revolution. Years later Jesuit General Ledochowski, with his Bolsheviks, conducted the Russian Revolution in 1917, it being identical to the upheaval of 1789.

The Jesuits – 1773

Protected by Frederick the Great of Prussia and Catherine the Great of Russia

“All these things cause the Father-General to be feared by the Pope and the sovereigns...A sovereign who is not their friend will sooner or later experience their vengeance.”<sup>1</sup>

Luigi Desanctis, 1852
Official Censor of the Inquisition
Popery, Puseyism and Jesuitism

The Jesuit Order was now formally banned by the Pope's Bull of Suppression in 1773. The Bull was effective in countries where the Roman Catholic Church and State were united. In countries where another Church was united with the State, the Bull would not be enforced. Such was the case with Prussia and Russia.

Russia was governed by an absolute monarchy, headed by the Romanoffs. The Romanoff dynasty was the legal protector of the Russian Orthodox Church. Church and State were united. Since the Pope's Bull of Suppression would not be enforced in Russia, the Jesuits sought and received admittance and protection there. In spite of the fact that Peter the Great had expelled the Jesuits during his reign in 1719, Catherine the Great freely readmitted them once again in 1773.

Catherine believed the Order would protect her throne since she had murdered her husband to acquire it. She was German and a Lutheran, as well as a whore according to her son, Paul I; but as the Monarch of Russia she was the protector of the Orthodox Church. Little did she know the secret designs of the Order as it deeply penetrated the Orthodox priesthood and acquired such political power that Tzar Alexander I would expel it after the Congress of Vienna, in 1820.

The other absolute Monarch who gave protection to the Jesuit Order was Frederick the Great, King of Prussia. This heroic military leader of the Seven Years' War with its Protestant victory was the protector of the Lutheran Church in that country. Church and State were united. Therefore, the Pope's Bull of Suppression was not enforced in Lutheran Prussia...So the Jesuits, “the Pope's bodyguard”, sought and received protection from Frederick.

An important detail here is that Frederick was the most powerful Freemason in Europe, possessing the sovereign Masonic power over all “the Craft”. We read:

“...on the 1st of May, 1786, Frederick II, King of Prussia, caused the high degrees and Masonic Constitutions of the ancient Rite to be revived. He added eight degrees to the twenty-five [written by the Jesuits in France] already recognized in Prussia, and founded a Supreme Council of thirty-three degrees, of which he himself constructed the regulations in eighteen articles.”<sup>2</sup>

Could it be that the Jesuits aided Frederick in writing the additional eight degrees as well as establishing the Supreme Council of thirty-three degrees?

This is one of the major connections between Jesuitism and Shriner Freemasonry. For when the Jesuits would cause the Russian Revolution in 1917 they would institute communism. (Communism had been perfected on their Reductions in Paraguay from 1600 to 1750.) And the great day of celebration in Stalin's Russia and Hitler's Germany would be May 1st — the very day Frederick instituted Shriner Freemasonry. Of this union between Frederick and the Jesuits we read:

“The Jesuits flocked, therefore, to Silesia from all quarters, seeking his Protestant protection, which caused Voltaire to remark in his caustic style, that ‘it would divert him beyond measure to think of Frederick as the general of the Jesuits, and that he hoped this would inspire the Pope with the idea of becoming mufti.’ ”<sup>3</sup>

Little did Frederick know that Protestant Germany would pay dearly for this. The Jesuits would deeply penetrate the Lutheran clergy, attack the Bible of Luther's Germany with “higher criticism”, and overthrow Frederick's distant descendant, Kaiser Wilhelm II. The Jesuits would also bring Hitler to power and in their beloved Silesia (now Poland), would erect their Death Camps in which the Jews of Europe along with the Roman Catholic Roma (Gypsies, many of which were vagabond Jews by race) would be mass murdered. And when many were calling for the Americans to bomb Auschwitz, it was President Roosevelt — the Shriner Freemason — who prevented it with his tool and CFR member, John J. McCloy. And it was John J. McCloy along with two other Shriner Freemasons who were appointed to the Warren Commission. They were Gerald Ford and Supreme Court Chief Justice, Earl Warren.

As we all know, the Warren Commission covered up the Kennedy Assassination. But most Americans do not know that the Jesuits got away with murder — again — with the help of their Shriner Freemasons.

Frederick II "the Great", 1712 – 1786
King of Prussia
 1740 - 1786

Frederick II was the most powerful Freemason on the European Continent. Even though he was the Protector of the Lutheran Church, he treacherously admitted the Jesuits into his Protestant Empire. This is an undeniable link between high-level Shriner Freemasonry and the Professed Jesuits of the Fourth Vow. His dynasty would pay dearly for this however; as, his distant relative, Kaiser Wilhelm II, would be forced to resign by the Jesuits in 1918, using the very Grand Orient Freemasonry Frederick had used to import the French Revolution into France.

Catherine II "the Great", 1729 – 1796
Empress of Russia
 1762 - 1796

This German was the greatest disgrace ever to sit upon the throne of the Romanoffs. Having murdered her husband in usurping the power of the Empire, Catherine was openly called a "whore" by her son, Paul I. As the protector of the Orthodox Church, she treasonously admitted the Jesuits into Russia despite Peter the Great's expulsion of the Order in 1719. The Jesuits deeply penetrated Russia's state Church and Tsarist government, while they awaited the Order's ultimate restoration after the Black Pope had finished conducting his Napoleonic Wars pursuant to the Jesuit Oath.

Chapter 16

Allied with the Jewish House of Rothschild Creating the Bavarian Illuminati

“Von Hammer, in his History of the Assassins, a branch or development of the Illuminati, points out singular parallels between the teaching of Loyola and the Assassins. Nor can it be said that drawing attention to this parallelism is a mere Protestant prejudice, since the first charge was made by the priests of Alcala, and in the very life-time of the founder of the Jesuits.”<sup>1</sup> [Emphasis added]

M. F. Cusack, 1896

“[The Constitutions of the Jesuit Order] contain six impediments against reception into the Order, the first of which is Jewish descent up to the fourth generation...[Since 1593] General council of the order have many times proclaimed that Jewish descent must be considered as ‘an impurity, scandal, dishonor and infamy.’ Suarez, noted Jesuit theologian, also states that Jewish descent is an impurity of such indelible character that it is sufficient to prevent admission into the Order.”<sup>2</sup> [Emphasis added]

Alberto Rivera, 1979
Spanish Ex-Jesuit
Alberto

The Jesuits, now formally suppressed by the Pope, were allied with Frederick the Great of Prussia and Catherine of Russia. The Jesuit General was in control of Scottish Rite Freemasonry and now sought an alliance with the Masonic Baron of the House of Rothschild. To accomplish this he chose a Jesuit who was a German Gentile (not a Jew) by race and a Freemason by association — Adam Weishaupt.

“That Weishaupt was not the originator of the system he named ‘Illuminism’ will be already apparent to every reader of the present work...How did these Oriental methods penetrate to the Bavarian professor? According to certain writers, through the Jesuits. The fact that Weishaupt had been brought up by this Order has provided the enemies of the Jesuits with the argument that they were the secret inspirers of the Illuminati...That Weishaupt did, however, draw to a certain extent on Jesuit methods of training is recognized even by Barruel, himself a Jesuit [and the most influential historian of the French Revolution], who, quoting Mirabeau, says that Weishaupt, ‘admired above all those laws, that regime of the Jesuits, which, under one head [the Jesuit General], made men dispersed over the universe tend towards the same goal...’”<sup>4</sup> [Emphasis added]

Adam Weishaupt was also a brilliant instructor of Canon Law – the evil Council of Trent – at a Jesuit College in Bavaria. We read:

“From the Jesuit College at Ingolstadt is said to have issued the sect known as ‘the Illuminati of Bavaria’ founded by Adam Weishaupt; its nominal founder, however, seems to have played a subordinate though conspicuous role in the organization of this sect.”<sup>5</sup> [Emphasis added]

(Dear truth-seeker, Masonic Jews always play “a subordinate though conspicuous role” when used by the Jesuit General. Such was the case of the birth of the Illuminati with Rothschild (1776), the financing of the French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars with Rothschild (1789-1815), the creation of modern Communism with Marx (1848), the first head of the Federal Reserve Bank with Paul Warburg (1913) and presently, Alan Greenspan (2000), the creation of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) via the Bolshevik Revolution with Trotsky and Lenin (1917), the financing and building of the USSR with Jacob Schiff and Armand Hammer (1920-1980) and AIG’s Maurice Greenberg (2000), the birth of Zionist Israel with Herzl (1948), the cover-up of the Kennedy Assassination with the Warren Commission’s Arlen Specter and his “single bullet theory” (1964) and the continual high treason against the people of the American Empire by Henry Kissinger (1972 to the Present (2001)). These are high-level Masonic Jews who adhere to the evil Babylonian Talmud – the twin sister of the evil Council of Trent – and have betrayed their own Jewish Race contributing to the atrocities committed by the Jesuit Order including the Holocaust. These same Masonic Jewish Zionists will one day betray "the holy people" by making Jerusalem an international city and by entering into a treaty with the Papal Caesar,

"...the prince that shall come..."

– Daniel 9:26

May those elect Jews today in Israel awake to the good news of Jesus the Messiah before it is too late!

On May 1, 1776, the Order of the Illuminati was officially founded in the old Jesuit stronghold of Bavaria from which the Sons of Loyola had ignited the Thirty Years' War. The Company would now use the Jewish House of Rothschild to finance the French Revolution and the rise of Napoleon the Freemason with his Jesuit-trained advisor, Abbe Sieyes. In spite of the historical writings of the Jesuit Abbe Barruel, who blamed the Rothschilds and Freemasonry for the Revolution, it was the Society of Jesus that used these very tools to carry out the Revolution and punish the Monarchs who dared to expel the Sons of Loyola from their dominions. The Jesuits, having been expelled from the Spanish Empire, found refuge in Corsica. From there they raised up their great avenger, Napoleon Bonaparte.

In the early forties, during World War II – nearing the end of the Second Thirty Years' War – the Jesuits would again use their Rothschild Illuminati and Shriner Freemasonry to punish two nations having dared to expel the Order from their borders. In conjunction with the Rothschilds of England, they would use their "Federal Reserve Bank" to finance the building of a huge aerial war machine. The B-17s and B-29s would be used to destroy these nations which, after the war, would be rebuilt according to the religious and commercial blueprints of the Jesuit Order.

In carrying out the plan of destroying these two nations, the Jesuits would again use Shriner Freemasonry. Their tools were General Douglas MacArthur in the firebombing of Japan and General Dwight Eisenhower in the annihilation of Germany. For Japan had expelled the Jesuits for over two hundred and fifty years and Germany had banished them for forty-five years.

Indeed, these paybacks were previews of Hell – an atomic and firebombing hell – carried out by the agents of the Engineer Corps of Hell — the Blackrobes of Ignatius Loyola.

Jesuit Adam Weishaupt, 1748 – 1811
Founder of the Illuminati, 1776

Born at Ingolstadt, Germany, in the heart of Roman Catholic Bavaria from which originated the Order's Thirty Years' War (1618-1648), Weishaupt was educated by the Jesuits; in 1775 he became a professor of the Vatican's murderous Canon Law, the evil Council of Trent. Since the Pope's Bull of Suppression was not enforced in Lutheran Germany, the Order flourished; as, Weishaupt established the Illuminati in 1776 and joined the Grand Orient Masonic Lodge in 1777. He united the magnificent financial empire of the Masonic Jewish House of Rothschild with the opulence of the international and secret, anti-Jewish Race, Gentile Society of Jesus.

George Washington, 1798
First and Greatest President of the United [Protestant]
States of America

As a result of Pope Clement's Bull of Suppression, the Jesuits sought refuge in non-Roman Catholic countries. One of the countries in which they secretly received protection was Protestant England. Although the Jesuits had been expelled and Parliament (thanks to the Glorious Revolution in 1688) had passed a law forbidding any Roman Catholic to sit on England's throne, the Jesuits persisted in their plot to conquer that nation. Knowing if they could control the English King, even though he was a Protestant and the protector of the Anglican Church, they could control the vast British Empire. Then, that Empire, with the world's greatest navy, could be used to suppress Protestant liberty, both political and religious. Such was the case during America's War for Independence.

According to Bancroft's History of the United States, America's thirteen colonies had been settled by White European Protestants — including Maryland. At the time of the Revolution, of the three million inhabitants, ninety-seven percent were Protestants and Baptists, the rest being Roman Catholics and Jews. And what drove these displaced European Protestants to a wild and unsettled land? It was the relentless and ferocious persecutions and wars having drenched Europe in Protestant and Baptist blood for over two hundred years. And as we have seen in our previous chapters these all were incited by the Jesuit Order! Bancroft writes:

“For more than two centuries the humbler Protestant sects had sent up the cry to heaven for freedom to worship God. To the panting for this freedom half the American states owed their existence...The immense majority of the inhabitants of the thirteen colonies were Protestant dissenters...”

The establishment of liberty of conscience, which brought with it liberty of speech and of the press, was, in the several states, the fruit not of philosophy, but of the love of Protestantism for the open (Bible)...”<sup>7</sup>

(Dear truth-seeker, the Jesuits knew this. Do you think for one minute they would allow the establishment of a Protestant nation, founded upon The Authorized King James Version of 1611, and the creation of a new form of Protestant constitutional government limiting the powers of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial branches through an express grant of powers ratified by thirteen sovereign States? Do you think for one minute the Jesuits would permit delegated powers of the federal government to be limited by a Calvinist document called “The Bill of Rights” written by the Baptist James Madison at the insistence of Virginia's greatest Baptist preacher, John Leland? In light of the Council of Trent and the Jesuit Oath the answer is absolutely not! Remember, the Jesuits hated the Dutch Republic of William of Orange and the English Commonwealth of Oliver Cromwell. They would also come to hate the Federal Republic of these United States of George Washington.)

Now, the Jesuit Order had a war on two fronts. In the Providence of the Son of God, the American Revolution erupted in 1775 — the same year Jesuit General Ricci died in the state prison of Castel St. Angelo, Italy. Therefore, the Order had to punish Europe's Roman Catholic Monarchs and the Pope for its suppression as well as imprison Pius VII as payback for the death of its General. It also had to prevent the establishment of another Protestant “heretic and liberal” nation.

To effect these ends the Jesuits sought control of the English throne. From there they could oppress the Protestant Colonies and prevent a successful revolution. From there the Jesuits could use England as a controlled enemy of Napoleon while he executed vengeance for the Order. Therefore, the General of the Jesuits sought protection for his army of Jesuits from King George III. We read:

“Clutching at straws [Jesuit General] Ricci had been heartened when King George III's brother, the Duke of Gloucester, lunched with him and hinted at English support.”<sup>8</sup>

The Order received more than support. It was given all it needed, to survive and prosper, from George III. This wicked king also reestablished the English branch of the Knights of Malta in 1782, it having been banished from the Empire for over two hundred years. In 1795, Stonyhurst, one of England's most beautiful landed estates, was donated to the Company by an English lord, Thomas Weld. In exchange for the King's protection, the Jesuits have never overturned but rather protected the British Crown, London having become the center of the world's commerce.

Once in the Court of King George III the strategy of the Jesuits became the foreign policy of England. They would use England's military to plunder the American colonies and fiercely persecute its Protestants, burning many of them alive in their churches. But these Protestants were Calvinists with a history of resistance to Jesuit tyranny. We read of these men who did not hesitate to pit their convictions against the power of the state, the princes and dictatorships:

“It was Calvinism which formed the hosts who resisted and overcame the worldly dictatorships of France, the Netherlands, and Great Britain. It was Calvinism which broke the chains in which the spiritual dictatorship of Rome and the Jesuits sought to enslave western Europe. To be an ‘elect of the Lord’ was not a mere theological phrase with which the Inquisition had to reckon, but a political fact, a thousand times tested on the battlegrounds of freedom.”<sup>9</sup>

What was that something in their creed that made them what they were — the only fighting Protestants? The answer is found in our second question: Why were these men able to resist the Jesuits? Indeed, it was their creed, what they believed about God, man, themselves and the Pope, that enabled them to repel the armies of Rome. We read in their Westminster Confession of Faith of 1658 concerning what the Calvinists believed about God:

“There is but one only, living and true God, who is infinite in being and perfection, a most pure spirit, invisible, without body, parts, or passions, immutable, immense, eternal, incomprehensible, almighty, most wise, most holy, most free, most absolute, working all things according to the counsel of his own immutable and most righteous will, for his own glory; most loving, gracious, merciful, long-suffering abundant in goodness and truth, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin; the rewarder of them that diligently seek him; and withal most just and terrible in his judgments; hating all sin, and will by no means clear the guilty.

II. God hath all life, glory, goodness, blessedness, in and of himself; and is alone in and unto himself all-sufficient, not standing in need of any creatures which he hath made, not deriving any glory from them, but only manifesting his own glory, in, by, unto, and upon them: he is alone the foundation of all being, of whom, through whom, and to whom, are all things; and hath most sovereign dominion over them, to do by them, for them, or upon them, whatsoever himself pleaseth. In his sight all things are open and manifest; his knowledge is infinite, infallible, and independent upon the creature, so as nothing is to him contingent or uncertain. He is most holy in all his counsels, in all his works, and in all his commands. To him is due from angels and men, and every other creature, whatsoever worship, service, or obedience, he is pleased to require of them.”<sup>10</sup> [Emphasis added]

Of man, the Calvinists believed:

“By the decree of God, for the manifestation of his glory, some men and angels are predestinated unto everlasting life, and others foreordained to everlasting death. These angels and men, thus predestinated and foreordained, are particularly and unchangeably designed; and their number is so certain and definite, that it cannot be either increased or diminished.”<sup>11</sup>

Of themselves, the Calvinists believed:

“As God hath appointed the elect unto glory, so hath he, by the eternal and most free purpose of his will, foreordained all the means thereunto. Wherefore they who are elected being fallen in Adam, are redeemed in Christ; are effectually called unto faith in Christ by his Spirit working in due season; are justified, adopted, sanctified, and kept by His power through faith unto salvation. Neither are any other redeemed by Christ, effectually called, justified, adopted, sanctified, and saved, but the elect only...

The doctrine of this high mystery of predestination is to be handled with special prudence and care, that men attending the will of God revealed in his Word, and yielding obedience thereunto, may, from the certainty of their effectual vocation, be assured of their eternal election. So shall this doctrine afford matter of praise, reverence, and admiration of God, and of humility, diligence, and abundant consolation to all that sincerely obey the Gospel.”<sup>12</sup> [Emphasis added]

Lastly, of the Pope, the Calvinists believed:

“There is no other head of the church but the Lord Jesus Christ; nor can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof; but is that antichrist, that man of sin, and son of perdition, that exalteth himself in the church against Christ, and all that is called God.”<sup>13</sup> [Emphasis added]

Ah, dear truth-seeker, sublimer words have never been written by sin-cursed men. Yes, it was these fighting Calvinists who, knowing the Son of God and rightly thinking of Him coupled with their pure, stable and obedient lives, completely changed the face of medieval Europe. They in the minority, the Pope with his Jesuits and papists in the majority, the Son of God mightily moved in answering their prayers, giving the world “the Modern Era” and that refuge for the world’s persecuted Protestants, Baptists and Jews — The Federal (Calvinist) Republic of the United (Protestant) States of America! They knew they were the elect and therefore believed whatever befell them was predestinated!

For it was these White Anglo-Saxon Calvinists who created prosperous civilizations out of barren wildernesses — like South Africa — and brought wealth and industry to the great cities of Europe — like London, Paris, Berlin and Amsterdam.

But above all they regarded resistance to unlawful government – the Anti-Christian tyranny of the Jesuit General's absolute monarchies – a sacred duty. We read the words of John Knox, the great Scottish Reformer nicknamed “Calvin with a Sword of Just Defense”, spoken to Mary, Queen of Scots:

“...we are constrained by unjust tyranny purposed against us, to declare unto Your Grace, that except this cruelty be stayed by your wisdom, we will be compelled to take the sword of just defense against all that shall pursue us for the matter of religion, and for our conscience sake, which ought not, nor may not be subject to mortal creatures, farther than by God's Word man be able to prove that he hath power to command us...Better we think, to expose our bodies to a thousand deaths, than to hazard our souls to perpetual condemnation, by denying Christ Jesus, and His manifest truth.”<sup>14</sup> [Emphasis added]

This classic Calvinist conviction was expressed by a Scotch Covenanter, Isabel Alison, before her heartless execution by the government agents of the Jesuits' King Charles II in 1681:

“They said, Thought I ever that Charles II was our lawful king? I said, Yes; for he entered into covenant with God and the land; but he hath broken and cast off that tie, and hath exercised so much, both tyranny and cruelty, that I had just ground to decline him and them both. Then they bade my blood be upon my own head; but I told them they would find it would be on their heads, for it was owning of Christ's kingly office that they put me to suffer, say the contrary who will. Now I bless the Lord I am free from Jesuitical principles. The Scripture is my rule, and when obedience to men is contrary to obedience to God, I am clear to disown them.”<sup>15</sup> [Emphasis added]

When this Calvinist conviction was brought to the battlefield in prayer we see the American War for Independence from unbridled English tyranny in all its glory and success. Headley writes:

“...the patriotic clergy of the revolution never practiced self-deception; they did not wish for one thing in their hearts and pray for another with their lips. When they wanted the destruction of their foes, they did not pray about something else, and wait to see if their desires might not be accomplished through the agency of wicked men, or chance, or the devil. They came boldly to the Holy of Holies, and asked for it. Their enemies were the enemies of God; their foes those of the Church, who were coming to lay waste and destroy God's heritage, and they wished their overthrow, and honestly, and with strong crying and tears, prayed for it. Like Cromwell's Ironsides, who first invoked God's right arm to strike with them, and then, with the fearful war-cry 'Religion' on their lips swept like a thundercloud to battle; like the Covenanters, who prayed that their swords might be like that of Gideon, that turned not back from the slaughter, and then fell in fury on their pursuers; like David, praying for the overthrow of his enemies, and Moses, and Joshua, and the prophets, whose earnest supplications swelled the heaps of the slain; so these puritan divines, without rancor or vindictive hate, prayed in this fashion, and with an honest, earnest purpose, 'Thy kingdom come.' ”<sup>16</sup> [Emphasis added]

Such was the rag-tag American army led by their great chieftain and Protestant Southerner, General George Washington. Surrounded by Calvinist preachers like Timothy Dwight, – the grandson of Jonathan Edwards, the Calvinist man of God who preached America's First Great Awakening – Washington always received words of encouragement and exhortations to prayer. At Valley Forge we see the Father of our country at his greatest — on his knees. We read:

“One day a Quaker, by the name of Potts, was strolling up a creek, when he heard, in a secluded spot, the solemn voice of some one apparently engaged in prayer. Stealing quietly forward, he saw Washington's horse tied to a sapling, and a little farther on, in a thicket, the chief himself, on his knees, and with tears streaming down his cheeks, beseeching Heaven for his country and his army. Before God alone, that strong heart gave way, and poured forth the full tide of its griefs and anxieties. Though the heavens grew dark around him, and disaster after disaster wrecked his brightest hopes, and despair settled down on officers and men, he showed the same unalterable presence — moved the same tower of strength. But to his God he could safely go with his troubles, and on that arm securely lean. How sublime does he appear, and how good and holy the cause he was engaged in seems, as he thus carries it to the throne of a just God, feeling that it has his sanction and can claim his protection...No wonder peace sat enthroned on that brow when despair clouded all others.”<sup>17</sup>

In time the prayers of Washington were answered. Haym Solomon, a wealthy Jewish banker and Philadelphia broker, loaned his entire fortune, a quarter of a million dollars in specie, for the Army at Valley Forge. Catholic France and Spain, having expelled the Jesuits from their lands including all of South America, declared war on Protestant England, that Jesuit nest! Louis XVI dispatched the French navy to aid the beloved Lafayette. As a result, the English army, controlled by the Jesuits through King George III, was defeated at Yorktown, a village of Protestant Virginia. Obviously, the risen Son of God worked mightily in answer to many prayers!

Enraged, the Jesuits would cause France and Spain to pay dearly for this! In addition to France's expulsion of the Order in 1764 and now her aid to the accursed American heretics, the rage of the Jesuits would unleash the French Revolution. They would use Robespierre, brainwashed by Jesuits for nine years in their College of Louis-le-grand, to lead the Jacobins. The Jacobins would behead Louis XVI, who dared to resist the Jesuits, and murder his Hapsburg Queen, whose mother, Maria Theresa, had expelled the Order from Austria. They would cruelly torture and murder Louis' young son and destroy the flower of French manhood with the endless wars of Napoleon. The Jesuits would break up the French Empire and use King George III to restore the Bourbon Dynasty (after the Congress of Vienna) with their tyrant, Louis XVIII, who promptly readmitted the Jesuits.

Spain suffered a similar punishment. The Jesuits used Napoleon to drive Spain's Bourbon king into exile and to begin to break up the Spanish Empire, race amalgamation being one of their tactics. Again, they used George III to restore the Bourbon Dynasty (after the Congress of Vienna) with their beast, Ferdinand VII, who then promptly readmitted the Jesuits and revived the Inquisition with all its fury.

Meanwhile in America, George Washington became the most respected man of the age. Although having been initiated into English Freemasonry as a young man, he was largely inactive. We read his words in warning the whole country to beware of secret societies in a letter written on September 25, 1798:

"I have little more to add than thanks for your wishes, and favorable sentiments, except to correct an error you have run into of my presiding over English lodges in this country. The fact is I preside over none, nor have I been in one more than once or twice within the last thirty years. I believe, notwithstanding, that none of the lodges in this country are contaminated with the principles ascribed to the society of the Illuminati." <sup>18</sup> [Emphasis added]

Having been baptized into a Baptist Church by one of his officers, Pastor Gano, he became our first and greatest President. Our French hero, Lafayette, sent him the key to the Bastille after it was stormed and captured, while Frederick the Great sent him his sword with these words engraved upon it:

"From the Oldest General in Europe,
To the Greatest General in the world." <sup>19</sup>

Indeed, George Washington, in obtaining one of the Bible's promises – God-breathed by the Holy Spirit – and recorded in I Peter 5:6, had humbled himself under the mighty hand of God for which he was exalted in due time.

Like Cromwell, it was Washington who wept on his mother's neck after he heard her last words:

"You will see me no more...But you George, fulfill the high destinies which Heaven has assigned you. Go my son, and may Heaven and your mother's blessing be with you always." <sup>20</sup>

Having released all of his slaves, it was Washington who brought each colony into Statehood. For in the Treaty of Paris in 1783 they were declared to be "free, independent and sovereign". It was Washington who, having declined all compensation for his services, brought the nation out of bankruptcy by abolishing paper currency and called for the 1792 Coinage Act establishing gold and silver coins for the nation's money. He erected protective tariffs enabling the nation's manufacturers to grow – and prosper – unlike the Jesuits' oppressive North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) and General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) treaties of the 1990s. He left office after a glorious two terms as President and a brilliant Farewell Address with decency and honor.

Lastly, it was George Washington who was so beloved by France's General Lafayette. During the revolution our great chieftain took the "boy General" under his wing for which cause the Frenchman named his eldest son George Washington Lafayette. With this same endearing love the Roman Catholic Lafayette warned:

"It is my opinion that if the liberties of this country – the United States of America – are destroyed, it will be by the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Jesuit priests, for they are the most crafty, dangerous enemies to civil and religious liberty. They have instigated most of the wars of Europe." <sup>21</sup>

This in turn was paramount on the mind of Washington when he warned in his Farewell Address of 1796:

"Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence (I conjure you to believe me, fellow citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake, since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful woes of republican government." <sup>22</sup>

The difference between the Protestant American Revolution and the atheistic, French Revolution was the difference between Washington the Protestant and Baptist, advised by Calvinists, and Napoleon the Roman Catholic, advised by the Jesuit, Abby Sieyes. In Washington's darkest hour, he is weeping on his knees in prayer at Valley Forge. In Napoleon's darkest hour, he is abandoning his army in the snows of Russia, it being left to the mercy of the Cossacks. Washington refuses the title of "King" while Napoleon accepts the crown from the Pope as "Emperor". Further, the people of the colonies were Protestant Calvinists and Bible-reading; the people of France were disillusioned, atheistic Catholics, the Jesuits having outlawed the Bible and Protestantism for over one hundred years since the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685. The outcome of the American Revolution was a Constitutional Republic of federated sovereign States. The outcome of the French Revolution was a Jesuit-controlled military dictator resulting in the restoration of a Jesuit-controlled Monarch, Louis XVIII. Jesuits had their way in France; but, with their "Federalists" in America, failed to establish absolutism. That victory would have to wait until 1868.

But the Jesuits, with King George III who later became deaf and blind for persecuting the Bible-believing Church of the Son of God, were still alive and plotting. While Napoleon was busy deliberately sacrificing his army in the snows of Russia, George III invaded America with the War of 1812. The English apostate Protestants desecrated our White House and threatened to reduce us to serving the English Crown once again. But the Son of God sent us a second deliverer who was the savior of our Protestant Republic Washington had established. This man, the hero of New Orleans, was none other than "Ole Hickory" and another Protestant Southerner, President Andrew Jackson.

(As an aside, those great Jesuit agitators hated President Jackson, a Bible-believing Protestant although a low-level Freemason. By saving this "heretic" nation in restoring economic stability through abolishing "the United States Bank", returning to hard money (gold and silver coins) and erecting a protective tariff thereby helping our domestic manufacturers, the Jesuits attempted to shoot him at point-blank range with one of their dupes. In the providence of the Son of God the pistol misfired and our hero-President lived on to be the great inspiration of Pennsylvania's only President, James Buchanan.)

Years later the Jesuits in creating the American Indian Agitation of the 1960s reattacked their old enemy by blaming him for the movement of the Cherokee Nation from Georgia to west of the Mississippi River. In setting the record straight we appeal to the great Missouri Senator, Thomas Benton, and his Thirty Years' View. In Chapter CXXXVI titled "Removal of the Cherokees from Georgia" we read:

"In the winter of 1835-'36 a treaty was negotiated, by which the Cherokees, making clean disposal of all their possessions east of the Mississippi, ceded the whole, and agreed to go West, to join the half tribe beyond that river. The consideration paid them was ample and besides that moneyed consideration, they had large inducements, founded in views of their own welfare, to make the removal. These inducements were set out by themselves in the preamble to the treaty, and were declared to be: 'A desire to get rid of the difficulties experienced by a residence within the settled parts of the United States; and to reunite their people, by joining those who had crossed the Mississippi; and to live in a country beyond the limits of State sovereignties, and where they could establish and enjoy a government of their choice, and perpetuate a state of society, which might be most consonant with their views, habits, and condition, and which might tend to their individual comfort, and their advancement in civilization.'

These were sensible reasons for desiring a removal, and, added to the moneyed consideration, made it immensely desirable to the Indians. The direct consideration was five millions of dollars [!!!] which, added to stipulations to pay for the improvements on the ceded lands - to defray the expenses of removal to their new homes beyond the Mississippi - to subsist them for one year after their arrival - to commute school funds and annuities - to allow pre-exemptions and pay for reserves - with some liberal grants of money from Congress, for the sake of quieting complaints - and some large departmental allowances, amounted in the whole, to more than twelve millions of dollars! Being almost as much for their single extinction of Indian title in the corner of two States, as the whole province of Louisiana cost! And this in addition to seven millions of acres granted for their new home, and making a larger and a better home than the one they had left. Considered as a moneyed transaction, the advantage was altogether, and out of all proportion, on the side of the Indian; but relief to the States, and quiet to the Indians, and the completion of a wise and humane policy, were overruling considerations, which sanctioned the enormity of the amount paid." <sup>23</sup> [Emphasis added]

Indeed,

"Righteousness exalteth a nation;"

- Proverbs 14:34

So our great and learned White Anglo-Saxon, Scotch-Irish Protestant and Baptist Congress justly and generously treated the Cherokee people. And it was for this reason, in appreciation for their righteous treatment by the people of Protestant and Baptist Georgia, that the Cherokee Nation sided with the Southern Confederacy during the War Between the States and was the last to surrender to the Northern invaders controlled by the Radical Red Republicans in Washington.

A few years later, the Jesuits would make the Cherokee pay dearly for this, along with the rest of the Indian Nations in the process of the Jesuit General creating his Twentieth Century Monster of Vengeance — the “Holy Roman” Fourteenth Amendment American Empire. Dee Brown in her masterpiece, Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee, gives a most detailed and tragic account of the systematic destruction of the American Indian during the second half of the Nineteenth Century. For the Society of Jesus in control of Washington, D.C. through the Republican party used its savage Grande Armee of the North to cruelly humiliate and destroy the Native American Indian Nations. Tragically for the natives, they were betrayed by one of the most evil of White men they had come to trust, the Jesuit Peter De Smet!

(Dear American truth-seeker, did you learn this in high school or college? If you remember, we were all singing along with Paul Revere and the Raiders’ “Cherokee Nation”. This Jesuit agitation, along with the Civil Rights agitation, the abortion agitation and the Vietnam War nearly destroyed our patriotism while making us ashamed that we were members of the great White American Gentile Race!)

Under the blessing of the Son of God, George Washington and his Calvinist army won a war and created a country with a Protestant Constitution. Andrew Jackson saved it from the British sword wielded by King George III and his Jesuits. This glorious page of history would never have been written without the suppression of the Jesuit Order from 1773 to 1814. May we pause for a moment of silence to thank our Heavenly Father for using the Roman Catholic sovereigns and the Pope himself who courageously suppressed and abolished so odious and perfidious an Order.

As we shall see, the history of the Jesuits will continue to be one of murder, intrigue and enslavement towards all who resist their designs, including President John F. Kennedy who was wounded in the house of his friends, two of them being Henry Luce, whom he called “Lucy”, and J. Peter Grace, a former suitor of his sister, Kathleen.
